WU Choir Will Give Concert

Appearing in concert Sunday evening at 7:30 in the First Presbyterian church will be the Willamette university a cappella choir under the direction of Dean Melvin H. Geist. The program will mark the final concert of the year for the choir and the only Salem appearance at which the entire concert used on tour this year will be pre

The choir recently returned from a tour of southern Oregon cities, having traveled approxi-mately 1000 miles and making 14 appearances. Audiences in Cottage Grove, Coos Bay, North Bend. Roseburg, Grants Pass, Medford, Ashland, Klamath Falls, Bend, and Redmond total-ed approximately 8000 people. Since Dean Geist orsanized

Since Dean Geist organized the a cappella choir in the fall of 1939, the group has toured extensively throughout Oregon.

Washington and Idaho.
Other spring appearances of the choir include the Collegiate choral festival in Portland, Friday, May 9 with 7 participating choirs, totaling 350 voices. Each choir will appear individually, then the groups will combine for numbers as a massed chorus
