

A MARRIED bride will be pretty Arlene Dea Fromm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fromm, who will exchange wedding vows with Philip Judson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Judson, on March 29.

MR. ROBERT L. ELSTROM, second from left, gives some pointers to a Uter group of captains gathered for home Monday. Listening are Mrs. Emil Carlson, Mrs. Elstrom, Mrs. James Turin, Mrs. O. D. Youngquist and Mrs. P. C. Anderson.

The wedding will take place at eight o'clock in the evening at the First Baptist church. Miss Dawna Welby and Miss Donna Holman will light the tapers.

SEVERAL MATRONS COMPARE NOTES on pre-campaign plans in the living room of the Uter home. From left are Mrs. Harry Weinstein, Mrs. Elbert Derry, Mrs. Ralph Cole and Mrs. Charles Schmitz.

Welcomed Home—Capital society is a-buzz over the prospects of the return to the west of a popular young couple, Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Fromm. It is the former of Love Lehner and while her husband was overseas with the army, she and Sharon were with her mother, Mrs. E. H. Ballock. Mr. Fromm attended the University of Missouri after his relief from the army and for a time following graduation, was with the American Telephone and Telegraph company. . . .

Word from the South—The Del Monte Press bureau at Del Monte, Calif., has good word that Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace are spending a few days at Del Monte Lodge at Pebble Beach. . . .

Final Concert—Salem music lovers turned out en masse to the final performance this season of the Portland Symphony orchestra. . . .

Benefit Bridge—Highly successful was the judgment on the Women's club annual benefit card party held Thursday afternoon at the Woman's club. . . .

Attendance—About 135 were served at dessert. . . .

Going South—Back to sunny Wickburg, Ariz., has gone Lee U. Evely with Mrs. James Haley. . . .

Spring Ensembles—Several attractive spring hats were on display, among them Mrs. Willard Marshall who wore a smart choice of pale pink. . . .

New Home—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Buchanan are thrilled with their new house at 1586 Center street. . . .

Tea for Helen—Lovely bride-elect Helen Shepard was feted with a smart and pretty spring tea last Saturday afternoon, so reports go. . . .

The Honored Guest—Helen chose a gown of rich American beauty, matching the American beauty roses in her hair. . . .

TALKING OVER THEIR PLANS are a group of matrons, Mrs. Frank Manbeck, Mrs. Jasper Butler, Mrs. John Knudsen and Mrs. R. F. Lockart.

WOODBURN—Members of Evergreen Chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, and families will gather at the Masonic Temple Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock for a no-host supper, preceding the regular meeting of the chapter. . . .

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. . . .

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. . . .

Mrs. John F. Hayes and daughters, Nancy and Joyce, left on the streamliner from Portland Friday to join Dr. Hayes. . . .

Mrs. Hayes and her daughters have been in Salem with the Paulsons and in Portland with Dr. Hayes' parents. . . .

MRS. ROBERT L. ELSTROM, second from left, gives some pointers to a Uter group of captains gathered for home Monday. . . .

THE SOCIAL FUTURE looks a little brighter for the rest of the month. Lent has caused a slackening of activity and many women in town will be taking part in the Red Cross drive.

By Jean Taylor

THIRTY-ONE women, captains for the women's division, or residential solicitation division, of the 1948 Red Cross fund campaign, will soon be razing doorbells, contacting housewives for the beginning of the campaign.

Guests will be Miss Campbell, Miss Jeanne Busick, Mrs. Fred S. Anunson, Jr., Mrs. Jack Woodfield, Mrs. Robert Bailey, Mrs. Charles Winklerwerder, Mrs. George Schroeder, Mrs. Lawrence Feldschau, Mrs. John H. Johnson, Mrs. Van Wiedner and Mrs. E. Smith and the hostess.

Another hostess will be the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Kenneth Buchanan, who has planned a party for Friday evening at her home in Center street.

Guests will be Miss Campbell, Miss Jeanne Busick, Mrs. Fred S. Anunson, Jr., Mrs. Jack Woodfield, Mrs. Robert Bailey, Mrs. Charles Winklerwerder, Mrs. George Schroeder, Mrs. Lawrence Feldschau, Mrs. John H. Johnson, Mrs. Van Wiedner and Mrs. E. Smith and the hostess.

Stated for Wednesday afternoon are the regular circle meetings of the Jackson Lee Women's Society of Christian Service with dessert luncheon at 1:30 o'clock.

