

Joan Post to Be Married October 18

A surprise to their many friends will be that of the engagement and forthcoming marriage of Miss Joan Post, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Post, and Dean Meador, of Corvallis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Meador of Patoka, Ill.

The couple will be married at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, October 18, at St. Paul's Episcopal church with Rev. George H. Swift officiating.

The bride-elect attended Salem schools and Oregon State college. She is now on the staff of the Salem public library. Her fiancé, who attended the University of Illinois, served in the navy during the war, and is now a student at Oregon State college, and the couple will live in Corvallis.

The past presidents of Capital unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary will meet Monday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, 1630 A street.

Fall Bride—Mrs. David M. Holmes, who before her marriage of September 9 at the First Congregational church was Adie Lou Snoddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Snoddy of Aumsville. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holmes of Portland. The couple will live in Salem while attending Willamette. (Richard Holmes photo)

Donna Boyle Married On Sunday

Bride of Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock was Miss Donna Boyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Boyle, who exchanged her wedding vows with Kenneth Smith, son of Mrs. Lloyd Allen.

Rev. J. M. Goodheart officiated at the First Christian church. Mrs. John Schmidt played the organ. The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums and lavender and yellow asters.

Mr. Boyle gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a blue dressmaker suit with black accessories and carried a white Bible, topped with a lavender orchid.

The bride's sister, Miss Vera Boyle, was her only attendant. She wore a lavender dress with brown accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Miss Helen Brantner and Miss Edith Kyle lighted the tapers. The best man was Noel Ferry and ushers were Quinton Smith and Paul Dilly.

The young couple left immediately following the ceremony for their wedding trip. They will be at home in Corvallis, where he will attend Oregon State college.

Brush College—The first community club meeting will open with a no-host supper in the school basement Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock. New and old residents are invited. Hot school lunches and installation of new club officers will be business of the evening. Mrs. Fred Meyer and Mrs. Theodore Whacken are on the supper committee. Presiding will be the president, Mrs. Orland Watts.

Committee chairmen of Capital unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary Sept. 30, at eight o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Merle D. Travis, 948 Shipping street.

Rainbow Girls To Install

Woodburn—Open installation ceremonies will be held by Evergreen Assembly No. 12, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, Wednesday evening, September 24, at the Masonic Temple when Miss Mary Margaret Helsel, daughter of Mrs. Marian Helsel of Woodburn, will be installed as worthy adviser. Miss Helsel, who graduated from Woodburn high school last spring, was a princess at the Salem Cherry festival during the summer.

Miss Hazel Engle, retiring worthy adviser, will be the installing officer and will be assisted by Miss Anita Miller as marshal, Miss Barbara Fisher as chaplain, Miss Ardell Rudi as recorder and Miss Opal McCoy as musician.

Other elective officers to be installed are: Miss Eleanor Moen, worthy associate adviser; Miss Jeanne Butterfield, Charity; Miss Joan Davis, Hope; and Miss Mary McGrath, Faith.

Appointive officers, also to be installed, are JoAnn Olson, chaplain; Carleen Helsel, drill leader; Caroline Helsel, assistant drill leader; Mary Mayhew, pianist; Patricia Withers, choir director; Mildred Guthrie, outside observer; Joanne Garver, confidential observer; Beverly Anderson, red; Lois Thompson, orange; Arlyss Nelson, yellow; Betty DeHaan, green; Patricia Housewart, blue; Doris Pillsbury, indigo; Margaret McGonegal, violet; John Gregory and Annette Childreth, pages; Loris Larson, Darlene Swanson, Lora McClain, Margie Green, Eileen Rogers and Carole Blake, chorus.

Marion County Republican Women held their first meeting of the year at the Chamber of Commerce Monday night with Herman Lanke, Marion county recorder, as their speaker. Lanke, who told of the duties of his office, is the first of the county officers to appear before the group in a series of speeches arranged for this year. Each will tell of the functions of his office.

Nancy Austin Is Sunday Bride At Home of Grandparents

Woodburn—Miss Nancy Alicia Austin, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Leland A. Austin of Governor's Island, New York, became the bride of Maurice Hyde Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Gardner of Woodland, Washington, formerly of Portland, Saturday, September 20, at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Austin of Woodburn. The service was read at 4 o'clock by the Rev. O. A. Jewell of the Methodist church in the presence of relatives and close friends.

Tall cathedral candelabras entwined with ivy, formed the setting for the service with baskets of white gladioluses and asters about the rooms.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin wedding gown with short train and fingertip length veil, held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid with a shower of bouvardia.

Miss Sally Austin was her sister's only attendant. She wore a frock of light blue sheer with sweetheart neckline, bouffant drape at the hips, cap sleeves and full skirt. Her flowers were pink and blue bouvardia centered with a gardenia.

Best man for Mr. Gardner was William Fields of Portland and the wedding music was played by Miss Marjorie Sims of Milton-Freewater, a sorority sister of the bride.

A small reception followed the ceremony. Mrs. Jay Allen of Carmel Valley, Calif., aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Wallace Jones of Woodburn presided at the urn, and Mrs. John Kallack of Corvallis, also an aunt of the bride, served, assisted by Mrs. Donald MacMillan of Woodburn, and Mrs. Betsy West of Portland. Mrs. Leslie Thayer of Portland passed the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner left immediately for a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches. For traveling Mrs. Gardner wore a suit of dark fuchsia with brown accessories and orchid corsage.

The bride attended Willamette university and graduated at Oregon State college where she was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She recently returned from China where she spent six months with her parents while her father was stationed in Peiping. Mr. Gardner attended Oregon State college where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega, and is a graduate of the University of Colorado. He served in the re-are YOU 5-foot-4-or-under?

Exclusive at Schlesinger & Co.

Then you'll appreciate what this clever original, created by Sergee of California, will do for you. That daring, unbroken line from shoulder to hemline, adds inches to your height... and for added interest there's a double kickpleat in the back. It's meticulously fashioned in beautiful Sanchilla crepe - one of those famous Duplex fabrics. Sizes 10 to 20.

Schlesinger & Co.
409 Court

Exclusive at Schlesinger & Co.

Brittany's beautiful fur tuxedo... a pleasure-wear coat

Unusually becoming with a generous sweep of silver-dyed muskrat, a new wearable sweep-back and longer-than-ever length. An unusual value, for not only is it tax free but it will give you seasons of wear. In a fine rich Brittany suede and in these wonderful colors... gray, wine, wintergreen, black. (Tax free.)

Exclusive at Schlesinger & Co.

The Draper fleece coat for warm winter wear... Brittany-Tailored

What a wonderful coat this is! It takes all kinds of weather - is extremely warm and sturdy! Tailored by Brittany with luxurious fullness, and a new length that takes in fashion's latest hemline. The fabric - a hardy though soft Draper fleece. The colors - gray, deep brown and black.

Schlesinger & Co.
409 Court St.

MAX FACTOR HOLLYWOOD

Rouge Sensation

CLEAR RED
BLUE RED
ROSE RED

...created to harmonize with the Max Factor Hollywood New Lipstick.

WILLETT'S CAPITAL DRUG
State & Liberty, Phone 3118