

Ford Workers on Strike—Ford workers, members of the UAW-CIO, are shown milling about a gate at Ford's huge Rouge plant in Detroit, after a walkout of more than 60,000 auto workers. This is the second major strike in the history of the Ford Motor company. (AP Wirephoto)

Indian Students in Midst Of Commencement Activity

Students of the Salem Indian school at Chemawa are busy for a full week's program which includes the baccalaureate services Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock, annual awards program Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and the graduation program next Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Class night was observed Wednesday with the annual junior-senior prom last week. Other events were the senior breakfast, senior class night and "skip" day today with the class going to Newport.

Rev. Joseph J. Neuville, of Catholic Central high school, Portland, will give the baccalaureate address, having as his topic "Your Future with God and Country." Rev. Fr. Ervin Vandehey will give the invocation and Rev. Allen C. Wilcox the benediction. A solo will be given by Janice Rambeau with other musical numbers by the girls' chorus and the instrumental ensemble.

The graduation address May 13 will be given by Dr. Robert D. Gregg, dean of the college of liberal arts, Willamette university, titled "What Future for Democracy?" He will be introduced by R. M. Kelley, superintendent of the school, who also will award diplomas and certificates.

Giving the valedictory address will be Florence Ingawanup with Freda Bent and Victor Jackson the salutatory. The graduating class will be presented by Nell V. Brannon, principal with Rev. Wilcox offering invocation and Rev. Fr. Vandehey the benediction. Special musical Vernon A. Lane, Lummi, Bellingham, Wash.; Rena Phyllis Miller, Klamath, Chiloquin, Ore.; Jimmie J. Parker, Yakima, Wapato, Wash.; William N. Peplon (in absentia); Leora Marie Plummer, Blackfoot, Seattle; Delores Luana Racehorse, Shoshone-Bannock, Blackfoot, Ida.; and Alva Settler, Yakima, Wapato, Wash.

The word "solon" derives from an ancient Greek poet, philosopher and general, who as head of the city of Athens remodeled the government.