Circle January-July will meet with Mrs. E. W. Gallagher, 710 Highland avenue.

Circle February-August, no meeting. Circle March-September will meet with Mrs. Carl Carlson, 20 Carlton Way.

Circle April-October will meet with Mrs. Lee Haskins, 1410 Nebraska street.

Circle May-November will meet with Mrs. W. W. Chadwick, 1390 N. Winter.

Circle June-December will meet with Mrs. Oscar Lindquist, Route 1, Box 8, Brooks. Meet at 1:15 at church.

"Accident Prevention in Oregon" will be the topic of the evening at the monthly dinner meeting of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club, to be held at the Waldorf on Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Robert M. Evenden, of Salem, director of the accident prevention division of the state industrial accident commission, will be guest speaker.

The Women's Catholic order of Foresters will meet Tuesday evening in the club room. Plans will be made for a benefit card party with Mrs. John Majeski as chairman and a rummage sale with Mrs. Ella Voves, chairman.

Dinner guests at the Vernon Drye home in West Rural street Saturday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. John Steelhammer and Mrs. Mike Balukovich of Portland.

The Women's association of the First Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday at two o'clock. Mrs. Charles Hattaway will be the speaker.

NAVY bride will soon be dark-haired Carmen Campbell, who this week told friends that the date of her wedding to Ensign Ronald Smith will be March 9 at the First Congregational church. They'll be at home in Alameda.

MEANTIME, a number of her friends have planned parties for her.

Wednesday evening, Mrs. Robert Bailey and Mrs. Fred S. Anunson, Jr., are entertaining with a dessert bridge party at the Lloyd Demerest home in Stewart street. Guests will honor Miss Campbell with a crystal shower.

Bidden are Miss Campbell, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Landy Franz, Mrs. William Koester of Turner, Mrs. George Schroeder, Mrs. Jack Woodfield, Mrs. L. C. Fairham, Mrs. Charles Winklerwerder, Mrs. Lawrence Feldschau, Mrs. Kenneth Buchanan, Miss Barbara Causey, Miss Evelyn Johnson, Miss Jeanne Busick and the hostesses.

Another hostess will be the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Kenneth Buchanan, who has planned a party for Friday evening at her home in Center street.

Guests will be Miss Campbell, Miss Jeanne Busick, Mrs. Fred S. Anunson, Jr., Mrs. Jack Woodfield, Mrs. Robert Bailey, Mrs. Charles Winklerwerder, Mrs. George Schroeder, Mrs. Lawrence Feldschau, Mrs. John H. Johnson, Mrs. Van Wiedner and Mrs. E. Smith and the hostess.

The Willamette university orchestra of 40 pieces will present the second in its winter series Sunday afternoon, February 29, at three o'clock in the Leslie high school auditorium. Frank Fisher will direct.

Soloist will be Reid Shelton, vocalist, who will sing a group of French songs, the accompaniment for which he transcribed from piano to orchestra, as part of his work in orchestration class at Willamette. He is an advanced voice student of Dean Melvin H. Geist.

Other soloist will be pianist, Miss Jean Johnson, an advanced student of Ralph Debbis.

Best man will be Donald C. Tobey of Portland and seating the guests will be Richard C. Phillips, George Keller, Preston Hall and John Kohl, all of Portland.

Covers will be placed for 12, with center for the bride and groom. The affair is one of a series of two matrons planning for the mid-winter season.

SEVERAL MATRONS COMPARE NOTES on pre-campaign plans in the living room of the Uter home. From left are Mrs. Harry Weinstein, Mrs. Elbert Derry, Mrs. Ralph Cole and Mrs. Charles Schmitz.

POPULAR and busy bride-elect is Miss Helen Sheppard, who will be married to George Alexander in March. So busy is she that wedding plans are hard pressed to find room among the parties.

Next Saturday Mr. and Mrs. James Linn will be hosts at their country home for a group of the young couple's friends and their parents. They are asked to call informally between the hours of four o'clock and seven.

Assisting the hosts are Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Rice of Portland and Mrs. Taylor Hawkins. About 30 are invited.

Visitors this week-end at the George Weller home in Shipping street are Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Kern of Portland, who will also visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Tomlinson. The Portlanders will return Sunday.

AN ILLUSTRATED talk on Turkey by Mrs. Norman Huffman will highlight the Thursday afternoon meeting of Town and Gown, scheduled for 2:30 o'clock at the Carrier room of the First Methodist church.

