

Boots and Spurs

By Gloria Robinson

In comparison to last week's three shows, the Salem riders spent a quiet week-end, but a pleasant one. Ethel Rowland and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Ward played host to the club Friday night for Fun Night, and presented a complete score of entirely different games. Balancing a can on one's head and riding around the ring proved impossible for all but a few of the riders. Pairs of riders trying to eat ice cream with spoons tied together gave the audience a good laugh. Tommy Livezey, the club's newest member, made his first Fun Night appearance riding Saratoga.

Odds and ends: Jumping practice this week will be Saturday afternoon with capable Jim Hall in charge. Jim held a few of his students spellbound Sunday afternoon while he jumped his beautiful mare, Lady of War, over some mighty high hurdles. . . . Peggy Turley's new hunter, Sky, is a handsome fellow and Peggy is rightfully very proud of him. . . . Several of the riders took off Sunday for Mehana and a long trail ride. . . . The Van Weiders took a mid-week trip to Baker and came back with the news that the Salem calf ropers are expected in Redmond for a calf roping match this week-end. . . . Midge Rider has acquired a new horse, also, a big, handsome gray that she expects to train as a hunter. . . . Joanne MacFarlane is riding her buckskin colt, Poncho, now and will probably be riding him at the club soon. . . . Little Donny Pyeatt is fast becoming an expert calf rider, a future champion in the making like his big brother, Jimmy. . . . Mac Prince is tying his calves in record time, 15 seconds for example. . . . Cowboy Hank Hess goes home from the hospital this week and he's not a bit unhappy about it. . . .

Calf roping ends in about two weeks as rodeos will take all of the boys' time. Good season and good luck, boys, and bring home the trophies!

Miss Carmen Navarro, bride-elect of Jose Arichiga, was guest of honor at a shower at the home of Theresa and Carolin Aguiar.
