

Leaves Shanghai's 'Battleship Row'—The USS Eldorado, flagship of the U. S. Navy command in the Western Pacific, steams down the Whangpoo river after leaving Shanghai's famed "battleship row." She will anchor at the mouth of the Whangpoo ready to leave if the Chinese communists take Shanghai. (AP Wirephoto via radio from Shanghai)

Barker Heads State Butchers and Cutters

Herbert E. Barker, executive secretary of the Salem Trades and Labor council, was elected president of the State Federation of Butchers and Meat Cutters, which met in Salem Sunday. Herman Fahbusch of Portland was elected secretary.

The main discussions of the convention centered on adequate inspection of food animals and meat products, and matters growing out of self-service retailing. Also there was discussion of the 40-hour week.

FLAVOR makes the meal

BEN-HUR MUSTARD

Hot dogs, hamburgers, cold meats... good foods like these family sing when you add the tang and zest of pure, fine Ben-Hur prepared MUSTARD. Two kinds... hot and salad... keep 'em both on hand.

BEN-HUR makes the flavor

East Salem Clubs Take Spring Show Ribbons

East Salem, May 3—Two schools in East Salem were well represented by the work of the 4-H club members who took part in the spring show held at Silverton last week. On the award list are the names of several members of the cooking classes of Mrs. John Cage of Middle Grove and the sewing class of Mrs. Frank Lappen of Swegle.

In cooking I, girls who were in the classes for the first time this year, exhibited were muffins with Yvonne Miller receiving a first; Rosemary Slimack a second and Lora Lee Holman a second; Deanna Dickey a third, Suzann Anglin a third and Marie Ann Hammer a third. In cooking II Yvonne Goode won the championship award for her sponge cake and second in the cake baking contest; Shirley Page won a first with her sponge cake and a championship in the cake baking contest; Joanne Fabry a second on her sponge cake.

Joyce Kuenzi, only member of cooking IV, placed first with her homemade bread for senior division. In the clothing division Joanne Fabry placed first on her clothing display and first in style review; Joyce Kuenzi second with her exhibit and style review. Mrs. Cage entered Joanne Fabry and Shirley Page as a demonstration team in a sponge baking contest and received a first award there. They will represent Marion county at the state fair this fall.

Joanne Fabry and Shirley Page also entered the judging of cooking exhibits and tied for third place. Joyce Kuenzi gave the $1 dinner on Thursday with her guests, the judge, Mrs. Mary Olive Maddox of Corvallis, Mrs. Emory Goode and Mrs. Cage. She will also represent Marion county at the fair with this dinner. All who receive a first award may enter exhibits at the fair so Yvonne Miller will exhibit muffins.

One more award went to Joyce Kuenzi, a first on her record book. Swegle girls entered pillow tops and special handwork pieces and Wanda Lappen received a first. Going over for the style review and to see the exhibits from Swegle were Mrs. Frank Lappen, leader of the sewing group this year; Wanda Lappen, Beverly Schultz.
