Crawfish Feed

Silverton — At the regular meeting of Delbert Reeves post No. 7, American Legion, C. E. Higginbotham, commander, the members were told by the chairman, Fred Evans, of the Friday, May 13, band uniform benefit dance to be at the armory. Local orchestra members will furnish the music for dancing, and an intermission brief band concert directed by Justin L. Dyrud, head of the school music department.

Roy Davenport reported the junior baseball project was coming along fine and the players were beginning to make a good showing in their workouts.

Wesley Grogan, chairman, reported progress on plans for the annual Memorial day program. George Manolis, general chairman of the crawfish feed, assisted by Al Pearson, announced the date of the feed to be held the evening of June 4, to be held at the armory. Assisting the chairman, named by the com-

SUPERB HAND TAILORING

- ★ SEE COLLAR
The trim Town Clad collar line is designed to hug your neck naturally. Careful hand shaping and skilled hand needlework mold it to fit neatly without riding up or bunching.
- ★ SEE SHOULDERS
Every one is hand set and basted to give you a casual, easy fit that lets you m-o-v-e! The armholes are taped to hold their comfortable shape. The hand worked sleeves fall into a clean, simple, roll that denotes excellent quality.
- ★ SEE LAPELS
The careful hand tailoring that goes into every Town Clad suit reaches a high in the broad, draping lapels. They're hand taped along the roll and interlined to hold those trim lines!
- ★ SEE HYMO FRONT
This is the resilient pre-shrunk hair canvas body of the suit jacket. It forms a springy frame that holds the clean cut lines of your Town Clad as long as the suit lasts. Rows and rows of stitching, and reinforcing pre-shrunk felt, prevent bulging or puckers.
- ★ SEE FABRIC
We use only carefully matched 13-13½ ounce all wool worsted fabrics! That's quality usually found in more expensive suits. Nobody else insists on such uniformly high quality in fabrics and workmanship. That's why every Town Clad is a terrific buy — always!
