

36 More Groups Subversive

Washington, April 27 (AP)—Attorney General Clark today added 36 groups to the government's list of subversive organizations.

He classed 23 as communist; seven as fascist; four as advocating force to deny constitutional rights to others; and two as seeking to change the form of government by "unconstitutional means."

The list was turned over to the loyalty board, which heads up the program of checking on the loyalty of government employees.

Clark previously had furnished lists of about 100 organizations.

Active membership in the groups on the lists is grounds for dismissal of a government employe.

The association of Georgia Klans, the Knights of the White Camellia, and the original Southern Klans, Inc., were three of the four organizations designated on the new list as advocating force and violence to deny others their constitutional rights. The fourth group is the American Christian nationalist party.

The Industrial Workers of the World and the Nationalist party of Puerto Rico were listed as seeking to alter the form of the U. S. government by unconstitutional means.

Other organizations named and their categories included: Fascist; American Nationalist party; American Nationalist Labor party; American National Socialist league.

Barrett 'Boss' Flax Festival

Mt. Angel—At their regular meeting of Mt. Angel Business Men's club following luncheon at the hotel, conducted by C. J. Butsch, members of the flax festival committee, Harold Brenden, chairman and Fred J. Schwab reported that meetings of that committee are being held each Monday evening, and Gene Barrett, coach for the Mt. Angel Preps has been named manager for this year's festival.

Schwab said that the directors of this festival are trying to tie-in the communities industries, the Mt. Angel Co-operative Creamery, Marion County Farmers Union Oil Co., and Mt. Angel Farmers Union Warehouse Company, with the flax festival.

E. B. Stolle told that the first ball game will be played with Sublimity on Sunday, May 1, beginning at 2:30 p. m. sharp, at the Ebner ball park, Mt. Angel. A program starting at 2 o'clock will officially open the ball season here.

Stolle also reported on the meeting of the Cascade Highway Association which he, and L. A. LeDoux attended at Springfield last week. The Association advocated that the local club take out a membership in the Cascade Highway Association. Following a general discussion the club voted to affiliate with the Cascade Highway association.

Plans were made for the May 5 visit here of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, when over fifty members will be guests of the Mt. Angel Business Men's club. The visitors are expected to arrive here at 4:30 o'clock, for a tour of this city, and visit all the local industries. At 7 o'clock dinner for a hundred guests will be served at the St. Mary's Dining hall. The committees named for this program are Frank Hettner and Fred J. Schwab; tickets, L. A. LeDoux and C. J. Butsch; dinner arrangement, Francis Schmidt and Val Eberle.

The club's secretary, Miss Loretta Dehler, was instructed to write a letter of thanks to the Mt. Angel Garden club which sponsored the annual primrose show last Sunday which was a successful affair.

Lebanon Fishermen Are Taking to Air

Lebanon—All possible landing sites by lakes and streams are being investigated by local fishermen who like their fishing where roads are non-existent or impassible until later in the year. An effort is being made to make Lebanon the aerial gateway for fishing in the Cascades.

Airport mechanics are using spare time to transform a Piper J-3 Cub into a powerful little bear. The result is a J-3 Cub with an 85 H. P. engine and self starter. It is designed for an aerial jeep to get in and out of small places in exploring remote fishing spots. It can land in 200 feet and take off in a like distance; a tandem wheel is being installed, and its performance is reported sensational in inaccessible places.

Three Prisoners Handcuff Officer

Vancouver, April 27 (AP)—Three men who overpowered a police constable, handcuffed him to a bench in a barred cell and escaped with his revolver, were being sought by police today.

The three men subdued Constable Harry Cartmell as the Victoria-Vancouver ferry pulled into the dock.

They were being taken to Oakalla prison farm in suburban Burnaby to serve three-year prison sentences for breaking, entering and armed robbery.

The escapees were identified as Kenneth O'Keefe, 23; Leonard Sparks, 28; and John Stinson, 49.

Stayton Librarian Reports New Books

Stayton—A number of new books have been added to the Stayton Public library, according to Mrs. Ona Weitzel, librarian.

Included in the list for children are "Hook and Ladder No. 3," "Little Squeaky Bug," "Rory Noe," "Chicken Chuck," "Easter Bunny's Gift," all by Bill and Howard Martin; and the "Child's Garden of Verse" by Robert Louis Stevenson. New adult books are "Pilgrim's Inn" by Goude; "The Professor's Umbrella" by Ward; "Eisenhower Was My Boss" by Sumner; "The Trail Led North" by McKown; "From Out the Yukon" by Bond; "Jonathan and the Rainbow" by Blau; and "Huckleberry Finn" by Twain.

