

Army And Air Expo Coming

First of its kind in the United States is the outdoor army and air force exposition, which is to be held in Portland May 12-15.

In Portland on the opening day will be Gen. Mark W. Clark, commander of Sixth Army, who is to formally open the exhibit, site of which will be the Lloyd addition. It will be open daily to the public from 2 to 10 p. m.

Among the exhibits will be a mobile food service class room, a F51 fighter plane, quarter-master mobile exhibit, medical laboratory with X-ray equipment, dental laboratory, bridge models by the engineers, a chemical warfare display, educational display, recreational and athletic facilities, mobile radar warning set, signal corps equipment, chaplains exhibit and trophies won by the Second Division in World War I and II.

Sponsoring the exhibit is the Portland Military Manpower committee and among those serving on the committee working with the manpower committee are Maj. Gen. Albert E. Brown, commanding general of the Northern Military district; Maj. Gen. Harry J. Collins, commanding general at Fort Lewis; Maj. Gen. Thomas E. Rilea, Oregon adjutant general; and Lt. Col. Raymond M. Hay, commanding officer of the Oregon recruiting district and former commanding officer of the Salem recruiting station.

Linn Pasture Tours Set May 20 and 24

Lebanon, May 6—May 20 and 24 are dates selected for pasture and livestock tours in Linn county according to an announcement made by Jack Swanson, president of the Linn County Livestock association and O. E. Mikesell, county extension agent.

The May 20 tour will cover pastures and livestock in the Lebanon, Sweet Home, Foster and Crawfordsville areas. The May 24 tour is to be confined to Crabtree and Scio communities.

Cooperators in the tour are the Linn County Livestock association and the extension service. Many of the pastures to be viewed have been developed under the AAA program, says Mikesell.

Lions At Silverton Donate Park Work

Silverton, May 6—Around 40 members of the Lions club met at the city park Wednesday night and donated several hours of work repairing tables and benches, cleaning the grounds and making the favorite evening, day and holiday free resort for visitors and local people for the summer beginning season.

Hammers, saws, rakes and shovels blistered numerous willing hands and the park showed up in splendid shape from the efforts of the members. After the work hours the members went to the Double J restaurant for a dutch lunch.

Snow in Wyoming

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 6 (AP)—Snow, sleet and rain fell over Wyoming today in an early May storm.

At Rock Springs two inches of snow was reported. Big Piney and Lander reported a trace. Snow flurries, intermingled with sleet, took turns with the rain in the Cheyenne area.
