Army, Navy League Formed Here

The Salem Women's Army and Navy league was launched at an informal social tea and meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. G. Mason. About 25 attended the gathering. Mothers, wives, and sisters of commissioned officers in the army, navy, army reserve, naval reserve, and coast guard are eligible for membership in the group. The local group is to be affiliated with the Portland Army and Navy league which was organized 25 years ago with Mrs. George C. Marshall, wife of the present secretary of state as an original member, General Marshall then being post commander at Vancouver barracks.

Portland women motoring here for the Tuesday meeting included Mrs. Jenkins, wife of Admiral Jenkins; Mrs. George A. White, Mrs. G. D. Wahl, Mrs. Eugene Owen, and Mrs. Lee Merrill.

Officers chosen by the new group here include: Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr., president, army; Mrs. Hugh Adams, vice president, army; Mrs. H. G. Mason, vice president, navy; Mrs. Hoffman, vice president, national guard; Mrs. Robert Gentzkow, vice president, army reserve; Mrs. Bert Walker, vice president, navy reserve; Mrs. Farley Mogan, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Raymon F. Olson presided at the meeting to organize and name officers.

Medical Group Sponsoring Tea

Mrs. Burton Myers and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, both past state presidents of the auxiliary to the Oregon State Medical society, and Mrs. Roscoe Wilson, who has been on the state board of the group as president of the Marion-Polk auxiliary, have been invited to assist at a tea to be given in Portland on Thursday.

The tea is arranged by the auxiliary's state board to honor Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs now in convention in Portland.

The tea will be in the Congress hotel from 5 until 7 o'clock.

Auxiliary Event—Marion auxiliary, No. 661, Veterans of Foreign Wars, met Monday evening, Mrs. Ivelly Haley, president, presiding.

A Stanley party was held following a short business meeting. The auxiliary joined the post and pictures were shown by Dr. David Bennett Hill of a recent trip to Mexico. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ernest Hippe, chairman; Mrs. Mary Ann McGuire, and Mrs. Roy Simpson.

Bride-Elect is Feted at Shower

Miss Helen Shelton, who is to be married June 6 to Lynn Barker, was honored at a recent shower and party given by Miss Mary Lou Herndon and Miss Dorothy Pearce at the home of Miss Herndon.

OSC Group Ends Year

About 65 were out for the luncheon and meeting of Oregon State Mothers' club Monday at the Mayflower hall. This was the final event of the season for the club.

Dr. C. E. Maser, head of the technology department at the college, was guest speaker, discussing the importance of recognizing the individuality of students, also the program of higher education.

New officers were installed as follows: Mrs. L. O. Arens, president; Mrs. Dave Brown, vice president; Mrs. Carl Miller, treasurer; Mrs. S. J. Barrick, secretary.

Mrs. George W. Croisan has served as president the past year.

Campus Events

Beach parties continue of special interest to Willamette university students, three such events being slated for the coming week end. Also, this coming week end winds up the social activities of the year for students, examinations and commencement being the next big events.

The senior class beach party is to be Saturday. On Sunday, the junior class and Beta Theta Pi fraternity both are planning beach trips.

Return From Convention—Several Salem folk were at Gearhart for the Oregon Mutual Fire Insurance convention, returning late Tuesday.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Seth Thompson, Mr. Thompson being speaker at the banquet; Dr. G. Herbert Smith, who was a speaker on the program; William Walton, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Rising, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Scellars.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bauer of Denver, formerly of Salem, were there and are to arrive here tomorrow for a short visit with old acquaintances.

Meeting Thursday—The Past Presidents' club of Capital Unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, is meeting Thursday

Groups to Aid Sale of Poppies

A large number of local organizations will aid the sale of the memorial poppies by the American Legion auxiliary Friday and Saturday of this week, reports Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, poppy chairman from Capital unit No. 9.

Groups assisting include American War Mothers, Gold Star Mothers, Salem Woman's club, Sojourners club, Postal Clerks' auxiliary, Postal Carriers' auxiliary, Lions club auxiliary, Chapter No. 162 Order of Eastern Star, Eagles auxiliary, Woman's Relief corps, Disabled American Veterans auxiliary.

The memorial flowers are made by veterans in the Portland and Roseburg veterans hospitals. All funds from their sale go to the rehabilitation fund and to the child welfare fund of the Legion and auxiliaries.

Members of Capital unit No. 9, Legion auxiliary, are to entertain the volunteer workers in the sale at a luncheon Friday in the First Methodist church, starting at 11 a. m. The church street entrance is to be used. Mrs. O. E. Palmateer heads the committee serving the luncheon and is being assisted by Mrs. John TeSelle, Mrs. George Gabriel, Mrs. Herman Lafky, Mrs. Ella Voves.

On Thursday evening a radio program boosting the poppy sale will be given over KOCO from 7 until 7:15 o'clock. Mrs. Leon M. Brown, national committee woman in the auxiliary, to be the speaker. at the home of Mrs. R. W. Wyatt, 1960 South Church, dessert to be at 7:30 o'clock.

Federation Scans Ban on Crime Shows

Portland, Ore., May 26 (AP)—Two thousand club women from all parts of the United States today studied resolutions to condemn crime stories in movies, radio programs, comic strips and television.

Delegates to the General Federation of Women's clubs convention here heard the resolutions at opening sessions yesterday. The resolutions, submitted by state youth conservation chairmen of the federation, were referred to the various state groups for further consideration.

Another resolution called for the encouragement of sobriety. Mrs. Paul Dupertius, president of the Wyoming Federation of Women's clubs, said "the consumption of alcoholic beverages by teen-agers has reached alarming proportions" and that liquor was a leading factor in juvenile delinquency.

The club women adopted a resolution calling for renewal of reciprocal trade agreements "without crippling amendments." They reaffirmed federation support of the program, endorsed the international trade organization and asked congressional authorization for United States participation in it.

Amity Civic Club Elects Officers

Amity—The Amity Woman's Civic club closed the club year with the May meeting at the Methodist church with Mrs. H. W. Forbet presiding.

Nomination and election of officers placed Mrs. S. P. Allison, president. To assist her will be Mrs. Joe McKee, vice president; Mrs. Frank Chambers, secretary, and Mrs. Newt Aschim, treasurer.

Plans were completed for the June meeting, which will be a picnic and carnival in the city park.

The Chamber of Commerce and all clubs in the community are invited to participate. The last club program with "music" as the theme was at the climax. Numbers presented were: High School Glee club, Mrs. Edna Strout, director; two secular numbers; sacred solos, Mrs. Bruce Caldwell; operatic numbers, Mrs. Howard Payne, Dundee, accompanist, Miss Britt, Newberg; request piano number, Miss Britt.

Mrs. Frank Chambers gave a review of the compositions representative of the outstanding events of life from Brahms, with the accompanist Mrs. Edna Strout.

The hostesses, Mrs. Bill West, Mrs. David Smith, Mrs. L. M. Christensen, Mrs. Beatrice Ashford, served refreshments.
