

Miss Amort Bride This Morning

St. Vincent de Paul Catholic church was the scene of a wedding this morning when Miss Patricia Ann Amort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Amort of Hyampson, Calif., was married to Raymond G. Klecker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Klecker of Salem.

The Rev. George O'Keefe read the rites at 8 o'clock. For the music, Mrs. Vince Rodakowski sang and Wayne Meusey played the organ.

Lilacs, tulips and spirea decorated the church for the service, and at the pews down the processional aisle were white pompons with lilacs and streamers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white satin, designed with lace yoke and cuffs, a draped peplum in back, and lace over the skirt and train. The full-length veil was arranged from a tiny lace cap. The bride carried a prayer book on which was arranged an orchid.

Mrs. J. W. Arey was matron of honor for her sister, wearing a gown of white flower marquise and a picture hat of white marquisette. Her flowers were white and pink snapdragons.

Mrs. Robert Gorman and Miss Rosella Heuberger, the bridesmaids, wore gowns of white crepe and matching picture hats of white net. Their bouquets also were of the white and pink snapdragons.

Acting as best man was Walter Bilyeu. Ushers were Jerome Hayes, Robert Suing, Jerry Heuberger and Robert Prange.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Amort wore a wine colored suit with gray accessories and corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a sand colored dress with brown accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The reception following the service was in the Mayflower hall, the pastel colored flowers also being used there to decorate the table and room.

Mrs. Fred Petzold cut the bride's cake. Mrs. C. R. Suing was at the coffee urn and Mrs. Ben Klecker at the punch bowl.

For traveling the bride wore a blue-gray suit with walk-away skirt and peplum on the jacket, a white frilly jabot at the neckline, navy accessories and corsage of orchids.

Following a trip to the mountains of central Oregon the couple will be at home in Salem after May 8.

Count up your assets, girls and don't fret so much about your liabilities. Pretty, well cared for hair can more than offset a nose that's well, not your best feature. Nicely shaped lips can draw attention from a receding chin and so on. Play down your beauty liabilities by playing up the assets. Concentrate on your good points—hair, hands, eyes, lips—and learn to make the very most of what nature gave you. Do that and you'd be surprised at how many people who, in speaking of you will say, "She's very attractive, isn't she?"
