Finders of model airplanes which disappeared in flight are not keepers and the tiny craft should be returned to owners or, at least the owners notified of their recovery, according to Elmer Roth, Salem Model airplane club, 21st and Market streets, who urges cooperation along this line. Five model planes disappeared after flights from the McMinnville airport a week ago Sunday and are believed "grounded" in the McMinnville-Dayton area. One of the planes was recovered Monday that had been found on the property of a farmer, the finder reluctantly giving it up after ownership had been established. Two of the missing planes belong to members of the Portland Gas Hoppers who also took part in the contest.

Several planes have disappeared entirely during the last few years but whether they came down in some remote section or are being held by the finder is not known. All planes bear identification registration numbers and in addition usually carry the name of the owner and his address.

Mrs. Graham Dies in Hospital

In ill health for many months, Mrs. Minnie Theodora Graham, member of a prominent old Oregon family and a late resident of 461 South High street, died Sunday at a local hospital where she had been a patient for the past nine months.

Mrs. Graham, daughter of Mithra and Julia Ann Jones, was born December 1, 1862, on the old donation land claim of her grandparents, Charles and Margaret Hubbard, pioneers of 1847. The town of Hubbard is located on part of the land claim on which she was born.

In 1882 Minnie Jones was married to John Smith Graham, prominent educator of Salem and Marion county. The couple spent the first years of their married life in the Hubbard vicinity and moved to Salem in 1892, when Mr. Graham was elected Marion county school superintendent. Since then she had made her home in Salem, residing at 461 South High street for the past 40 years. Two children were born to the couple, Leo Jasper, who died in infancy, and Leona G. Johnson, who survives her mother. The only other survivor is a granddaughter, Julia Graham Johnson of Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Johnson was a member of the First Methodist church. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, April 30, at 3 p.m. at the W. T. Rigdon chapel with Dr. Joseph M. Adams officiating. Concluding services will be in the Hubbard cemetery.

Plane Lost With School Budget 2 Men Aboard To Be Upped

Eugene, Ore., April 29 (AP)—A light plane with two men aboard was missing between Medford and Eugene today and a lifting ceiling was awaited by search planes.

La Verne Hughes, 21, Portland, widely known ski enthusiast, was a passenger on the plane piloted by Thomas Miller, Milwaukie salesman.

The CAA reported the plane left Medford at 6 p.m. yesterday bound for Eugene. When it failed to arrive, all emergency landing fields were checked without results.

Low ceilings and light rain were reported along his route. The plane, a yellow and red Aerona, was not equipped with radio according to John Inman of Hillsboro from whom Miller rented the plane for a business trip to Medford.

The CAA notified the air rescue service at McChord field, Tacoma.

Hughes, also a pilot, was twice the Pacific northwest junior four-way ski champion. In 1941 he won the Birger Underdahl trophy as Oregon's outstanding junior ski speedster. Since then he has competed in senior events throughout the west.

(Another plane was reported missing late yesterday at Astoria, but R. E. Wardell, Hillsboro, arrived on a flight from Troutdale after having been reported overdue.)

Plane Lost With School Budget 2 Men Aboard To Be Upped

Although the Salem school district will receive $279,310 by reason of the operation of the basic school support fund, or approximately $100,000 more than would have been the case if the measure had not been adopted, the budget for the 1947-48 term will be considerably higher than a year ago. This was indicated Monday by Connell Ward, clerk and manager as he prepared his estimates for consideration of the board Tuesday night. The increase in instructional costs is largely responsible for the tilt in the budget.

As has been the case for several years, a special election will be necessary because the budget exceeds the six percent limitation.

The district has either spent or has earmarked all of the money raised through operation of the special six mill levy voted by the people three years ago and when new construction is undertaken the district is expected to float bonds for this purpose. The recent consolidation with a number of outlying districts eliminates the six mill levy plan which had two years to run.

Petition by L. H. Odom and others to the county court asks that a road 1340 feet east of Bangers four corners and run-Badgers Four Corners and running southerly for approximately 2100 feet be given the name of Tierra drive. Hearing on the petition has been set for 10 a.m. May 9.
