WHAT else could it be but—"In Your Easter Bonnet" for the first week-end in April, 1947?

Style-wise Salem matrons and maids have picked this year to wear the loveliest of bonnets for the Easter services. And more than a few young maids have picked Easter as their wedding day, with the ceremonies lovely with spring blooms.

A busy spring season it looks for all, with many social events planned after the quiet of Lent.

Golf has taken up again in earnest and gardening is an important part of the day, so that it looks (despite the uncertain weather) as if Salem's turned the corner well into spring.
