Fighting Irishman Starts One-Man War on Russians

Vienna, May 5 (AP)—A fighting army Irishman who started a one-man war against Russia had a headache today. So did the U. S. army.

And eight Russian officers had sore jaws. There was an unhappy feeling that the man who writes Russia's notes of diplomatic protest would have writer's cramp before long, too.

Pfc. Edward J. Touhey, 19, of Howard Beach, Long Island, N.Y.—six feet three inches tall, 230 pounds and the alleged cause of it all—was under observation in a locked room at a Vienna army hospital.

Touhey, according to Provost Marshall Col. Willard K. Liebel, had been drinking "but not enough to cause all this disturbance."

Liebel didn't specify how much alcohol he thought it should have required yesterday to cause a man to:

Start fighting the sentry outside the Soviet-occupied Grand hotel in Vienna's international district.

Walk across the street to the swank Imperial hotel and slug a Russian officer standing there.

Enter the hotel and start swinging at the available supply of Russian officers. Some said the stockpile was eight, others said 12.

All agreed Touhey took them on one at a time. Eight went down.

As a grand finale he grabbed an iron chair and took out after a Russian colonel. Then American military police grabbed him.

Hubbard Tower Leans to Right

Hubbard, Ore., May 5 (AP)—Remember that earthquake which shook the northwest last month? Well, the city fathers of Hubbard brought in a Salem engineering firm to take a squint at Hubbard's 100-foot water tower to see what effect if any the tremor had on it. The engineers reported today that the 100-foot water tower is six inches out of plumb, and that's plumb serious. The slant is definitely to the north. The engineers aren't saying definitely that the leaning tower of Hubbard resulted from the earthquake. But they are making further inspections, from time to time, to determine whether or not the tower will go more radically off center.

Singing Group Gives Concert

Albany—Forest Grove's community singing group, The Gleemen, gave a concert Wednesday night before an Albany audience in a Kiwanis sponsored Memorial stadium benefit performance in the high school auditorium.

The 40-man group had agreed to sing in Albany at no cost, other than transportation expenses, Ralph Senders, chairman of the Kiwanis music committee reported.

June 10 was set as official "day's pay" drive of the Memorial stadium committee at a meeting of the Memorial stadium committee.

Finance Chairman Herb Smith told the group that the payroll drive chairmen, Guy Aupperle and Harold Agnew have already started to organize the drive. June 10, he said, would be the day when intensive solicitation of a day's pay from every working man in Albany would be held.

Art Elson, special coordinator for the stadium committee, reported that work was well underway on the baseball stand and on the grading of the baseball and football fields. Concrete has been poured on the footings for the stand, and should be completed in about two weeks.

Poet Laureate Weaker
Oxford, Eng., May 5 (AP)—Poet laureate John Masefield was reported "growing weaker" today, following an attack of influenza. The 70-year-old poet has been ill for two weeks.

Home Building Gains

Lebanon—Despite inclement weather, city home building headed the list of new construction in Lebanon for April, totaling $179,975. This is well above the $130,840 total for permits issued last month, and slightly above the April, 1948, figure of $169,120.
