WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

Someplace back along the long line of their 43 years of existence May Week-end activities were dampened by our Oregon brand of April showers, but why history had to repeat itself this spring was unanswerable by Manager Bob McMullen and his committee. The bright starlit sky over the barbecue watchers who responded so well that no class was required to clean up following the lunch Friday, Thursday night gave a hopeful promise of beautiful weather over the week-end, but as Friday progressed hope diminished.

Miss Pearson Sings With Choir

Miss Pearson is a soprano.

The betrothal of Miss Pearson and Mr. Sater was announced during the past week at a social at Pacific college, Parkland, where both are students, the bride-to-be, a senior, and Mr. Sater, a junior. Their wedding planned for the summer of 1950.

Miss Pearson is to be house guest of her future parents-in-law at their country place during the two days' Luther league convention when the choral group will appear.

OREGON STATE COLLEGE

By MARILYN HILL

The finishing touch was added to the Mothers' Week-end plans today as the students eagerly await the arrival of mothers from all over Oregon and many out of state places. The schedule is filled to the brim with activities to give the mothers a real idea of what college life is like and what their offspring are going through.

Friday night the festivities will begin with the presentation of the modern dance recital "Salute to Rhythm." Sixty girls will take part in this exhibit which will climax the year's work. Also Friday evening the play, "Years Ago," will make its debut on the Oregon State stage. Both of these presentations will be given on Saturday night too.

On Saturday the college will show off the various buildings to the visitors. During this open house the new dormitory, Sackett hall, will be open for the inspection of the mothers. At 1 the annual statewide meeting of the OSC Mothers' club will be held in the Memorial Union. This club now has a membership of 3,542 women. In the afternoon a musical show featuring the OSC band, the winners of the inter-fraternity sing, and a group of feature numbers. Fingers are being crossed hoping that the weather man will co-operate with the week-end plans.

Following the musical, an outdoor tea is scheduled for lower campus. Banquets will be held in the Memorial Union and in the various living groups Saturday evening.

Last Friday night students were thrilled by the inspiring inter-fraternity sing. Groups of 25 men from 17 fraternities showed the results of their arduous practice in the excellence of the singing they presented. Last year's winners—Beta Theta Pi—were edged out by the men of Sigma Phi Epsilon. No one was envious of the judging staff, who really had a close decision to make. The Sig Eps' winning songs were written by their song leader, Jerry Bowder, and were sung beautifully by the group.

Something really new and startling was announced to the seniors last week. Three separate graduations will be held this year. A record number of 1541 will receive degrees this year, of which 453 are from the engineering department. The engineers will hold their own graduation Sunday, June 5, at 8. The rest of the schools will be divided and will graduate on the next day at 10 and 2:30.

Oregon State's new end coach, "Bump" Elliott, has recently returned to the campus with his bride, Peggy Lee Conrad. . . . much to the heartbreak of many a coed.

Several musical numbers have been arranged, including a piano trio by Sharon Heider, Carol Hilfiker and Marilyn Lorenz, and violin numbers by Philip Blankenship.

Bourne, Mrs. Elmer Boyer, Mrs. Archie Brewster, Mrs. Clifford Ellis, Mrs. Charles McCabe, Mrs. L. T. Johnson, Mrs. Gail Jones, Mrs. George Nopp and Mrs. Herman Refuss.

At the weekly day for the Salem Women's Golf association, Wednesday, Mrs. John Heltzel won in class A, Mrs. Reynolds Allen for class B and Mrs. Frank Gauger for class C.

PLANNING to be in Eugene this week-end will be Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk, who will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Russell, former Salem residents. Mrs. Kirk as a member of the state board of the University of Oregon Mothers' clubs also will attend a meeting of the mothers Saturday at the University of Oregon.

GUESTS of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Healy for the Tillamuc dance Saturday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Gene Rossman of Portland.
