

Dinner Parties On Social Calendar

Dinner parties of the informal variety are keeping the mid-winter season schedules full. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Barr will be hosts at their Fairmount avenue home Saturday evening for one of a series of dinner parties.

Their guests will number 12 and following the dinner hour, the group will enjoy an informal evening.

Recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. DeWitt of Mehama included Walter T. Eakin, of Astoria, and his three daughters, Mrs. Mary McClean, of Astoria, Mrs. Barbara Fulton, of Seaside, and Mrs. Eleanor Sweeney, of Portland. Also attending were Mrs. Prince W. Byrd, of Salem, Fred Thielson, brother of Mrs. DeWitt, and Dr. David Ferguson.

The out-of-town people were over night guests at the home of Dr. Ferguson, a long-time friend of the Eakins. A note of interest is that the elderly Walter Eakin was the first graduate of the University of Oregon, and only one in the graduating class.

Thursday evening, the North Summer street home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooley will be scene of a dinner party. Covers will be placed for Justice and Mrs. James T. Brand, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Collins, Mrs. James Nicholson, Mrs. Prince W. Byrd, Miss Betty Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Scellars, Mrs. Flora Thomas and the hosts.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson N. Siegmund, who are leaving soon for Astoria to make their home, Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Stadler, Jr., are entertaining Saturday evening at their home on Fairmount hill. Cards will be in play during the evening and a late supper will follow.

Saying au revoir to Mr. and Mrs. Siegmund will be Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Manning, Mr. and Mrs. George Scales, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Busick, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler R. English, Dr. and Mrs. A. Terrence King, Dr. and Mrs. Stuart Lancelfield, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burke and the hosts.

Hostess for a luncheon Thursday afternoon at her home in Jerris avenue will be Mrs. Douglas McKay. Honor guests will be Mrs. Roy Crowley of St. James, Minn., and Mrs. Thomas Stover of Bellevue, Wash., guests at the home of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer C. Page. Covers will be placed for ten with an informal afternoon following the luncheon hour.

Just what to substitute for that anatomy of vertebrates, physical subject is the all-campus problem since pre-registration for spring semester is being held this week. Another activity of the week project to which 7 WU organizations are giving time and service.

Couple Now at Home in Salem

Bride of mid-December was Miss Winova Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nova H. Jones, who traded wedding vows with Alan G. Dillabough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brice Dillabough, of Silverton.

The Church of God was decked with yellow and white chrysanthemums for the wedding, performed by Rev. J. J. Gillespie. The couple's sisters, Roberta Jones and Susan Dillabough, lighted the tapers, Reid Shelton sang.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Don Sullivan. She wore a green suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias and bouvardia.

Best man was Mike Simmons. The bride's brother, Warren Jones and Marvin Sagnotty, were ushers.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a beige suit and dark brown accessories. She carried a Bible belonging to her late uncle, George Campbell, and the bridal handkerchief of her grandmother. The Bible was topped with yellow orchids and bouvardia.

At the reception in the church his aunt, Mrs. John Hunt of Portland, cut the cake and his sister, Mrs. Fern Todd, poured.

The couple is at home at 642 North Liberty street.

Mrs. G. A. Vandeneysde entertained with luncheon in honor of the members of the Tuesday Sewing club Tuesday afternoon at her home in D street.

Moons and silhouetted couples on the walls were the decorations at the Beta Theta Pi dance at Chresto Cottage Saturday evening. Among the dancing couples were Laura Jean Bates with Bill Carlson, Nancy Strother with Bob Bennett and Jean Rickley with Wes Bollinger.

The Chi Omegas and Delta Gammas also held dances Friday evening at their respective houses. Theme for the Chi Omega semi-formal was "Heavenly" complete with clouds, angels and pearly gates. The DG dance, given by the pledges for the actives, followed a marine theme, "Shipwreck," created by oars, ship's lanterns, life preservers and fish nets.
