

AN EVENT for tomorrow afternoon will be the tea at the home of Miss Lena Blum, honoring Mrs. Henry Kayser and Mrs. Lloyd Myers. Both honorees are district officers in the Credit Women's Breakfast clubs and will be attending the district conference in Seattle in May and the national convention in Boston in June. Mrs. Kayser is district president, Mrs. Myers, district corresponding secretary. Tomorrow's tea will be between 2 and 4 o'clock.

Introducing guests to the honorees will be Mrs. Wayne Weston and Mrs. Mertie Eccles.

Miss Irene de Lisle, Mrs. Marie Ling, Mrs. Dorothy Walker and Mrs. Gervaise Elliott are to pour.

The May day theme will be used in decorating for the tea, May baskets of flowers to be used. Pink dogwood and lilies of the valley with crystal appointments will decorate the tea table.

Missouri club auxiliary is meeting on Tuesday, a no-host luncheon being planned at 12:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. W. Rolofson, 161 South 14th.

At a simple home wedding Wednesday, April 27, Mrs. Evelyn Shimondie was married to Lloyd F. Hamby at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Propp 410 N. 18. Mr. and Mrs. Al Zimmerman attended the couple.

The bride wore a blue suit with pink accessories and an orchid corsage. The matron of honor wore a blue suit and corsage of Tullis roses. Miss Mary June Wofford sang "I Love You Truly." Rev. Carl Schulz performed the ceremony. The home was decorated with white lilies, pink tulips and candelabras with lighted tapers. Mrs. Ann Wane and Miss Betsy Darby assisted in serving at the reception following.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hamby will be at home at 1745 Chemeketa street.

SALEM General Hospital auxiliary will gather for its final event of the season, Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock in the Salem YWCA. New officers, headed by Mrs. Carl E. Nelson, will take over their offices at this time.

Reports will be given on the membership campaign now closing, the committee being asked to give its concluding report at the Tuesday meeting.

Invitation is extended to all auxiliary members to attend the meeting.

Theater Arts group is to meet Tuesday for dessert at 1:15 o'clock at the home of Mrs. V. M. Sackett, 1510 South Winter. Mrs. Melvin Geist is to give a review of Tarkington's "The Intimate Strangers."

The May fellowship day for the Salem Council of Women's Organizations is slated for next Friday, May 6, in the First Presbyterian church, starting at 10 o'clock.

Dr. Chester W. Hamblin is to lead the devotions. "The Christian Home" is the day's theme. A play, "Citadel of Faith" will be presented, Mrs. Seth R. Huntington directing. The luncheon will be at 12:15 o'clock and for the afternoon session Mrs. Roy Fedje is to preside. Dr. Dan Walker of Corvallis is to be the speaker for the afternoon. A stewardship discussion will be featured with Mrs. Edith Vernon as the leader.

May meeting for the Salem Women's Army and Navy League is planned for Tuesday, luncheon to be at 1 p.m. at the Senator, cards following.

The board of directors of the Salem Art association is to meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Chandler Brown home. Miss Elizabeth Lord is president of the group.

More Than 400 Due for Event

First of several conventions for women's groups in Salem this summer will be the annual one for the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, May 13, 14 and 15. Between 400 and 450 visitors and delegates are expected.

The Oregon federation now has 47 clubs, representing about 3000 members. Mrs. Arthur Weddle, past president of the Salem club, is the state president and will preside at the meeting.

Highlights of the convention will include the informal dinner, followed by the annual stunt program, Friday evening, the program to be in the armory; the international relations luncheon Saturday noon; the formal banquet Saturday evening followed by a meeting in the armory with the national federation's representative as speaker; and the annual Sunday morning breakfast to be given in the Marion hotel with the Rev. Dudley Strain as the speaker.

Judge Sarah T. Hughes of Dallas, Texas, national first vice president, is the national federation visitor and speaker for the Saturday night program. Judge Hughes, a former instructor in law at both the Jefferson school of law and Southern Methodist university, as well as a former member of the Texas state legislature, is now judge of the 14th district court in Texas, an office she has held since 1935. She has held varied offices in the Business and Professional Women's organization and is active also in the Dallas Zonta club, the council of social agencies, and the American Association of University Women.

The formal banquet Saturday evening of the convention is to be staged in both the Marion hotel and the American Legion club, the program following to be at 8 o'clock in the armory.

Convention meetings are to be held in the First Methodist church, the Saturday luncheon also to be in the church.

The regular reciprocity luncheon of P.E.O. Sisterhood chapters will be at noon Monday at the Golden Pheasant, special invitation being extended to unaffiliated P.E.O. members.

Job's Daughters will honor Miss Jacquelyn Jones and Mrs. Kehne Wain at their meeting Monday evening, 7:30 o'clock, Beaver hall. Miss Jones was appointed to a position in the order at the grand session in Ashland last week and Mrs. Wain was named to a position on the grand council.

