Jumper's $300,000 Suit Goes to Trial on May 16

New York, April 26 (AP)—Danny Gardella's long-pending $300,000 damage suit against organized baseball is scheduled to come up for trial May 16.

The way was temporarily cleared for bringing the case before a jury yesterday when baseball filed its answer to the suit in federal court.

The game's leaders asked for dismissal of the suit on the grounds that baseball is not engaged in interstate commerce and thus is out of federal court jurisdiction.

The answers also denied that the former New York Giants outfielder had suffered the damages he claims by his five-year suspension that followed his

Beavers Trounce Huskies, 17 to 7

Corvallis, Ore., April 26 (AP)—Oregon State college pounded out 11 hits to drub the University of Washington 17 to 7 in a Northern division Pacific Coast conference baseball game on Coleman field here Monday afternoon.

Beaver southpaw pitcher Chuck Sauvain held the Husky batters to three hits in the first six innings as the Staters were rolling up 16 runs to Washington's three. Sauvain eased up after that, however, and allowed four more Husky hits to drive in four runs. The Beavers scored their final run in the eighth inning.

YM Gymkhana To Be Staged on Thursday Night

The annual Gymkhana of the YMCA, an event that covers a wide variety of athletic endeavor, will be staged Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the Y gymnasium.

The program will include folk dancing by the club that has participated in this activity during the winter; gymnastics by a group of experienced Portlanders; "maze" running and games by the Cadets, a 9-10 year age group; track and field acts by Preps, 11 and 12 years old; basketball by junior high boys; wrestling under the direction of Jerry Grimm, badminton supervised by Rae Farmer and modern dancing by Gertrude Ayers.

The program will extend for a period of one and a half hours.

Deboest Resigns Ring Commission

Portland, Ore., April 26 (AP)—Joe DeBoest resigned from the Portland boxing commission Monday because he said he wanted "to keep the commission legal and save the mayor embarrassment."

DeBoest, only member of the retiring commission to be reappointed by Mayor Dorothy McCullough Lee, said one member of the commission must by law be a doctor.

"The mayor overlooked this requirement in making her appointments," DeBoest said. "My resignation seemed the simplest way out, for she can now name a doctor member without disturbing her other appointments."

Preps Nose Past Central, 11-10

Portland — The Mt. Angel Preps clubbed out nine runs in their first time up, then held off Central Catholic attacks to win their baseball game, 11 to 10.

Bucheit, on the mound for the Preps, fanned eight. Pete Reuf homered for the victors while Payseno counted a two for three performances.

So they shall know good music of all nations

Casey Jones, Paul Bunyan, Pecos Bill, Johnny Appleseed... all the legendary heroes of America are this year coming to life for children in 2,663 schools through the music of the Standard School Broadcast.

Each week, this program plays and explains good music for an estimated 400,000 classroom listeners. Title of the current course is "American Music and Folklore"... but over the years, music of all nations has been studied and enjoyed. Manuals and other materials are supplied for the use of teachers.

This is the twenty-first year of Standard School Broadcasts. It is our sincere hope that we have helped children in the West know and appreciate the music of the world and understand better its people.
