East Salem Club Members Receive Achievement Pins

East Salem, April 26—At the Middle Grove Community club meeting held at the school house the program provided by the men of the community with Dan Scarf and Earl Malm committee chairmen was presented before a capacity filled auditorium. Following the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Lewis Patterson, awards of pins and achievement cards were presented to the 4-H cooking classes of Mrs. John Caze and members of the Pig club and Dairy Calf club. Pins were provided by the First National bank of Salem and presented by Mr. Mehling to the following girls and boys for the different number of years they have been in the work:

Shirley Page, fifth year; Joanne Fabry, fifth year; Carol Hillficker, fifth year; Marvin Caze, fifth year; James Kuenzi, fifth year; David Turner, third; Lewis Patterson, third; and first to Marie Hammer, Donna Lou Kleen, Norma Rathjen, Marshall Jelderks, and Gary Doty. Pins are only given for the first, third, fifth, seventh and tenth years of work completed. Achievement cards were given Yvonne Good, Ruth Greene, Dale Van Cleave and Bruce Howe for seconds; Leonard Hammer, Eldon Buetler and Edwin Stahl, fourth year; Wayne Goode, sixth year; Joyce Kuenzi and Robert Buetler, seventh year.

The program committee presented Mrs. Gerald Jaffe in two vocal solos; tap dance numbers by Ronald Theisen with Henry Sprick at the piano; a vocal solo by Janice Scharf; and one-act comedy, "The Twelve Old Maids" with 11 teen age girls and one adult taking the parts: Grace Vanderhoof, Joanne Fabry, Juanita Hansen, Fabra Blankenship, Gladys Werner, Shirley Page, Joanne Scharf, Bonnie Stoller, Delores Werner, Carol Kaufman, Shirley Werner, Janice Scharf, Magaline Stahl, Sue Anglin and Mrs. Robert Wagers. Mrs. Dan Scharf was accompanist and Mrs. Cleo Keppinger directed the play. Refreshments were served by Jack Wikoff, William Kleen and Cleo Keppinger. The girls of the 4-H cooking classes had cake, muffins and bread that they had made on display for judging in practice for their show at Silverton this week.

The April meeting of the 4-H Calf club was held at the home of Edwin Stahl the past week. He has received his Ayreshire heifer calf which was awarded him last fall at the Elmer Klein award. This is the second year Klein of Aumsville has made the award which he gives to boys for outstanding records in the raising of purebred cattle. Last year the award also was given to a Middle Grove member, Lewis Patterson, Jr. The meeting of the Pig club for this week was postponed to Wednesday night of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Malm of Middle Grove community are moving this week into their new home on the Silverton road which is just completed.

Attend Pomona Grange Stalton—Members of Stalton grange attending Pomona grange at Union Hills grange hall, were Mrs. Ida Steinberger, Mrs. Clara Steward, Mr. and Mrs. George Sandner, Mrs. Lena Lambrecht, Mrs. Martha Glover, Clarence Overholts, Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank

Galloway, Jack Richards and Mrs. L. S. Lambert. Independence — Mrs. W. F. McBee is in Salt Lake City this week representing the Oregon College of Education in a meeting of the association of cold education.

Problem Presented Albany School Men

Albany—Still unsolved Monday was the problem that confronted the Albany school board when it opened bids on the proposed three local grade school buildings last Friday.

The problem arises from the fact that the bid of Edward Brothers of Albany was but $334.12 higher than the low bid of $571,652 submitted by the Ken Ward Construction company of Portland. Both bids were well under the stipulated maximum limit of $575,000.

The board was in session Monday discussing details of the two offers and Chairman Floyd Mullen said it is expected that a decision will be reached not later than Tuesday.

of the committee will begin making personal calls on those who have not yet donated their shares of the cost.

The new contributors were: Glenn G. Makin, Herbert Davis Carl Elligsen, W. O. Melum, Mrs. Oscar Bolland, Curtis Johnson, Jr., Walter Kraxberger, American Legion Post No 122 and John Steffenson.

Ambulance Backers Are Nearing Goal

Aurora — Completion this month of the drive to raise $5,000 for purchase of an emergency ambulance for the Canby area was the goal set for themselves by chairman Virgil Giger's committee of the Chamber of Commerce and Canby Firemen members.

A new high total of $3,488.61 was reported last week, an increase of $189.81. Nine new contributors, all of them purely voluntary, were listed.

It was expected that members
