

East Salem Schools Join For Well-Baby Clinics

East Salem, May 2—The spring well-baby clinic will be held at Swegle school Wednesday, for five East Salem schools. Hours have been assigned to schools as follows: Swegle 9 a. m. to 10 a. m.; Middle Grove 10 a. m. to 11 a. m. and Fruitland from 11 a. m. to 12 noon. Auburn from 2 p. m. to 3 p. m. Dr. Willard Stone will be in charge with the school nurses from the respective schools present for consultation.

Lansing Neighbors Garden club members met in the home of Mrs. Herman Rehm for the regular meeting. Mrs. W. M. Bartlett of Brooks was the guest speaker. She discussed flower arrangement and as each member had brought a bouquet for judging she criticized them individually. At the business meeting Mrs. Ben Rathjen, chairman of the committee arranging for the clubs favors for the National Federation meeting in Portland in June, reported that the name of the club would be with each cherry jar favor.

Mrs. George Wilcox, Mrs. H. W. Cole and Mrs. W. A. Marsh will serve on the nominating committee for new officers to be elected in May. The club will hold short meetings each month throughout the summer with one family picnic. The members voted to enter a display at the State Fair in the fall.

Guests present were Mrs. Ed Rebufft and Mrs. Smith with members, Mrs. Robert Ballard, Mrs. Ethel Sion, Mrs. Milton Blackman, Mrs. Ed Tobin, Mrs. Halbert Kempler, Mrs. Rufus Anderson, Mrs. H. W. Cole, Mrs. Carl Seetler, Mrs. Roy Lively, Mrs. Marcia Apple, Mrs. George Wilcox and Mrs. A. W. Marsh who assisted the hostess, Mrs. Rehm at the social hour.

Mrs. Vicar Wagers entertained members of the Merry Mingle club in the home of Mrs. J. Irvin Wagers Thursday afternoon, with a dessert luncheon and social afternoon. Guests were Mrs. William Nipper, Mrs.

Lue Schultz and Mrs. Lee Wagers. Members present were Mrs. George Hardy, Mrs. Dan Scharf, Mrs. Covil Case, Mrs. Carl Snyder, Mrs. Fred Scharf, Mrs. Irvin Wagers, Mrs. Wade Carter and Mrs. Clyde Colwell, who has recently returned from an auto trip through the south west. Mrs. Carl Snyder and Mrs. Colwell were appointed as a nominating committee for officers for the new club year. The family picnic is planned for May 13th.

Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brandt on East Garden Road were Mr. and Mrs. L. Mitchell and Mrs. Olga Peterson of Portland. The women are cousins of Mr. Brandt.

Swegle Womans club meets Tuesday at 1 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Rex Peffer on Hollywood drive. A plastic party will be held for the social hour.

Plan Welcome For Portlanders
