ITTEGUIGHTY New York, May 11 (\mathcal{P} — A brief flurry of buying gave the stock market a lift today but there was no follow-through to the demand. Turnover was at the rate of around 800.000 shares for the full session. Motive power for the short-lived rally developed in the steel group, recently under pres-sure because of prospects of a reduction in production scheme ules in the industry later this year. Higher prices were paid for U.S. Steel, Bethlehem and Republic. Also higher a good part of the day were Chrysler, Stude-baker, U.S. Rubber, Sears Roe-buck, Woolworth, American Cyanamid (at a 1949 high), Western Union, Great Northern preferred, and preferred and Standard Oil (N.1). Discolution of the Turner-
