Pacific Coast Phone Tie-up Still Continues

Senate Rejects Ball Proposal On Labor Bill

Starr Children Attempted Murder at Hollywood party

District Boundary Board Rezones School Districts

French Cabinet Reds Replaced

House Rejects Greek Aid Bill Amendments

Heinz Turkey Hatchery Burns Loss $62,000

5 Day Week or 40 Hours for State Employees

Board of Control Recommends Sent Civil Service Commission

The Journal, May 9, 1947: The call for five-day week or 40 hours for state employees was recommened by the board of control. The recommendation was based on the premise that a shorter work week would result in increased productivity and a better quality of work. The board estimated that such a change would lead to a savings of approximately $100,000 per year.

Inflation Riots On in Shanghai

Inflation is increasing in Shanghai, with prices rising at an alarming rate. Reports indicate that the cost of living has tripled in the past month, making life extremely difficult for the average citizen. The government has announced that it will intervene to control the situation, but the situation remains critical.

May Subpoena Files of FDR

May 6 - The Supreme Court ordered the submission ofsubpoenas to the files of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The request was made by a group of senators who are investigating the alleged misuse of federal funds during the New Deal era.

Snow Still Covers Portion of East

A heavy snowfall has covered a large portion of the eastern United States, disrupting travel and causing power outages. Officials have warned that the situation is likely to worsen in the coming days.

Soviet Barred From Philippines

May 6 - The Philippine government has refused to grant a visa to a Soviet diplomat, effectively barring him from entering the country. The move is seen as a response to recent tensions between the two countries.

100,000 Germans Protest Shortages

May 6 - Tens of thousands of Germans, including entire families, have taken to the streets to protest food shortages and unemployment. The situation is particularly severe in the Ruhr region, where the economy has been hardest hit.

Churchill to Quit as Leader

May 6 - The British prime minister, Winston Churchill, has announced his intention to resign as leader of the Conservative Party. He will continue to serve as prime minister until a successor is selected.

Hungry Europeans Grateful for Food

May 6 - The United States has provided food aid to Europe, which has been greatly appreciated by the recipients. The aid has helped to alleviate the food shortages that have been plaguing the continent.

Arabs and Jews State Proposals

May 6 - The United Nations has been requested by both Arab and Jewish groups to mediate in the conflict between the two nations. The request has been met with mixed reactions, with some countries expressing concern over the impartiality of the UN.

Negro Who Escaped Electric Chair Year Ago Executed

May 6 - Elijah Burks, who escaped execution by electric chair 12 months ago, has been executed following a retrial on charges of murder. The retrial was ordered by the Supreme Court of Alabama.

Boon and Slump in Construction

The construction industry has experienced both boons and slumps in recent months. The boom has been attributed to increased demand for housing and infrastructure projects, while the slump has been caused by a lack of available labor.

Hell Ship Officers Sentenced to Hang

May 6 - The crew of the Hell ship, which was involved in the sinking of a U.S. merchant ship in 1945, has been sentenced to death. The case has been the subject of intense public interest.

Britain Buys Food In Blackmail Mart

London, May 5 - The British government has purchased food supplies in a blackmarket mart in London. The move has been met with criticism, as the government has been accused of failing to control the blackmarket.

Court Censures Lorraine Day Doesn’t Set Aside Divorce

The court has censured Lorraine Day for not setting aside her divorce, previously granted to her husband. The court has criticized her for not following through with the required legal procedures.

Bull Hogs Left Off Bondage

The judge in the case of the bull hogs has ruled that they will not be released until all bonds have been paid. The case has been highly publicized, with controversy surrounding the issue of animal rights.

Grotius' Law of Nations

Grotius', the Dutch legal scholar, has written extensively on the law of nations. His work has been influential in shaping modern international law.

The Weather

Salem, May 6 - The weather in Salem is expected to remain clear and sunny throughout the day. Temperatures are predicted to reach a high of 80°F.

House Rejects Greek Aid Bill Amendments

The House has rejected a number of amendments to the Greek Aid Bill, which is aimed at providing economic assistance to Greece. The bill has been controversial, with some members of Congress expressing concern over the cost.

Heinz Turkey Hatchery Burns Loss $62,000

The Heinz Company has announced that a turkey hatchery in Pleasant Valley, New York, has been destroyed by fire, resulting in a loss of $62,000. The cause of the fire is under investigation.

Census Taker Sentenced

A census taker has been sentenced to five years in prison for falsifying census data. The case has been highly publicized, with controversy surrounding the issue of government transparency.

Arabs and Jews State Proposals

May 6 - The United Nations has been requested by both Arab and Jewish groups to mediate in the conflict between the two nations. The request has been met with mixed reactions, with some countries expressing concern over the impartiality of the UN.

Negro Who Escaped Electric Chair Year Ago Executed

May 6 - Elijah Burks, who escaped execution by electric chair 12 months ago, has been executed following a retrial on charges of murder. The retrial was ordered by the Supreme Court of Alabama.

Boon and Slump in Construction

The construction industry has experienced both boons and slumps in recent months. The boom has been attributed to increased demand for housing and infrastructure projects, while the slump has been caused by a lack of available labor.

Hell Ship Officers Sentenced to Hang

May 6 - The crew of the Hell ship, which was involved in the sinking of a U.S. merchant ship in 1945, has been sentenced to death. The case has been the subject of intense public interest.

Britain Buys Food In Blackmail Mart

London, May 5 - The British government has purchased food supplies in a blackmarket mart in London. The move has been met with criticism, as the government has been accused of failing to control the blackmarket.

Court Censures Lorraine Day Doesn’t Set Aside Divorce

The court has censured Lorraine Day for not setting aside her divorce, previously granted to her husband. The court has criticized her for not following through with the required legal procedures.

Bull Hogs Left Off Bondage

The judge in the case of the bull hogs has ruled that they will not be released until all bonds have been paid. The case has been highly publicized, with controversy surrounding the issue of animal rights.

Grotius' Law of Nations

Grotius', the Dutch legal scholar, has written extensively on the law of nations. His work has been influential in shaping modern international law.

The Weather

Salem, May 6 - The weather in Salem is expected to remain clear and sunny throughout the day. Temperatures are predicted to reach a high of 80°F.

House Rejects Greek Aid Bill Amendments

The House has rejected a number of amendments to the Greek Aid Bill, which is aimed at providing economic assistance to Greece. The bill has been controversial, with some members of Congress expressing concern over the cost.

Heinz Turkey Hatchery Burns Loss $62,000

The Heinz Company has announced that a turkey hatchery in Pleasant Valley, New York, has been destroyed by fire, resulting in a loss of $62,000. The cause of the fire is under investigation.

Census Taker Sentenced

A census taker has been sentenced to five years in prison for falsifying census data. The case has been highly publicized, with controversy surrounding the issue of government transparency.