The Oregon State Nurses' association, District No. 3, has planned a program meeting for 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in the Salem Woman's club house. A travelogue film from the Oregon state highway department, "Vacations in Oregon" will be shown.

American War Mothers' club is meeting Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the Central Church of Christ for a special business session.

THE NATIONAL rehabilitation vice chairman for the American Legion auxiliary Mrs. Charles W. Gunn of Portland, will be guest speaker for Capital Unit No. 9, Monday evening, at the local group's regular meeting at 8 o'clock in the Salem Woman's club house.

Mrs. Gunn also is in charge of the hospital workers schools throughout the county as part of the auxiliary program with veterans' hospital and she will tell of the making of the poppies sold each Memorial day time for the benefit of veterans and their families.

Special music is planned for the Monday evening meeting. Mrs. Helen McLeod will preside as president.

Meeting Wednesday for a no-host luncheon in the parish house, at 12:30 o'clock will be St. Paul's Guild, St. Paul's Episcopal church.

New officers will be installed at the meeting of Wesleyan Service guild of the First Methodist church Monday, at 8 p.m. at the home of Miss Mildred Yetter, 1010 North 18th.

The officers include: Miss Phebe McAdams, president; Mrs. J. Edgar Purdy, vice president; Miss Adeline Wilson, recording secretary; Mrs. Norma Shaw, promotion secretary; Miss Mildred Yetter, treasurer; Mrs. Kenneth Hamilton, missionary education secretary; Miss Laura Linton, spiritual life secretary; Mrs. Bertha Bergman, Christian social relations secretary; Miss Ruth McAdams, local church activities secretary; Mrs. L. V. Shafer, supplies secretary; Mrs. Harry W. Safford, publicity chairman; Mrs. Mabel Hayles, membership chairman; Mrs. Fay Lindley, cheer and contact chairman; Mrs. Fred Humphrey, hospitality; Mrs. James Taylor, librarian; Mrs. Eric Horlin, status of women chairman; Miss Dorothy Buck, music secretary; Mrs. Brooks H. Moore, coordinator.

Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, is to meet Tuesday at 8 o'clock in the Masonic temple.

MUSIC week is to be featured in the program for the meeting of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, next Saturday, May 7, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. C. Jory. There also will be annual reports and election of officers.

A paper prepared by Mrs. Ruth Herndon is to be read. Three high school girls will give a musical program as follows: Flute solos, Miss Marilyn Broer; whistling solos, Miss Marjorie Jordan, with Miss Dorothy Pederson as accompanist for both.

Hostesses with Mrs. Jory are Mrs. Carey Martin, Mrs. A. L. Wallace, Mrs. R. H. Scott, Mrs. B. H. White, Mrs. Clarence Mulcahy, Mrs. R. D. Paris, Mrs. Harmond Darley, Mrs. James Likes, Mrs. John H. Carkin.

Chopin Program

One of the series of faculty concerts is announced by Willamette university college of music for Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock in Waller hall.

The program is part of the world-wide observance honoring Chopin, great Polish musical genius, 1949 marking the 100th anniversary of the death of Chopin. In commemoration of the composer's contribution to art, the people of Poland are holding a centennial, which began February 22 and is to continue throughout the year.

For the local program, Ralph Dobbs, associate professor of piano at Willamette, will feature as the main work on his program the 24 preludes by the Polish composer.

The public is invited to Monday's concert. Program for the evening is as follows:

- | | | | |
|----|---------------------------------|---------------|-----------------|
| I | Prelude & Fugue G Minor | | Chopin |
| | | | Frederic Chopin |
| | Prelude G Major | | Bach |
| | Chorale Prelude: In Thee Is Joy | | Bach-Busoni |
| II | Preludes Op. 28 | | Chopin |
| | C Major | F Sharp Major | |
| | A Minor | E Flat Major | |
| | G Major | D Flat Major | |
| | E Minor | B Flat Major | |
| | D Major | A Flat Major | |
| | B Minor | F Minor | |
| | A Major | E Flat Major | |
| | F Sharp Minor | C Minor | |
| | E Major | B Flat Major | |
| | C Sharp Minor | G Minor | |
| | B Major | F Major | |
| | G Sharp Minor | D Minor | |

- | | | | |
|-----|--------------------------------|-------|------------|
| III | Barcarolle | | Griffes |
| | Pembroke | | Gardiner |
| | Intermezzo Op. 118 A Major | | Brahms |
| | Song for the Beloved (Russian) | | |
| | | | Tchehepina |

- | | | | |
|----|------------------|-------|-------|
| IV | Spanish Rhapsody | | Liszt |
| | Folles D'Espagne | | |
| | Jota Aragonesa | | |

Reception Follows
Those who attend the Monday evening concert are invited to the reception which the Music Teachers' association will give in honor of Professor Dobbs at Lausanne hall, following the concert. In the receiving line will be Professor and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs, Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist, Miss Lena Belle Tartar and Mrs. John Schmidt.

