Tofte of Calvary Lutheran church is announcing male chorus practice Monday night; Naomi society Tuesday night at the Paradise Alley country home of Mrs. Orville Olson and Wednesday afternoon Ladies Aid, Mrs. John Elling hostess at church parlors. Beginning Wednesday night, a series of special meetings are beginning to be held each evening through Sunday, visiting evangelist speaker, Rev. Alfred Knutson of Fargo, N. Dakota.

Elderly Relatives Visited by Dr. Goin

Jefferson—Dr. J. W. Goin of Albany was in Jefferson the past week and called on his youngest aunt, Mrs. B. S. Richardson, who has passed her 83rd birthday. Goin and his aunt, Mrs. Richardson, motored to Stayton and visited his eldest aunt, Mrs. Ann Stayton, who has passed her 96th birthday last June 4. She is living alone and is very active, doing her housework including washing and ironing, sewing and canned her fruit for the year. She also planted her garden and took care of it. She has made her home in Stayton since 1866 and the town bears her name. Her uncle built the first board house and her father and uncle built the first church in Stayton and his uncle was the first pastor of the Baptist church.

Home Nursing Course Finished, Mill City

Mill City—Completing this week the Red Cross home nursing course in Mill City, under the supervision of Mrs. Anna Swift and receiving their certificates were Mrs. Jack Carey, Mrs. Lowell Cree, Mrs. Delores Hoeye, Mrs. John Holman, Mrs. Nelson Lanphear, Mrs. Charles Powlison and Mrs. Robert Swift. The last meeting was held at the home of the instructor, Mrs. Swift, and was followed by a no-host luncheon. Those completing the course surprised Mrs. Swift with a handkerchief shower. Mrs. Swift is planning another Red Cross class after the holidays, the date to be announced later.

Flue Fire Alarms

Silverton—Just after the bells and noises common to ushering in of the New Year had ceased, a real fire alarm was sounded sending the volunteers on a rush call to Toney's restaurant in East Main street. A flue fire was the cause and kept under control with a no damage report given.

Sunday Beer Closing Act Before Council

Independence—The monthly meeting of the Independence city council will be held at the city hall Wednesday evening. The matter of the resignation of Councilman Bradford Humphrey and the petition to close places selling beer on Sundays, held over from the last meeting, will come up for action.

Polk Jersey Cattle Club Plans Dinner

Independence—The Polk County Cattle club will hold its annual meeting January 8 at the Rockcreek Grange hall with a no-host dinner at noon.

A musical and educational program of interest to dairymen with special emphasis on testing, both DHIA and official testing, led by Prof. Floyd Wolberg, professor of dairying at OSC, and Walter Leth, Polk county agent who will also outline the responsibilities of the Polk County Jersey Cattle club to dairymen of the county.

Jack Wright, manager of the Farmer's Union at McMinnville, will present the musical entertainment.

Memorial Stadium Fund is Increasing

Albany—Seventeen thousand dollars are now in the coffers of the Albany Memorial Stadium committee, according to a report submitted to the members by Charles Rawlings at their meeting at the Elks club.

With a goal of $85,000 the committee plans soon to intensify its efforts to raise the funds from the community for the World War II memorial.

Approximately $4,000 in unpaid pledges remains to be collected before the general drive gets under way but meanwhile the committee plans to start work on the field itself as soon as weather and an overall survey of the grounds by the school board permit.

The plant will be located on a 12-acre tract, donated by the Albany school board, on Elm street near the Pacific highway and is adjacent to more school board property.

Silverton

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Moe are spending the holidays in Los Angeles with relatives of Mrs. Moe.

Local friends received Christmas greetings from Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McGinnis now at Los Angeles with members of their family, and who are spending the winter months in different southern states.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blust of Tacoma are spending the holidays at the Gus Herr home. Mrs. Blust is the former Delores Herr.

Mrs. Charles Johnson, now of Salem, phoned greetings during the Christmas holiday to her numerous friends in Silverton. Mrs. Johnson was the charter member president of Delbert Reeves unit No. 7, American Legion auxiliary. She has been in delicate health for some time and is making satisfactory improvement.

Holiday house guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Toney with a Christmas day late afternoon dinner served were Mrs. Toney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hoberg of Baker, Ore.; her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ponti of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Murovski, daughter and son-in-law of the Toneys, and their two sons, Tom and Jerry, of Vancouver, Wash., and another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lund, Silverton.

