Steber Concert Closes Season

With Eleanor Steber in a colorful program of songs rich in range and interpretation, the Community Concert association closed its season Friday evening, and it was a delightful and crowd-pleasing finale.

The sparkling Metropolitan opera soprano, a very special star with radio listeners, provided a program that had favorites for every taste. While every listener no doubt had his own choice of most enjoyed numbers on Friday's program, this writer liked especially Schubert's Auflosung; Freundliche Vision by Strauss; the aria Selva Opaca from "William Tell" by Rossini, and a pet or two among the encores, especially Brahm's Lullaby.

The program was not all "heavy stuff," the singer having a special talent for presenting humor and wit as evident with her singing of Mozart's air Bester Jungling from "Der Schauspieldirektor" and the Scotch folk song Whistle and I'll Come to Ye.

Concluding the program was the encore rendition of Miss Steber's radio program theme song In My Garden.

Barbers Ask

Persons now in the business would be required to get their licenses within 30 days after the effective date of the ordinance.

The measure would not apply "to any student or apprentice in any barber college" legally approved in the state.

Shops would have to hold to all health and sanitary regulations, and on failure to do so, the city council could, after hearing, revoke the license.

For violation of the ordinance the penalty would be for the first offense a fine of not over $10 and cost of prosecution, and for the second offense not over $25 and costs, and each day of violation would be a separate offense.

An ordinance bill will be introduced assessing against property the cost of removal of grass and weeds from premises by city crews.

Two Plead Guilty Sentences Later

Kenneth Reed pleaded guilty before Judge George R. Duncan Friday to two charges of larceny, and Cornelius Willie Sherman entered a similar plea to theft of $321 from the safe at the Marion hotel.

Both were continued for sentence, Reed to have a pre-sentence investigation and Sherman to get papers to substantiate statements as to his military service record. Sherman asked the judge for leniency.

Reed's plea of guilt involved charges of larceny of a radio from Middle Grove school and clothing from Foreman's Cleaners.

The highest recorded altitude reached by a human was 72,395 feet, achieved in a balloon ascension in 1935.

CAA Checks-up On McNary Field

McNary field was unofficially checked this week by a CAA employe regarding the installation of an H landing facility here.

Here making the check was L. C. Ashwell, an air carrier superintendent with the CAA for this region, who presently is taking two weeks of training duty at Sand Point as a lieutenant colonel in the Marine corps air reserves.

Ashwell flew to Salem with Wallace Hug to confer with Carl Nelson of the state board of aeronautics and while here looked at the field facilities. On returning to his duty with the CAA he plans to report his findings.

Also coming to Salem with Hug from Seattle was a chief radioman with the navy, who checked the radio equipment needed at the control tower at the airport to make a report to the navy. Purpose of the check by the radio man was to arrange for loaning radio gear to the tower after clearance through the proper channels.

Tax Conferees

First, William E. Walsh, president of the senate, entered the house and conferred with Speaker Frank Van Dyke. Then both Moore and French were called to the rostrom and a moment later, after the speaker had called on Rep. John Steelhammer, to preside the foursome entered the speaker's office.

After some loud argument that could be heard in the hallways, this conference ended and the speaker went to a meeting of the ways and means committee where he called several house members of that committee out of the meeting for a discussion. This over he returned to the house floor, talked again with Moore and French and soon a report asking for the discharge of the committee because of inability to agree was signed and placed on the desk.

"A cold gun barrel has been behind my ear all morning," said French after he had signed the report, "and now it's going off."

Rep. Short made the motion to lay the bills and reports on the table, and after adopting this motion, went on with its other business. The question of discharge of the house conferees never came up.

Marion Representatives Split

As the situation now stands, the conference committee has no bills to consider and the majority of the house have in effect served notice on the senate that action on House Resolution 9 and several other house tax bills is demanded before any action will be taken on the two main tax bills as amended by the senate.

Reps. Yeater and Doerfler of Marion county voted against tabling the bills and Steelhammer and Chadwick supported the motion.

Search for Missing 13-Year-Old Girl

Police disclosed Saturday that a search is being made for a 13-year-old Salem girl who has been missing from her home since Monday.

The girl is identified as Janice Camery who was reported missing by her father William M. Camery, 620 S. Summer street. He described his daughter as five feet, two inches tall and said she weighed 115 pounds. She is blue eyed and has light brown hair.

The youngster left home wearing a long green coat, blue blouse and skirt and a gold belt and black shoes.

A local search apparently having failed, police were contacting relatives in other parts of the country to assist in locating the girl.

Lebanon Power Line

Portland, April 9 (AP) — The Line Construction company, Tigard, was low of seven bidders here yesterday for clearing of the right of way and construction of a 115-kv transmission line from Albany to Lebanon. The bid was $77,566.

Woman Fire Eater Really Deserter From U.S. Army

Burtonwood Air Base, Eng., April 9 (U.P.)—Donna, the "woman" fire eater whose act has been wowing British vaudeville audiences for the past three years, was unmasked today as an American GI deserter from Philadelphia.

