

East Salem Residents Swing Into Full Program Activity

East Salem, April 28—For three weeks, and still planned for another week activities of the young babies who were christened, and well-baby clinics planned, pre-school children clinics, Brownies and Girl Scout programs; Boy Scout camps; spring 4-H shows; for the children, and even PTA plans have been the highlights of the news in East Salem.

The brownies and scout troop took parts in the "sing and swing" party held in Salem. The Auburn Brownie troop, all 16 members, and every one in uniform, attended with their leader, Mrs. S. W. Burris. The members are Beverly Wright, Wilma Friderich, new members who received their pins at the regular meeting this week on Tuesday: Juanita Bullis, Sherry Dillard, Sandra Lindberg, Joy Freier, Judy Wolf, Karla Wolz, Mari-belle Starr, Janice Anstine, Sharon Anstine, Phyllis Bunch, Patsy Etzel, Sanda Mass, Arlene Mass and Jeanette Winters. The Swegle Brownie troop has grown in size until it has to be divided into two groups; the second graders meeting on Friday from 2 to 3:30 and the third and fourth graders from 3:30 to 4:30. Each month they have one combined party. This month it was their Easter party. The girls met and each colored two eggs which were hidden while they made 96 favors for the trays of the patients of the Salem Memorial hospital. After this work they hunted for their own eggs on which they had put their names. In May it will be a Mother's day tea.

Only nine of the members attended the sing and swing party: Ann Yost, Rosalie West, Carol Jean Adamson, Gerry Dell Lewis, Nancy Painter, Sandra Wilkinson, Viola Yost, Marilyn Towery and Beverly Hanson, with their leaders, Mrs. Hillary Hanson and Mrs. Roy Adamson. Girls Scouts with their leader, Mrs. Marion West, who took part were Marilyn Benson, Eleanor Berry, Janice Isom, Beverly Schultz, Wanda Lappen and Anna May West.

Two Swegle brownies who have recently moved with their parents are Sandra Bloom to Mt. Angel and Ginger Hildbrandt to Kelzer community. Beverly LeAnn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gilmer of Auburn community, was one of the babies christened at Knight Memorial church during the Easter season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holland of Portland were week-end house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Willer of Monroe avenue Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Willer attended the Majeski-White wedding and reception. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scorgie of Thorndale road, in Auburn district, drove to Seattle this past week taking W. M. Scorgie to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wilbert Weiz. Mrs. R. J. Becker was hostess for the Monroe Sewing club. In attendance were Mrs. Henry Hanson, Mrs. Arthur Stowell, Mrs. C. A. Barney, Mrs. Wilfred Willer, Mrs. Paul Gilmer, Mrs. Ray Alexander as a guest, Mrs. Hugh Williams and Mrs. S. Johns.

Berry Season Hits Peak for Festival

Lebanon—Weather conditions point to a plentiful local strawberry crop which should peak at the time of the strawberry fair, June 3-4, announced Claude Cox, shortcake chairman, at a fair board meeting Monday evening. Due to late harvests for the past several years, the processed berries have been served with the 10,000-pound shortcake.

Cox estimated that 2500 pounds of the fresh fruit will be needed, along with 75 gallons of whipped cream, to garnish the huge shortcake, which is served free to all comers on Friday, June 3, first day of the festival. Art Wilson, chairman of the berry exhibit, is contacting growers for what he plans to be the largest showing of crated strawberries in recent fair history.

St. Paul Rodeo Plans Progress

St. Paul, Ore.—Featured performers and stock for the 14th annual St. Paul rodeo have been contracted and plans are taking shape for the most spectacular July 4 week-end celebration ever held in this small Willamette valley farming community. Louis and Bernadette Cabral, Tres Pinos, Calif., will perform daring exhibitions of Roman pyramid riding and dramatic tricks with their educated horses during all four of the rodeo shows.

From Vancouver, Wash., the Lane trio of attractive teen-age girl acrobats, with "Homer," their clown, Rodeo Clown Andy Walmac, Phoenix, Ariz., with his monkey and mule, will be the arena stock-hazer and bull-fighter. Hobart Norman, rodeo announcer from El Paso, Texas, will voice the arena action during the wild west shows. Bucking horses, Brahma bulls and wild cows and calves for the rodeo events are coming from Harley Tucker's Joseph, Ore., ranch.

St. Paul's rodeo festivities begin Sunday, June 5, with a buckaroo breakfast and trail ride to Champoog state park. Riding clubs and other equestrian groups from all sections of the northwest will participate in the affair.

Sublimity—The children received their first holy communion in a body, accompanied by their parents. The high mass was sung by the high school choir. Those in the communion class were Jacqueline Minden, Phyllis Boedighelmer, Janice Zuber, Helen Leverman, Audrey Schluender, Beverly Weis, Janet Schott, Kenneth Highberger, Richard Riesterer, Douglas Highberger, William Kramer, Darwin Kremer and Wayne Rubel.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How We Licked The Parking Problem

For a while it looked like we'd have to put up parking meters. Folks working in town—including some of the store owners—were taking up all of the space along Main Street.

Farmers coming in to shop never found a place to park, and sometimes had to lug stuff a half mile or so. Some started to do their buying in other towns. Finally, store owners and farmers had a get-together—with the result that the empty field near the depot was staked up for all-day parking.

Now farmers get their shopping done comfortably, and the merchants have a better place to park than they had before. Just took a little friendly co-operation to make everybody happy.

From where I sit, most differences can be ironed out by just talking things over—maybe with a cup of coffee or glass of beer—and seeing the other person's side of it. Next time you have a problem or a little difference to settle, why not try just that?