Xmas Ship Campaign Continues One Week

Woodburn—Winton J. Hunt, local chairman of the Northwest Christmas food ship campaign, to provide food for the starving people of Europe, has announced that the campaign will be continued at least until January 10 instead of closing on January 3 as first scheduled.

Cash contributions are being sought. Milk bottles have been placed in Woodburn stores and residents are asked to contribute the equivalent in cash for anything they buy. Donations by check may be mailed direct to Hunt or left at his office at 143 Grant street.

The local committee includes Chairman Hunt, Rev. V. L. Mofenbeier, Rev. Wesley Skinner, Mrs. Frank Bentley and Ed Colman.

Freres Home Bright With Holiday Lights

Stayton—The Louis Freres home on East Jefferson street presents one of the most attractive outdoor Christmas scenes in Stayton in recent years.

Santa Claus in his sleigh and two of his reindeer were cut from plywood on the roof. The figures are illuminated by floodlights placed lower on the roof.

Festoons of colored lights adorn the entrance, and a large sign swung from a pole at the right of the house and near the road carried the greeting "Merry Christmas," which was replaced by one wishing all a Happy New Year after Christmas.

The large black letters are illuminated against a white background.

Albany Man Heads Linn Shrine Club

Albany—V. A. Hurley, Albany, was elected president of the Linn County Shrine club at the annual meeting of the group held in the Masonic temple here this week. Ned Callaway, Brownsville, was named first vice president; Carl G. Stanley, Albany, second vice president; Fred H. Foster, Albany, secretary-treasurer, and L. M. Marvin, Lebanon, Archie L. Heseman, S. West Home; Dr. George M. Larson, Brownsville; Dr. A. G. Prill, Seio; Charles Kirk and Charles Rawlings, Albany, executive committee.

At the meeting it was reported that net proceeds from the Shrine Chanters benefit concert given here last month under auspices of the Albany club totaled $1,086 all of which will be used toward maintaining the Shrine hospital for crippled children at Portland.

Knox Butte Voters Frown Upon Merger

Albany—Proposed consolidation of Knox Butte school district No. 19 and Albany district No. 5 was disapproved by Knox Butte voters at a consolidation election. It was approved in Albany by a vote of 30 yes and 9 no while the adverse vote in Knox Butte was 14 yes and 47 no.

When the vote was canvassed Monday the total vote was shown as 44 yes and 56 no. A majority in both districts would have been necessary to effect the merger.

Forum Will Appoint

Silverton—At the first meeting of the Silverton Chamber of Commerce of the new year, appointments of committee chairmen will be made by the president, Gus Herr, and the secretary, Henry Pritzlaff. The place of the dinner meeting will be announced later.

Farm Bureau Center Plan For North Marion County

Woodburn—A north Marion county farm bureau center will be organized at a meeting called for 8 o'clock Wednesday night at the Woodburn high school according to announcement by Tom DeArmond, temporary chairman. Interested farmers from the Woodburn, Hubbard, Aurora, St. Paul, Gervais, Donald and Brooks districts are urged to attend.

Lowell Steen, Oregon Farm Bureau president, and Marshall Swearingen, state executive secretary, will be the principal speakers and will explain the benefits of the bureau. The meeting will climax a membership acquisition program which has been carried on by farmers in this vicinity in cooperation with Sanly McDonald, western Oregon representative.

Following the organization the local group will be affiliated with similar groups being organized in other areas, and the county organization will make application later to go into the state federation.

Active membership consists of men who produce 60 per cent of their income from farming. The present members in this vicinity include John Ramage and Son, Henry Miller and Son, DeArmond Brothers, John N. Hooper, Delbert Seely, Joe Kirsch, Pardy Brothers, Lester Eppers, George Belinger, Walter Sybrandt, Norman Seely, Harry Lane, Joe Serres, Leonard Ronnie, Bill and Bernice Chase and E. W. Christenson.

Church Dedication Scheduled Sunday

Woodburn—Special dedication services for the new Church of God building on Third street will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. according to the pastor, Rev. M. Wesley Skinner. The new building has an auditorium with 300 seating capacity, 10 classrooms, a pastor's study and library.

Work was started last spring and much of the labor has been donated by members of the church.

Dr. A. F. Gray, president of the Pacific Bible college, will be the dedicatory speaker and special music will be by a male quartet from the college. Ministers are expected from all over the state as well as local ministers. The public is invited to attend.
