Rev. A. J. Long, of South-west Unitarian church, wrote in his church magazine: "The sultan of Morocco told Virginia Mayo, a beautiful American film star, that she was for him the most striking proof of God's existence."

"Why not?" "The beauty of woman is a revelation of God to man."

Rev. Mr. Long, 29, is a bachelor. In Hollywood Miss Mayo, wife of Actor Michael O'Shea, said, "I must say they are both very complimentary."

"It seems to me there are many other ways for proving God's existence, but it is most complimentary," she added, "I am very grateful to the minister for his comment."

Miss Mayo said that some time ago she received a letter from the sultan of Morocco, whom she has never met personally.

"I had to have it translated at the studio and it was a beautiful letter... beautifully written," she said.

Youth Held for Girl's Murder

Roanoke, Va., May 11 (AP)—Lee Scott, 16-year-old Eagle Scout and church choir member, today faces a charge of murder for the church slaying of Dana Marie Weaver, 16-year-old schoolmate.

Detective Capt. Frank H. Webb, in an unprecedented press conference last night, announced simply that Scott had been charged in a warrant signed by Police Judge S. R. Price.

"That is all that I can give you at this time," Webb said. He added that the case was "one of the worst since I have been in the department."

Webb, however, did tell reporters that Scott had directed police to an alley where a coffee sack missing from the coffee sack was found. He said Scott also told them where he could find his clothing, which police later found darkly stained. They believed the stains are blood. A broken pop bottle was found in the coffee sack.

Dana Marie's body was found Monday morning by the janitor of Christ Episcopal church in the church kitchen. There were signs of a desperate struggle by the girl. Her fingernails were broken and two pop bottles, one of them smashed, were on the floor.

Police said the girl apparently had been clubbed to death with a bottle.

She had gone to the church Sunday evening to join a young people's group, unaware that the group was on a picnic.

Scott sang in the choir of the church where the murder took place and was said to have a perfect attendance record.

Australia, which has a land area comparable to that of the United States, has a population of about 7,000,000 people.
