

National Scout Aide Visits Here

Miss Teresa J. Carter of the Girl Scout national staff will be in the Santiam area from May 11 to 13, it is announced by Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Girl Scout president. While in this area Miss Carter will meet with the board of directors, the finance committee, and the staff and office committee. She also will consult with Community Chest officials.

As director of the finance and office service bureau of the national Girl Scout organization, Miss Carter is in close touch with Girl Scout councils throughout the nation, whom she assists in budgeting and fund raising, as well as in the mechanics of office management. She works closely with the Community Chests and councils, to which most Girl Scout councils belong. The Santiam area council is a member of the Salem Community Chest.

A former volunteer worker in Girl Scouting, Miss Carter has been associated with the movement in a professional capacity for many years. She was the first director of Girl Scouting in Region II, comprising New York, New Jersey, Puerto Rico and Canal Zone and was the first field adviser sent from the national Girl Scout organization to the Hawaiian Islands.

Miss Carter began her career in Girl Scouting as executive director of the Girl Scout council in New Rochelle, N.Y., her home city.

Widely travelled both in the United States and abroad, Miss Carter served as a lieutenant of the Red Cross ambulance corps during World War I. She is a graduate of the Ursuline seminary, New Rochelle, N.Y., and of Jenny Hunter training school in New York.
