

Installation For DAR

Election and installation of officers took place Saturday at the May meeting of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the home of Mrs. E. A. Jory.

Mrs. W. B. Johnston, chaplain, installed the following officers: Mrs. Ruth Herndon, regent; Miss Edna Mingus, vice regent; Mrs. E. E. Bergman, chaplain; Mrs. M. A. Pekar, recording secretary; Mrs. Leonard Kephart, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Black, treasurer; Mrs. D. H. Looney, registrar; Mrs. Herbert Ostlund, historian; Miss Helen Litchfield, librarian; Mrs. Edward West, musician; Mrs. C. E. Roblin, Miss Ruth Rullison, Mrs. L. C. McLeod, retiring regent, directors.

For the program, Saturday, presented by Mrs. Edwin Keech, Miss Dorothy Pederson played piano numbers and Miss Marilyn Broer, numbers on the flute. Mrs. Herndon read a paper on music, written by Mrs. C. C. Best.

Two of the good citizenship pilgrimage girls were guests, Miss Leah Case of Salem high school and Miss Yvonne Rosenau of Jefferson high school. They were given their pilgrimage pins.

Tea was served following the meeting.

Next event for the DAR will be a no-host luncheon on June 4 at the home of Mrs. Keech.

TO MR. AND MRS. Rollin Haag go congratulations upon the birth of a son, Chris Douglas Haag, Sunday, May 8, at Salem Memorial hospital. Grandparents of the little boy are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Haag and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Berwick, all of Salem.

200 at Dinner Honoring Mothers

The annual mother-daughter banquet was held in the dining room of the First Christian church on Friday with 200 mothers and daughters served. The men of the church served the meal and washed the dishes afterward.

The theme of the banquet was "the rainbow" and the tables were beautifully decorated with small rainbows and bouquets of assorted colored flowers. The programs, also, were made up to represent the rainbow colors and had pots of gold on them.

Mrs. Leslie Carson of Forest Grove was the toastmistress and Miss Louise Campbell, also of Forest Grove, a missionary to India, was the speaker and gave an interesting talk on life in India.

The program was opened by singing the doxology, led by Mrs. Walter Naff, followed by a prayer by Mrs. Dudley Strain. Mrs. Lester Hagen sang two songs, "Over the Rainbow" and "Mother." Karen Thomas gave the tribute to mothers and Mrs. Fred Roberts gave the response. A duet was sung by Mrs. Zina Sharpnack and her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Cracroft. The benediction was given by Mrs. Paul Holloway.

Supper Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Borkman were hosts Sunday evening at a buffet supper at their Donna avenue home. Cards were played during the evening.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ragan, Mrs. Elizabeth Fuller.

Wed Recently — A recent bride is Mrs. Ernest Kreft, the former Mary Zenger, the wedding being April 23 in St. Vincent de Paul church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Zenger and Mr. Ernest Kreft. (McEwan studio picture)

Club Installation

Salem Heights—Mrs. Lyle Bayne was installed as president of the Salem Heights Woman's club Friday, at the home of Mrs. Homer McWain on Fairview ave. A no-host luncheon was served.

Other officers installed were: vice-president, Mrs. Leslie Bates; secretary, Mrs. Fred Browning; and treasurer, Mrs. William Gardner, with Mrs. Ed A. Carleton, past president, as the installing officer.

The club voted to enter the project of the National Federation of Woman's clubs "Build a Better Community" contest. The club will take as its part improving the interior and the grounds of the community hall. Members gave their ideas on the program for the following year, and executive board will meet during the summer to complete the program. The committee reported on the federation meeting at Macleay.

The program was put on by members of the Salem high school. A piano solo by Dorothy Pederson, flute solo, Marilyn Broer, a clarinet quartet by Leona Todd, Dorothy Govig, Darlene Engdahl, and Alyce Lehman. The club voted $5.00 to the Salem high school band to help send it to Klamath Falls.

MEMBERS of the auxiliary, Unit No. 136, American Legion, will meet this evening at the Salem Woman's club to nominate officers.

NOW . . . wear the filmy nylons you love with a more carefree spirit. Round-the-Clock pioneers again with a marvelous new hosiery finish that brings you greater protection than was ever before possible, against snags, the chief cause of runs. This finish seals and smooths each tiny fiber, protects the fabric, makes it beautifully dull in appearance yet faultlessly clear in color. Of course, Round-the-Clock does not claim these super-sheer, 15-denier nylons—even with the remarkable snag resistance finish—will wear as long as heavier 30-denier nylons. But Round-the-Clock does claim that these are the most snag resistant 15-denier stockings available, so naturally they will give better wear. These are the stockings that are famous for individual fit for every leg type. For complete hosiery beauty and new wear satisfaction try Round-the-Clock now in one of the lovely new shades.
