Missions from Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia Meet In Belgrade

Yugoslavia disclosed to da that Bulgarian military mission was in Belgrade, broadening the scope of Balkan conferences which have developed since the sion also was to arrive tomorrow in Premier Marshal Tito's capital, already host to a Romanian delegation headed by Communist Premier Petru Groza.

The Bulgarians Yugoslav in formation authorities said, actu-ally arrived Saturday. The delay in the announcement was not explained. The Czechoslo-vak mission ostensibly was to make a 10-day tour of Yugo-

Federation Proposed Groza waved aside suggestions in a news conference last night that a Balkan federation, such as has been suggested by Tito. was in the making.

But he said that the cultural and economic cooperation be-tween his country and Yugo-slavia eventually would lead to complete political cooperation.

With the Bulgarian mission was Lt, Gen. Zaharje Zaharijev, who, a Yugoslav announcement said, was in Belgrade "for the Soviet Union." The announce-ment gave no indication of the purpose of the visit.

Broadcast Bill Upheld by House

Washington, June 10 (P)-By a tellers' tally of 119 to 92, the house rejected today a new attempt to kill a measure authorizing the administration to opcrate a foreign information and educational exchange program.

The action came on a motion by Rep. Noah Mason (R., Ill.) to strike out the measure's enacting clause—a procedure that, if successful, would have automatically meant the bill's defeat. Earlier, Secretary of State Marshall told senators it is "es-sential to the conduct of our for-
