

Keizer People Pondering Water Pollution Problem

Keizer, Jan. 28—Persons interested in or affected by the water pollution which up to now is confined to the vicinity of the aluminum plant in north Salem will meet at the Keizer Grange hall this Thursday night at 8 o'clock for a discussion of the situation.

Church Presenting Benefit Program

Woodburn—A benefit program, sponsored by the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, will be given at the Grange hall Saturday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

Two hours of entertainment will be offered including skits, pantomimes, readings, musical numbers and contests, with prizes for the newest newlyweds, youngest grandmother, person coming the greatest distance and the grandmother with the largest number of grandchildren.

A special prize to be awarded will be a hand quilted bedspread, nosegay design which is on display at the Anderson meat market. The public is invited.

Jefferson Chosen For Next Convention

Jefferson—The Jefferson district Sunday school convention was held in the Dever. A large crowd was in attendance.

Rev. Victor Loucks led the song service and Rev. A. E. Bashford had charge of the devotions. Mrs. Wyman Bohl spoke on child evangelism and an offering was taken amounting to $34.70 which was given for that work. The Connor school sang a group of choruses. Rev. Gordon Jaffee was the convention speaker. Rev. Ivan Hadley had charge of the business meeting. The next convention will be held in the Jefferson Evangelical United Brethren church in April. Rev. Ivan Hadley is president and Mrs. John Kins is secretary.

Idle Hour Club Guest Kinzer Home

Aurora—Eleven members of the Idle Hour club meeting with Mrs. Solon Kinzer as hostess, contributed $6 to the March of Dimes fund, according to announcement by Elsie Wiegand, club member.

A no-hostess luncheon followed by a business meeting and an afternoon of handiwork was attended by May Ransdell, Mary Roach, Ivy Graham, Nora Martin, Inez Hilton, Goldie Gibson, Mabel Willbroad, Elsie Wiegand, Minnie Hughes, Rachel Learfield and Ada Kinzer. The Needy Ninety-One district's club will meet with Mrs. Leslie Gibson February 19.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take chances with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back.
