

Miss Penner Is Married At Mt. Angel Church

Mt. Angel—In a setting of all white lilies and bridal wreath and lighted cathedral tapers at St. Mary's church, Mt. Angel, Miss Pamela Frances Penner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob J. Penner, and Albert Stephen Sprauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sprauer, spoke their vows at a double ring ceremony on Saturday morning April 30, at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. Father Martin W. Doherty of Sacred Heart parish, Gervais, from whom the bride received her first communion as a child in Estacada, officiated and sang the nuptial high mass. Serving at mass were the twin brothers of the bridegroom, Gilbert and Delbert Sprauer. Assisting at mass were the Rev. Father Gabriel, Morris, OSB, principal of the Mt. Angel preparatory school. Miss Helen Keber played the wedding music and accompanied the St. Mary's choir also; Miss Laura Schwab and Miss Dorothy Prosser who sang preceding the processional march; Miss Pauline Saalfeld and Miss Eustelle Bauman singing "Ave Maria"; and Miss Prosser who sang before the recessional.

Mr. Penner escorted his daughter down the aisle, and gave her in marriage. She wore a wedding gown of white satin, fashioned with long fitted bodice, a collar at the shoulder line, lace yoke, long sleeves pointed at the wrist, and a full skirt ending in a long court train. A bonnet of satin matching her gown held the fingertip veil of illusion edged in scalloped French lace. The bride carried a white prayer book topped with orchids and shower spray of stephanotis, and a sterling rosary with rock crystal beads, handmade by her mother.

Mrs. Charles Cvetich of St. Helens stood as matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Anne Peterson, of Portland, and Miss Irene Sprauer. All the attendants wore matching gowns of satin in shades of roses hue. They were styled with fitted bodice, a collar at the shoulder line which also formed the cap sleeve, and floor length circular skirts. Their bonnets and mitts matched the gowns. Miss Angela Sprauer acted as junior bridesmaid wearing a gown of ashes of roses satin made with fitted bodice and sash, and gathered floor length skirt. Her head-dress was a halo of the same satin. All carried shower sprays of yellow and blue irises, and each a rosary, a gift, hand-made, from Mrs. Penner.

Henry Sprauer served as best man for his brother, and ushers were Jacob Penner, Jr., and Leonard Sprauer. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Penner wore a gown of black bengaline with cape to match, and all-black accessories. Mrs. Sprauer, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in a black and fuchsia afternoon dress, with gray accessories. Mrs. Maria Predeck attended her grandson's wedding, wearing a black afternoon dress and black accessories. Each wore a corsage of orchids.

Breakfast was served at 11:30 a. m., at the St. Mary's dining hall to the bridal party and about 50 guests following the ceremony. Miss Henrietta Saalfeld and Miss Virginia Meek served.

The large reception was held in the same hall during the