Mrs. Frank Burlingham will pour and three Willamette music students, Misses Aldene Gould, Jean Rickl and Pauline Bristlin, will assist with the serving. The committee in charge is Mrs. Robert Schroeder, Mrs. David Eason and Mrs. John Schmidt.

Mrs. Robert W. Gormsen will be hostess to her bridge club next Friday, inviting the group for luncheon and cards.

Travel group of the Salem branch, American Association of University Women, is to meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Virgil T. Golden, 2895 South Commercial. Mrs. Scott Samsel and Miss Constance Weinman are assistant hostesses.

Mrs. Donald Madison is to be guest speaker to tell of her recent travel in European countries. She will show some of the articles she brought back with her.

Salem's Club Members to Entertain Annual State Convention for 3 Days

MRS. MONA YODER

MRS. CHARLES FORRETTE

MISS ZULA VAN GILDER

AMONG COMMITTEE chairmen arranging for convention events is Mrs. Mona Yoder, left above. (Jesten-Miller photo). Mrs. Charles Forrette, center picture, is the president of the hostess club and completes her year in the office this month. (Jesten-Miller photo). Miss Zula Van Gilder, at right, is another of the business women's chairmen working on convention plans. (Jesten-Miller photo)

Mother's Week-end at Oregon State college next Friday and Saturday will attract a large group of visiting mothers. The fourth annual meeting of the state organization of the OSC Mothers' clubs will be held in connection with the week-end program, the general meeting for the group to be at 1 p.m. Saturday in the Museum Building auditorium.

The Portland unit mothers' chorus, formed this year, will sing. Mrs. Leslie B. Blakney is chairman of the group, and Mrs. William Welch is the director. Bob Clark, Corvallis, will give the invocation. Officers will be elected to serve for the next two years, and will be installed during the meeting. Now serving are Mrs. Harry Compton, Portland, president; Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson, Sr., Salem, vice president; Mrs. Ed Bohle, Lebanon, secretary; and Mrs. T. G. Waring, Lowell, treasurer.

The Corvallis unit will serve a buffet luncheon for the State Mothers' club board members in Room 105, Memorial Union, Friday, May 6, at 1 p.m. The executive board will meet immediately after the luncheon in Room 208. Mrs. S. H. Peterson and Mrs. C. W. Labhart of Corvallis will be co-chairmen of the luncheon. Mrs. H. A. Schoth is the president of the Corvallis unit.

Mrs. Paulson, chairman of the state budget committee, has called her committee to meet at 11 a.m., Friday, May 6. Mrs. Carl W. Emmons, Salem, chairman of the state scholarship committee, has called her committee to meet at 11:45 a.m., also on Friday, May 6. Both committee meetings will be held in the Memorial Union lounge.

The Oregon State College Mothers' club will sponsor an outdoor tea on the lower campus, Saturday from 4 to 5 p.m., to which all mothers, sons and daughters are invited. The Corvallis unit of the Mothers' club will act as hostess, with Mrs. W. B. Bollen, chairman of the tea, and Mrs. E. C. Allworth, chairman of decorations.

Registration of mothers will be 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, May 6, and 9 a.m. to 12 noon, Saturday, May 7. Coffee will be served in Room 211, Memorial Union, on Saturday, during registration hours.

Mothers' banquets will be held at 6 p.m. Saturday in all living organizations and the Memorial Union ballroom. The Memorial Union banquet was planned especially for the mothers of off-campus students and mothers of students whose living organizations are unable to stage "at home" dinners.

All mothers and their sons and daughters are invited to attend special services in Corvallis churches at 11 a.m., Sunday, May 8.

Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, newly named president of the Salem unit, is to attend the clubs' executive board meeting with the retiring local president, Mrs. L. O. Arens.

Salem women holding offices in the state organization of the mothers' clubs this year have been: Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson, state vice president and chairman of the budget committee; Mrs. Carl W. Emmons, district representative for district No. 3 and chairman of the scholarship committee; Mrs. L. O. Arens, Salem, president; Mrs. Harlan Pearson, nominating committee member; Mrs. Glenn S. Paxson, member of the constitution committee; Mrs. George Croisand, chairman of the legislative committee; Mrs. A. E. Ullman, member of the budget committee; Mrs. D. H. Upjohn, publicity chairman.

MISS BETTY ELOFSON

STATE CORRESPONDING secretary of the business women's groups this past year has been Miss Betty Elofson of the Salem club. (Jesten-Miller photo)

MRS. WILLIAM J. LINFOOT

ANOTHER of the committee chairmen making plans for the state convention of the business women is Mrs. William J. Linfoot, above. (Jesten-Miller photo)