Dodd-Orth Wedding Last Evening in St. Joseph's

The something old and the something blue featured the wedding of Miss Patricia Jane Orth and Wilbur Erwin Dodd, Jr., last evening, the service being read at 5 o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic church with the Rev. T. J. Bernards officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Maxine Orth of Salem, Mr. Dodd the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur E. Dodd of Gervais.

The bride's dress was a handsome model in heavy ivory colored evening slipper satin, made very plain with heavy pearly outlining the round neckline. The dress had leg o' mutton sleeves. The bodice came to a point in front and the gathered skirt was worn with a hoop and fell in a train. The cape length veil was the one worn by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Marie Abst, at her wedding and it was arranged from a lace skull cap more than 100 years old and sent to the bride by friends in the east. For her flowers the bride carried a long bouquet of Dutch irises and lilies of the valley.

Pale blue and bonbon pink were the colors for the dresses of the bride's attendants. Miss Cynthia Needham, maid of honor, was in the pink satin. The four bridesmaids, Misses Patricia Burrell, Phyllis Ladd, Carmen Given and Rita Lancaster, all wore pale blue gowns. Each attendant wore a lace bonnet with sweet peas in her hair and each carried a white prayer book with an arrangement of sweet peas contrasting with her dress. Miss Needham's flowers being blue, those of the four bridesmaids, pink ones. Each of the attendants wore pale blue lace cuffs.

Four of the bride's attendants, Miss Needham, Miss Burrell, Miss Given and Miss Lancaster, were graduated in the same class with the bride at Sacred Heart academy last year. Junior attendant was Miss Suzette Dodd, sister of the bridegroom, and she also wore pale blue.

Tom Dodd was best man for his brother and the ushers were Bob Ladd, Bob Meaney, Bill Dodd and Dick Swain.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Orth wore a gray and pale pink lace gown, designed with full skirt, gray gloves and a corsage of pale pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise gown designed with draped front, and her flowers were Talisman roses. The bride's grandmother wore a dark gray gown with sequin trim and a corsage of bright red roses.

The music for the wedding was provided by Mrs. Glenn Humiston as soloist and Mrs. Raymond Barton as organist.

The church was decorated with stock, gladioluses and snapdragons, also four candelabras with the lighted tapers. There was a white aisle cloth and the center aisle was roped off and decorated with flowers at each pew.

The reception following the church service was at the Orth residence. Mrs. P. J. Meaney served the cake, assisted by Mrs. R. C. Abst, Mrs. Emmett Porter was at the punch bowl and Mrs. Marjorie Shaffer at the coffee urn. Mrs. Donald Gene Messick assisted. The bridesmaids assisted in serving. Mrs. W. J. Dodd has charge of the guest book. In charge of gifts were Misses Olive Hastings, Edith Kunz and Lynne Mueller.

For going away the bride wore a navy blue crepe outfit, a navy skirt, the cape lining and blouse of red and white polka dot material; white vest vestee, navy straw hat and accessories. Following a trip to southern
