

Miss Kenley Is Wed in Stayton

Stayton—The Baptist church was the scene of an Easter wedding, Sunday, April 17, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon when Miss Alfreda Mae Kenley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Banner of route 9, Salem, was married to Stanley Robert Sevey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sevey of route 1, Aumsville. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Willard Buckner, pastor of the church.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Roscoe Poole, who accompanied Mrs. Earl Maurer, soloist. Flowers and lighted tapers were used in decoration of the church.

A dress of pale green was chosen by the bride for her wedding and with it she wore accessories of white and black. Her flowers were pink rosebuds. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Malcolm Long, wearing a dress of gray with green accessories and pink carnations, was matron of honor. Malcolm Long was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Banner chose a gray dress with which she used black accessories. Mrs. Sevey also wore a gray dress, with blue accessories. Both wore corsages.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Smiley following the ceremony. The decorations were carried out in the Easter theme. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Jerry Hopkins, and Mrs. Melvin McNeal, and Mrs. Federal T. Smith and Mrs. Long served. The guest book was passed by Mrs. Smith, and Miss Joyce Banner and Mrs. Smiley were in charge of the gift table.

Following a short wedding trip to the coast, the newlyweds will make their home in Stayton in the Taylor apartments.
