Students Ready for Homecoming

Highlight event for the annual Homecoming week-end at Willamette university will be the dance Saturday evening in the gymnasium from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock.

"Autumn carnival" is the theme for the event. Transposing the gymnasium into an autumn version of the Mardi Gras, co-chairmen Miss Beverly Briggs and Lloyd Hansen will feature in the center of the room a gnarled surrealistic tree from which sparkling scrolls will serve as leaves. Above the tree will be a striped canopy of white and deep blue while about the room other canopies of various colors will hang below the yellow and azure false ceiling. Black eye masks and streamers will surround the dance entrance.

Dave Longtin's orchestra is to play. Gordon Cline is general dance chairman. The Letterman's club is to have charge of the refreshments and Al Miller heads the publicity committee. Alpha Phi Omega, national scout service organization, is to check the wraps.

Patrons for the evening will be Dean and Mrs. Robert D. Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Jory, Prof. and Mrs. Charles H. Derthick. Special guests for the evening will be Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Dean and Mrs. Raymond A. Withey, Mrs. Regina Ewalt. All alumni on the campus for the week-end will be honored at the dance. Miss Patricia Howard is chairman for patrons for the dance.

Friday Events

The noise parade, sign contest, and the bonfire are on Friday's calendar for Homecoming.

The women's sororities are holding informal open house dances Friday evening.

Campus Clippings

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

By Dona Adams

Contests for anyone from beauties to beasts are taking over the campus interest this week and week-end. In keeping with the Homecoming activities of Friday and Saturday are the traditional noise parade and sign contests, the winners of which will be announced at Saturday night's dance. Construction of the signs, which are to follow a "Battle-ax the Lumberjacks" theme, is well along in order to be completed by Friday's 9 a. m. deadline. The shrill sounds of train whistles and the clanging of buzz saws will penetrate the air Friday evening at 7 when the noisiest parade of the year leaves on its winding journey through Salem.

A search for the ugliest man on campus is the unique contest sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, scout service organization, also in connection with Homecoming. The ten contestants, including such campus notables as Schneebles, the Phi Delta mascot, were chosen by the various living organizations. Pennies, dropped into the milk bottle of the favorite candidate at polls in the library and Cat Cavern, will determine the winner who will give his distinctive title during intermission at Saturday's dance. Proceeds will go toward erecting a war memorial flagpole on the campus.

The Sigma Chis are once again in search of a sweetheart to rule over their annual ball November 6. Narrowing the group of 30 to 16, the fraternity is announcing the eight semi-finalists this week, two each evening over local KOCO. From this group of eight women, three finalists will be selected next week with the sweetheart being announced at the formal dance.
