

Hustling Senators Meet Vancouver Hurdle for Homecoming

Bush Lot Slated For Double Work For Cats Saturday

Willamette university's Bush Pasture field will be the scene Saturday afternoon of a two-ring athletic circus. The Bearcats' baseball club will meet the University of Portland Pilots at 3 o'clock. At the same time Coach Jerry Lillie's thin clads will engage Linfield's runners and weight tossers.

Coach John Lewis' selection of a pitcher to go against the Pilots depends upon the outcome of Friday's clash with Pacific at Forest Grove. Howard Olson or Larry Stocks will probably draw the assignment.

The track meet will be the first on the new Bush oval.

Games Thursday

Salem 7, Bremerton 3
Tacoma 4, Wenatchee 3 (12 Innings)

Pre-game ceremonies, including the tossing out of the first ball by Governor Douglas McKay and raising of the colors are scheduled for 8 o'clock. There will be no speech making and after the players of the two clubs have been introduced they will have a tilt.

With Jim Foster pitching six hit ball and with Mel Wasley having a big night offensively and defensively, Manager Bill Beard's Solons closed out the series with the Bremerton Tars Thursday night on the long end of the 7-2 count. The series went to Salem 2 to 1.

Wasley took over the hero's role at the platter with a double and three singles an afield turned in the defensive play of the season when he made a shoe-string catch of Lou Briganti's fly and then rifled the ball to Al Spaeter at second for a double killing. This occurred in the seventh when the bases were jammed as the result of two walks and a hit. The spectacular performance retired the side without damage insofar as scoring was concerned.

The Senators opened with one run in the first when Wasley singled Wert home. Wert had reached first when hit on the foot by a pitched ball.

The Tars took a 2 to 1 lead in their half of the first on two walks, two hits and an error. After that Foster settled down and while he issued a total of seven passes, other than the seventh he had easy sailing. The fact that his mates continued to add to their string was of material assistance.

Stan Halstead, the losing pitcher, gave way to Merv Allen at the start of the eighth and the Solons picked on him for three runs in the ninth on hits by Wasley, Bob Cherry, Larry Orteig and Bill Beard. An error figured in the scoring.

In the only other league game of the night, the Tacoma Tigers edged Wenatchee 4-3 in 12 innings as Joe Orrell walked in the deciding run with the sacks loaded.

Anglers Await May Day Opening

The day for which several thousand anglers have been anticipating for weeks will roll around Sunday, May 1. That is the official opening date for the 1949 fishing season (with certain exceptions) and some 100,000 fishermen with high hopes will seek their favorite streams and lakes. The state game commission has sold 260,000 licenses so the estimate of 100,000 for the opening day exercises should not be far off.

Because of the keen competition for the most likely fishing holes, hundreds of anglers will not take advantage of the opening day but will wait until conditions are less crowded.

The daily limit of 10 trout, but not over 15 pounds and one fish is still in effect.

Because of the volume of snow water coming out of the mountains, first day catches are not expected to be phenomenal. The game commission requests that tagged fish that are caught should be reported as to length.

Horses to Run In Meadows Oval After Compromise

Portland, April 29 (AP)—The bangtalls will race here after all. After crossing verbal swords, the state racing commission and Bill Kyne, general manager of the Portland Meadows, worked out a compromise yesterday by dividing up the dog racing season.

The commission set May 27-July 16 for the Meadows horse racing meet, but Kyne said the windup might come as early as July 9 to avoid conflict with meets at Seattle and Vancouver, B.C.

Earlier Kyne had threatened to abandon horse racing here for the season in protest against dates he said were "too late."

The Multnomah Kennel club dog races were set for May 11-26, July 18-Aug. 20, Aug. 29-Sept. 3 and Sept. 12-Sept. 19.

Among the observers was Amos Alonzo Stagg, the "grand old man" of the gridiron and father of Paul Stagg, Pacific coach. Another practice game between the two teams is set for next Thursday at Pacific.

Five Games Separate Celler Bevos from Top

Hollywood is on top of the Pacific Coast league and Portland is at the bottom, but the two are only five games apart. That's close, brother.

The Stars got back on top of the pack Thursday night when they counted six runs on two homers to beat Oakland 7 to 4. At the same time, the Portland Beavers made it two straight over San Diego, winning 3 to 2. The loss dropped the Padres a half-game behind Hollywood.

Elsewhere around the loop, Guy Fletcher held the Sacramento Solons to five hits in pitching Seattle to an 8-3 win. Both clubs are only one game off the pace. San Francisco rallied around the tight pitching of Jack Brewer to beat Los Angeles, 6-2, making it three straight for the Seals over the Angels.

At San Diego, Bill Burgher singled home what proved to be the Beavers' winning run in the sixth. San Diego had moved ahead in the third on singles by Dain Clay and Buster Adams and a double by Steve Mesner. The Beavers tied it up in the fourth on doubles by Leo Thomas and Dick Wenner sandwiched around a walk to Johnny Barrett.

Expect 10,000 Fans to Crowd Far West Debuts

At least 10,000 fans are expected for the opening of the class D Far West Baseball league tonight.

The league's two Oregon teams will invade California, whose clubs make up the rest of the loop.

Medford, Ore., will play at Vallejo; Willows will meet Santa Rosa; Redding will travel to Marysville, and Klamath Falls, Ore., will be entertained by Pittsburg.

President Jerry Donovan said the league should draw double its season attendance of 200,000 fans last year. A 126-game schedule will be played.

Four clubs—Santa Rosa, Pittsburg, Vallejo and Medford—will operate independently.

The other four teams have working agreements with major league outfits—Marysville with the Boston Braves, Redding with the St. Louis Browns, Willows with the St. Louis Cardinals and Klamath Falls with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Last season's pennant winner, Oroville, is now out of the league. Its franchise was purchased from the Boston Red Sox by Phil Jones and moved to Vallejo.