U. S. army authorities said "Donna Delbert" of the English stage confessed "she" actually is Pfc. Delbert E. Hill, 36, of Philadelphia.

The rouged, be-skirted Hill was arrested yesterday in a Newcastle and turned over to army authorities on charges of war-time desertion.

Hill told military police he went AWOL from his air force ground job in the summer of 1945 fearing he soon would be transferred to the Pacific theater for further war service.

Army authorities said they were checking Hill's fingerprints and other identification with files of deserters in Washington.

If his identity is proved, he will face a court martial within a month either in England or in the United States, army sources said.

It was a tip from a jealous erstwhile girl friend that led to Hill's arrest. He was wearing a woman's blouse, slacks, nylons and shoes when taken into custody.

Investigators said Hill masqueraded as the American widow of a British tank gunner killed in the Normandy invasion. That explained his Yankee accent.

Newcastle theater audiences called him a "red hot mama," both for his fire eating antics and his sexy appearance.

3-Year-Old Girl

"Under the circumstances, I think the longest she could have continued to breathe would be four hours," said the doctor, who declined use of his name.

Fire Chief Jimmy Bolz said he thought there was some hope.

"I don't want to be unduly optimistic," said Boltz, "but we have been pumping warm air into that abandoned well since 5:30 o'clock yesterday. At that time Kathy was still alive and she may be still. She may be at the bottom, of course."

Well 230 Feet Deep

The well is 230 feet deep, said Don Metz, construction engineer in charge of the rescue operations. Metz produced a log of the well. The log was made in 1903, when the well was drilled. The well was used, said Metz, until 1932, when the pipe parted at a depth of 230 feet. The original well, he said, was 784 feet.

"There is a gradual drift, normal in well operations, of about eight inches per 1000 feet," Metz said. "The drift is to the south. Actually, there is no sharp bend. At the 100-foot level of the well, pressure has made it slightly elliptical."

Aid to Europe

The bill approved by the house foreign affairs committee is a little different from the one passed by the senate.

The economic cooperation administration asked — and got from the senate—authorization to spend $1,150,000,000 up to June 30; $4,280,000,000 for the 12 months starting July 1; plus $150,000,000 in long-term contract authority.

The house committee lopped $50,000,000 off the first figure and turned down the contract authorization, for a total cut of $200,000,000. Then it wrote into the bill a government guarantee for private investors of up to $272,000,000.

Police School to Open Here Tuesday

A police school operated by representatives of the Oregon Police association is scheduled to open in Salem Tuesday with Capt. Eugene W. Ferguson in charge of instruction of statutory crime essentials.

On April 14, 19, 21 and 26, other classes will be conducted on homicide investigation by an FBI representative and Lt. F. A. Mogan of the state police.

On May 17 classes in traffic problems relating to police work will be held.

Independence Voters for Beer

Independence, April 9 (AP)—Independence residents voted out Sunday beer last November.

But they got thirsty in the meanwhile and revived Sunday sales in a special election yesterday, 231-147. They also passed a $60,000 bond issue for a sewage disposal system.

Wheat Shows Firm Tendency

Chicago, April 9 (AP)—Wheat showed a firming tendency toward the close on the board of trade today, erasing earlier small losses. Buying in part represented short covering and followed trade reports. The Kansas City office of the commodity Credit corporation would entertain offers on cash wheat for delivery through April 20.

Until today the southwestern CCC office had not asked for wheat beyond April 15. Some traders thought today's action was significant, claiming that extension of the government's buying time would tend to tighten up the situation in the May wheat future here.

This action by the CCC outweighed as a market influence word that grain shipments, both rail and barge, to New Orleans had been embargoed. There are a few exceptions in grain consigned to some domestic firms. It was said the action was taken because of lack of vessel space with no ships in sight for nearby loadings.

Wheat closed ¾-1¼ higher, May $2.17¼-⅜, corn was ½-⅝ higher, May $1.32¾-⅞, oats were ⅛ lower to ½ higher, May 70⅛, rye was 1½-1⅝ higher, May $1.26¾, soybeans were ½-¾ higher, May $2.19¾-$2.20, and lard was 2 to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $11.27.

Cash dealers reported they booked 4,000 bushels of new crop wheat on a to-arrive basis. It was the first bookings of new crop wheat of the season.

$16 Billion Bill

"Last year I was more worried than I am at the present time."

The total in the bill compares with $10,454,477,413 cash voted by congress last year when each service was financed separately.

It is $52,980,100 in cash and $577,755,000 in contract authority more than President Truman requested.

It provides for a military force of 4,743,100 officers and men divided this way: regulars, 1,644,300; national guard, 399,500; organized reserves, 2,709,300. Of the regulars, the army will have 677,000, the navy 527,300 including 85,700 marines, and the air force 440,000.