Harvey Blythe, manager, Oregon U. S. 99 Highway association, lost no time selling Dale Evans (Mrs. Roy Rogers) and her cowboy actor husband, Roy Rogers, on a vacation in Oregon, when they visited the booth of the Northwest Travel association at Gilmore Stadium, Los Angeles. Blythe represented Highway 99 during the Sportsman's Vacation and Travel show, held April 14 to 24.

Marion County Club Member Are Staging 'Biggest Show'

Silverton—Silverton is in the midst of the biggest little show in the history of the town.

As host to a potential 1800 small guests, ages including the eager teenagers, the Marion county 1949 4-H Spring show slogan, "Better Living for a Better World," the school, the city, the Christian church group, and the state is opening their doors to the youngsters and their enthusiastic leaders.

Exhibits are on display at the Washington Irving building. The contest demonstrations are conducted in the kitchen and dining room basement rooms of the First Christian church, immediately across Park street from the Washington Irving building.

The army, through the courtesy of the officials of the National Guard, is available for public to attend the Friday afternoon program, beginning at 1 o'clock. The Thursday afternoon style show is at the Eugene Field auditorium.

The show is from Monday through Friday afternoon, the grand finale at the armory culminating a parade at 12:30 o'clock on the down town streets of Silverton that will be really something to see.

Visitors have had to wait until this evening when they may go to the Washington Irving rooms at 6 to 9 o'clock and view the hundreds of exhibits.

Academy Students Presenting Recital

Mt. Angel—Mt. Angel Academy students will feature the work of Edward McDowell, American composer, at their annual music recital Sunday afternoon in the academy auditorium. Compositions of other musicians will complete the program.

Stocks Advance Irregularly

New York, April 27 (AP)—A demand for steel shares held the stock market to the higher side today by a slim margin.

Early brisk trading, in which a number of blocks of stock changed hands, helped push volume to the rate of 900,000 shares for the day. Aircrafts were a soft spot in the market with losses running to around a point among the leaders.

Steels at their best were more than a point higher, but some profit taking trimmed down the gains.

Buying interest in steels came from U. S. Steel Corp. Action yesterday in raising the quarterly dividend to $1.50 a share from $1.25 previously paid.

Stocks moving up included U. S. Steel, Jones & McLaughlin, Goodrich, Southern Pacific, Mission Corp., Phelps Dodge, Safeway Stores and Philip Morris.

On the downside were Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Union Pacific and American Woolen.

Timber Auction May 16

Eugene, April 27 (AP)—An oral auction of 15,500,000 feet of timber from the Willamette National forest will be held here May 16. It is in the Lava Lake area and is appraised at $201,208.

Soybeans, Lard Show Strength

Chicago, April 27 (AP)—While grains barely held small fractional gains, soybeans and lard came up with a show of strength on the board of trade today.

Soybeans spurted around 2 cents at times, helped by action of the senate finance committee in approving a bill to repeal federal taxes on oleomargarine. The house already has passed this measure. Soybean oil is used in making margarine.

Trading in grains was fairly active, despite the fact price changes were not large.

Wheat ended 1/4 lower to 1/4 higher, May $2.25-$2.24 3/4, corn was 1/4 lower to 1/4 higher, May $1.35 1/2-$1.36, oats were 1/4-3/4 higher, May 67 1/4-1/4, rye was 1/2 to 1 cent higher, May $1.28, soybeans were 1 1/4-1 1/4 higher, May $2.27 1/2-3/4, and lard was 10 to 33 cents a hundred pounds higher, May $12.10.

Shaggy Bearded Man of 33 Dug Out of Cubbyhole

New York, April 27 (AP)—A shaggy-bearded man of 33, dug out after 10 years of fantastic solitude in a dark cubbyhole, yearned today to return to the tomb-like cubicle in which his mother sealed him when war broke out.

Shoeless, filthy, his clothing in rags, Paul Makushak, one-time college student, stood on wobbly legs and blinked into the unaccustomed glare of electric lights.

"I liked it in there," he said. "I'd like to go back. I don't care about the outside world." Police took him to a hospital.

Later today Brooklyn District Attorney Miles F. McDonald said Makushak told him that if he were found sane and released "I want to go back to the room." McDonald said there was no evidence of any crime in the case since Makushak had entered the room voluntarily.

The man told a strange story of voluntary exile since 1939—when his mother sealed him off from the world with a wall of wood and plaster at the outbreak of World War II.

Makushak spent the 10 years in a tiny walled-in cubicle built in the corner of a littered third floor bedroom in a brownstone house in the Greenpoint section of Brooklyn.

His father, who runs a tailor shop in the same building, said he never knew the man was imprisoned in the house. The father and mother were separated.

The cubicle, about three feet wide and five feet long—scarcely big enough to hold Makushak when he stretched on the floor to sleep—had been devised, police said, because his mother presumably wanted him to escape being drafted.

Makushak, however, was vague about the war.
