

East Salem Home Extension Units Look to New Year

East Salem, May 6—Each year the last regular home extension meetings are held in the month of May. Officers who were elected in April will be installed so they will be ready to take over the new work in October and help with the planning of the projects to be presented next year. Women who plan to attend and have some special subjects they would like to have considered at the next year's meeting should contact the new unit chairman before May 14, which is program planning day.

The project to be presented at all East Salem units this month is, "Care of the Feet" and will be given by project leaders from each unit. Lansing Neighbors unit will meet on Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Harry C. Otte at 350 Evergreen avenue. East Salem unit will meet at 1:30 in the home of Mrs. Glenn Larkins on Hollywood drive.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burt are back at their home on Montanna lane after almost a month's visit with relatives and friends in Nebraska, at and their their former home.

Three families have sold their homes in Swegle district and will be moving as soon as school is out. The Earl Tuckers, Lester Boltons and John Steels. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Nelson will be moving into Salem this week and Mrs. William Hensell will take over their home which she bought. Mrs. Archie Wentje is in Salem General hospital where she is recovering from a major operation of the first of last week. She plans on returning to her home on Lancaster drive this week.

Benjamin Franklin was the first head of the U. S. postal service.

Portland, May 6 (AP)—Most of the 30,000 Oregon aged, blind and dependent children whose welfare checks for May were delayed, received them by today, the state welfare commission reported.

Miss Lon Howard, administrator, said the checks were mailed Sunday when the federal social security check for the allotments was received by air mail.

Portland, May 6 (AP)—Seed oysters from Japan have been planted in four Oregon bays, the Oregon state fish commission reported today.

The seed, of a smaller variety than previous plantings and a size favored in Atlantic coast markets, was obtained in Japan by the Washington state fisheries biologists for northwest planting. The Oregon beds are located in Tillamook, Yaquina, Winchester and Coos bays.

Cop Sentenced to 10 Years in Pen

Mt. Vernon, Wash., May 6 (AP)—Dan Hogan, former Seattle policeman, today was under sentence of 10 years in the state penitentiary after his conviction on second degree assault charges last November.

Judge W. L. Brikey imposed the sentence yesterday.

Hogan was convicted of slugging Wayne Noble, a sailor, with a chain last spring when the latter complained a steak cooked by Hogan in a local cafe was not edible.

Defense Attorney Tracy Griffin, Seattle, said he would appeal the case to the state supreme court. Bail was set at $8000.

Larmer Receives Building Approval

D. A. Larmer received approval Monday from the civilian production administration for construction of a warehouse for his transfer and storage business. The building will cost an estimated $90,000, and will be located north of the warehouse on Broadway.

The Western Paper Converting company has received approval for a machine shop to cost $3450, and Warren Doolittle for a truck service station in West Salem to cost $7500.

C. H. Hoyt Silvertown got approval for a warehouse to cost an estimated $18,000.

Navy Man Visits

Lake Labish, May 6—Richard M. Hirsch, chief motor machinist mate, USN, is visiting at his home here on leave after 20 years spent in the navy. He graduated from Lake Labish school 20 years ago under Miss Anna Harold, teacher. He carries numerous decorations and service bars indicative of his long service. He will visit here briefly before returning to his ship USS Bayfield at San Diego. He is married and his home is at Oakland, Calif.

National Forest Timber for Sale
Oral auction bids will be received by the Regional Forester, Post Office Building, Broadway & Gilliam Sts., Portland, Oregon, beginning at 2:00 p.m., June 6, 1947, for all the live timber marked or designated for cutting, and all merchantable dead timber located on an area embracing about 500 acres within Section 31, T. 8 S., R. 5 E., and Sections 6, 7, and 18, T. 9 S., R. 5 E., W.M., Williams National Forest, Oregon, estimated to be 18,507,000 feet B.M., more or less, of Douglas-fir, 11,148,000 feet B.M., more or less, of western redcedar, 2,812,000 feet B.M., more or less, of noble fir, 213,000 feet B.M., more or less, of white fir, 41,000 feet B.M., more or less, of western white pine, and 5,000 feet B.M., more or less, of Alaska yellow cedar, sealed bids accompanied by required payment received by the Regional Forester prior to 2:00 p.m., June 6, 1947, will be considered the equivalent of an oral bid and posted for the information of all bidders. The appraised value of the timber according to long-term, normal market and operating conditions is $4.90 per M feet for Douglas-fir, $1.85 per M feet for western redcedar, $4.40 per M feet for noble fir, $1.85 per M feet for white fir, $4.90 per M feet for western white pine, and $4.40 per M feet for Alaska yellow cedar. No bid will be considered which is less than these rates as a base rate applicable through the entire period of the sale agreement, plus at least $2.40 per M feet for Douglas-fir, $1.85 per M feet for western redcedar, $4.40 per M feet for noble fir, $1.85 per M feet for white fir, $2.40 per M feet for western white pine, and $4.40 per M feet for Alaska yellow cedar. The total to apply for all timber cut prior to January 1, 1949. On that date and at other times, as stated in the contract, total rates will be redetermined, but in no event will the redetermined stumpage rates be less than the basic appraised value as first above stated, and in no event will rates below those bid be established until at least 9,000,000 feet B.M. have been cut and paid for at not less than the bid rate. In addition to the price bid for stumpage, a cooperative deposit of $0.20 per M feet B.M., to cover the cost of tree planting, seed sowing and timber stand improvement work on the area cut over, for the total cut of timber under the terms of the agreement, will be required. $10,000.00 to be applied on the purchase price, refunded, or retained in part as liquidated damages according to conditions of sale, must accompany each sealed bid and must be shown to be in the possession of oral bidders as a qualification for auction bidding. If an oral bid is declared to be high at the closing of the auction, the bidder must immediately make the required payment and confirm the bid by submitting it in writing on a Forest Service bid form. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved. Before bids are submitted, full information concerning the timber, the conditions of sale and the submission of bids should be obtained from the Forest Supervisor, Eugene, Oregon, or the Regional Forester, Portland, Oregon.