Dr. and Mrs. Huffman took many pictures of Turkey which they visited in 1939. Mrs. Huffman is head of the art department at Willamette university.

WARMLY welcomed visitor in the capital for the past month has been Mrs. Ray Yocom, who formerly had her home here and is now living in the First Congregational church. They'll be at home in Alameda.

MEANTIME, a number of her friends have planned parties for her.

Wednesday evening, Mrs. Robert Bailey and Mrs. Fred S. Anunson, Jr., are entertaining with a dessert bridge party at the Lloyd Demerest home in Stewart street. Guests will honor Miss Campbell with a crystal shower.

Bidden are Miss Campbell, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Landy Franz, Mrs. William Koester of Turner, Mrs. George Schroeder, Mrs. Jack Woodfield, Mrs. L. C. Fairham, Mrs. Charles Winklerwerder, Mrs. Lawrence Feldschau, Mrs. Kenneth Buchanan, Miss Barbara Causey, Miss Evelyn Johnson, Miss Jeanne Busick and the hostesses.

Another hostess will be the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Kenneth Buchanan, who has planned a party for Friday evening at her home in Center street.

Guests will be Miss Campbell, Miss Jeanne Busick, Mrs. Fred S. Anunson, Jr., Mrs. Jack Woodfield, Mrs. Robert Bailey, Mrs. Charles Winklerwerder, Mrs. George Schroeder, Mrs. Lawrence Feldschau, Mrs. John H. Johnson, Mrs. Van Wiedner and Mrs. E. Smith and the hostess.

The Willamette university orchestra of 40 pieces will present the second in its winter series Sunday afternoon, February 29, at three o'clock in the Leslie high school auditorium. Frank Fisher will direct.

Soloist will be Reid Shelton, vocalist, who will sing a group of French songs, the accompaniment for which he transcribed from piano to orchestra, as part of his work in orchestration class at Willamette. He is an advanced voice student of Dean Melvin H. Geist.

Other soloist will be pianist, Miss Jean Johnson, an advanced student of Ralph Debbis.

Best man will be Donald C. Tobey of Portland and seating the guests will be Richard C. Phillips, George Keller, Preston Hall and John Kohl, all of Portland.

Covers will be placed for 12, with center for the bride and groom. The affair is one of a series of two matrons planning for the mid-winter season.

SEVERAL MATRONS COMPARE NOTES on pre-campaign plans in the living room of the Uter home. From left are Mrs. Harry Weinstein, Mrs. Elbert Derry, Mrs. Ralph Cole and Mrs. Charles Schmitz.

POPULAR and busy bride-elect is Miss Helen Sheppard, who will be married to George Alexander in March. So busy is she that wedding plans are hard pressed to find room among the parties.

Next Saturday Mr. and Mrs. James Linn will be hosts at their country home for a group of the young couple's friends and their parents. They are asked to call informally between the hours of four o'clock and seven.

Assisting the hosts are Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Rice of Portland and Mrs. Taylor Hawkins. About 30 are invited.

Visitors this week-end at the George Weller home in Shipping street are Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Kern of Portland, who will also visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Tomlinson. The Portlanders will return Sunday.

AN ILLUSTRATED talk on Turkey by Mrs. Norman Huffman will highlight the Thursday afternoon meeting of Town and Gown, scheduled for 2:30 o'clock at the Carrier room of the First Methodist church.

Dr. and Mrs. Huffman took many pictures of Turkey which they visited in 1939. Mrs. Huffman is head of the art department at Willamette university.

AMELLIAS will deck the parthenon of the church on Thursday, March 4, setting the theme for the benefit camellia tea to be given by the Women's guild of the First Congregational church. Arranging the parthenon will be Mrs. F. E. Neer and Miss Oda Chapman. Receiving the silver offering will be Mrs. John Herr and Mrs. Trevor Jones. Guests will be greeted by Mrs. F. H. Eley, Mrs. M. B. Stegner, Mrs. E. C. Charlton and Mrs. Horace Miller.

RESPONSIBLE FOR RESIDENTIAL portion of the Red Cross campaign, which opens on Salem March 1 are Mrs. Floyd L. Uter, left, and Mrs. Guy N. Hickok. At right is Mrs. Mike Steinhack, who heads the suburban division. Mrs. Guy N. Hickok entertained the captains at dessert Monday at the Uter home where they received instructions and material for their part in the campaign. (All photos by Jester-Miller studio.)

