Silverton Asked To Balance Budget

Silverton—The Silverton district 4 school taxpayers are to be asked to vote on May 14 an additional $34,275.84 in excess of the 6 percent limitation in order to balance the 1949-50 financial budget.

Lloyd Larsen, chairman of the board of directors, explained that maintenance and repairs of school property is causing the advance of more than $25,000 above the budget demands of the past school year. The budget totals an estimated $223,516.48.

Tattoo marks can be removed only by removing the skin itself.

Around and Around We Go—Salem Gate Swingers, devotees of oldtime dancing, turn out for a rehearsal of folk dancing to be staged at the armory May 15. The group of 60 members was organized six months ago with John Geisler as president.

PTA Installation Slated at Lebanon

Lebanon—Mrs. Glenn Huston will be installed as president of the P.T.A. at the May meeting of the Lebanon unit Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the little theater at the high school. Installation officer, Mrs. Gene Tanner, will be assisted by Ernest Caldwell.

Other officers to be installed are: Paul Chilcote, vice president; Mrs. Helen Tracy, secretary, and Mrs. Alvin Klavano, treasurer.

Special music is being planned and an invitation is extended to all the community to attend the meeting.

Room mothers' club presidents will be introduced as staff assistants. They are: Mrs. Jack Hollenbeck, Green Acres; Mrs. William Sisson, Santiam; Mrs. Hal Burgess, Queen Anne and Mrs. Alfred Rucker, high school.

86th Anniversary Of Birth Observed

Fairview — Complimenting Samuel C. Dixon, 86, who was born April 27, 1863, at Pleasant View, Dearborn county, Ind., his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Dixon entertained with a family dinner at their home.

There were 54 present. Mrs. Estel Wilson and son Velmor of Centralia, Wash., came the farthest to attend.

Dixon resided many years near McPherson, Kan., and later resided near Corvallis, Ore., and with his wife and eight children, four sons and four daughters, came to Unionvale in 1908 and his home since that time has been in the Unionvale area. His wife died without a moment's illness October 6, 1930. All of his children are living.

Afternoon Farewell Given for Friends

Sunnyside — Mrs. Eskew entertained a group of her friends with an afternoon farewell party recently. The guests gave the hostess a handkerchief shower. Later a dessert luncheon was served by Mrs. Eskew assisted by her sister, Mrs. Wicklar.

Those present were Mrs. Klock, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Rose Bunsie, Mrs. Bertha Heckart, Mrs. Violet Heckart, Mrs. Wanda Alexander, Mrs. Fern Pearson, Mrs. Altha Neuenschwander, Mrs. Margaret Neuenschwander, Mrs. Wicklar, Mrs. Gray and the hostess, Mrs. Eskew.

The Eskews have sold their home in Sunnyside and expect to be leaving soon.

Woodburn DeMolay Chapter Is Joined

Woodburn—At the April meeting of the Woodburn DeMolay chapter with Roy Henn, presiding, two petitions for membership were received and plans were made to practice the degree work at the regular meeting May 12. Boys who passed their proficiency tests were Earl Ahrens and Keith McNary.

Josslin Wins In Demo Race

Portland, May 2 (AP)—William L. Josslin, Portland attorney and once secretary to the late Gov. Charles H. Martin, has been elected chairman of the democratic state central committee.

He was elected on the first ballot over Mike De Cicco, Portland tire merchant, and Dr. J. C. Hicks, Eugene, at one of the best attended gatherings in recent party history.

De Cicco later was elected treasurer and Volney Martin, Portland, AFL state building trades council secretary, was elected committee secretary. Mrs. Jo Ada Leonard, Klamath Falls, was elected vice chairman.

Executive committee members are: 1st congressional district—Lyman Ross, Aloha, and Margaret Coates, Tillamook; 2nd district—Mrs. Helen Province, Mitchell, and Leslie Sherwood, Hood River; 3rd district—Nicholas Granet, Portland, and Mrs. Minnie Smeaton, Portland; 4th district—Jay C. Hicks, Eugene, and Mrs. Isabel H. Small, Cave Junction.

The committee election was held Saturday prior to a Jackson-Jefferson day banquet here attended by 750 persons. Principal speaker was Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), who supported President Truman's proposals for a Columbia valley administration.

Chairman Josslin named six ex-officio members to the committee yesterday and said they would help promote party harmony. The six are National Committeeman Monroe Sweetland, Newport; National Committeeman Nancy Honeyman Robinson, Portland; Multnomah County Treasurer Jack Summerville, Portland; Dr. Emery Ingham, Willamette democratic society; Robert D. Vavis, Eugene, president of the Young Democratic clubs of Oregon; and Mrs. Norma Silverman, Portland, Women Democrats, Inc.

Ritchie Gets Bank Advance

Wesley E. Ritchie, Marion county banker who was born and reared in Salem, has been appointed chief clerk at the Ladd & Bush-Salem branch of the United States National bank, E. C. Sammons, president, has announced.

A graduate of the Salem public schools, Ritchie has devoted his entire financial career to service with the United States National bank's Ladd & Bush-Salem branch.

Starting as a bookkeeper May 1, 1936, he gained experience in all phases of banking and at one time held the position of head bookkeeper. Later he served in the collateral department and at the time of his current appointment as chief clerk, he was active in the consumer credit field.

Tele-fun by Warren Goodrich

"I didn't say 'tune'—I said, 'tone!' Wait for the dial tone before you dial!"

The steady hum of the dial tone is your signal to begin dialing. The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Crenshaw President Jefferson Students

Jefferson — The Jefferson high school has elected officers, President, Earl Greshaw; vice president, Richard Reeves; secretary, Nancy Beal; treasurer, Shirley Welton; sergeant-at-arms, Lucille Bentley; yell leaders, Donna Armstrong and Shirley Higgins; song queen, Paula Smith.

Mrs. M. H. Beal took several of the newly elected officers to Bend Monday for the state students' council conducted by the Bend high school. They will be the guests of Mrs. Harry McKee while there.

A suit of armor in the Metropolitan Museum of Art is made of 219 steel plates held together by 1400 rivets and 85 straps.

A member of the American Institute of Banking, Ritchie holds the institute's standard certificate.

In addition to his service in the financial field, he has long been active in Salem civic affairs. He is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Salem Breakfast club and the Salem baseball boosters.

Senders President Of Concert Group

Albany — Ralph Senders was re-elected president of the Linn County Community Concert association at the annual board of director's meeting. The meeting was held in the offices of the Albany Chamber of Commerce.

Other officers selected are: Mrs. Marshall M. Woodworth, first vice president; Ianthe Smith, second vice president; Frances McKechnie, secretary, and Alfred W. Trimble, treasurer. The latter two were also re-elected.

Plans for the coming membership campaign were discussed.

The association will close a successful season May 11 with the appearance of Igor Gorin, baritone.