REFINEMENTS of the string quartet and color combinations and sonority of the full-sized orchestra are the offerings of the St. Louis Sinfonietta, scheduled to play in Salem on Monday evening, March 15, as the third presentation of the Community Concert series.

The group consists of 20 artist-musicians, chosen for the mastery of his instrument and his artistic contribution to the perfection of ensemble.

Paul Schreiber was founder and conductor of the Sinfonietta, which was a formed less than 10 years ago. Today, the "little symphony" is being highly cultivated and many of modern composers are writing specially for it.

Regarded as one of the finest playing groups of its kind in the midwest, the group is noted for its organ-like qualities coming out of its years of training and months of rehearsing.

Mrs. Freda Peterson of Dallas, department of Oregon president of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, will pay her official inspection to Marion auxiliary No. 661, Monday evening at the YW hall.

The post will join the auxiliary for refreshments following the meeting. Mrs. James Beall is chairman of refreshments and Mrs. John Peterson heads the decoration committee.

Chapter AB, PEO Sisterhood, will meet at 7:45 o'clock Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Robert Fenix, 2000 South High street.

Zonta club's meeting is planned for next Thursday evening, dessert to be served at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Karl Becke with Mrs. John Clearwater and Mrs. Saul Lane as co-hostesses. There will be a short business meeting, followed by a Zonta educational program, and initiation of new members.

Married 30 years ago, March 1, before the late Rev. Kautner, in Salem, were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Anderson, who will celebrate the golden anniversary Sunday, February 29, with an open house at their home at 995 North Church street.

The friends of the couple are asked to call between two o'clock and five. Children of the couple, who are expected all to be present for the event are Mrs. Lester Robbins and Mrs. Phil Stine, both of Salem; Albert Anderson of Salem; Lloyd Anderson of Gervais and Clyde Anderson of Portland. The couple has ten grandchildren.

THE Sons of Union Veterans and their auxiliary will meet with Mrs. W. S. Biggerstaff, Wednesday evening instead of Tuesday at 6:30 o'clock for a no-host dinner.

DISCUSSING THE organizational portion of the campaign over a cup of tea are Mrs. Frank Shater, left, and Mrs. Lloyd Edgell.

IN THE STUDIO OF THE UTER HOME father a group of young matrons with their Red Cross campaign material. Standing, Mrs. George Weller, Mrs. George Hoffman and Mrs. James Stone. Seated, Mrs. Edward Roth, Mrs. Robert Drager and Mrs. Robert Joseph.

Salem Bethel, U.D. Job's Daughters, will meet Monday evening at 6:45 o'clock at Beaver hall for transportation to Independence, where they will hold a joint meeting with that Bethel.

The bride-elect attended Salem schools, Willamette university and is now employed in the office of the secretary of state. Her fiancé attended Terre Haute schools. He has served in the navy three years and spent 14 months on Guam, where he was with the medical corps. Conditions there following the war were discussed. Later in the evening a box was packed for a Polish family the club is sponsoring.

Engaged is Miss Lorraine Omann, who is telling friends of her betrothal to Hal Fries. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Omann of Manson, Iowa, and returned to the state last fall after being in Iowa. She is now with the state highway department.

Mr. Fries is also employed in Salem. He attended Salem schools and served in the navy during the war. The wedding is tentatively set for late May.

The Mania Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Muriel Bentson for a no-host dinner Thursday evening. Mrs. Chris Mattison was a guest speaker. She spent seven years in Venezuela and she described the customs and living conditions there. She recently returned from 18 months in Scotland, of which she is a native. Conditions there following the war were discussed. Later in the evening a box was packed for a Polish family the club is sponsoring.

WOODBURN—The monthly sewing meeting of Woodburn auxiliary of the American Legion will be held Wednesday evening at the Legion rooms in the city hall. Boys' shirts and infants' nighties will be made for the child welfare center and members are urged to attend and assist with this work.

A TRIO OF CAPTAINS for the Red Cross drive are Mrs. Leonard Gottfried, Mrs. J. W. Huchison and Mrs. Karl Thelen.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.

MR. and Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., and their two children, Diana and Pamela Sue, will leave for Portland Sunday. From left are Mrs. Charles S. Powers, Jr., Mrs. Pamela Sue Powers, and Mrs. Diana Sue Powers.