Chicken or Pheasant—Which?

Centralia (P)—Do you prefer chicken or pheasant? Or would you like a little of both off the same bird?

In spite of the fact scientists in the field of genetics said it couldn't be done, James H. Knowles of Centralia and associated breeders—after 15 years of effort—claims to have crossed Chinese and Mongolian pheasants with Cornish and New Hampshire chickens. He calls the results "northwesters." They are broad-breasted, with thick drumsticks, providing—Knowles says—more white meat and better eating.

The northwestern has from eight to 15 per cent more meat on the carcass, he claims, and the fine-grained meat retains "just the right touch of the game flavor." The first chicks from the fifth cross were hatched in 1945, and by the following spring about 500 chicks were being produced weekly, which were placed in commercial broiler plants and given to local FFA members for further development.

Knowles says a substantial market for the northwesterns has been established.

Peterson to Preach

Lyons — Ernest W. Peterson of Portland will be the guest speaker at the Lyons Methodist Community church Sunday at 11 o'clock. Following the services there will be a potluck dinner and discussion of the church problems. All members of the church and friends of the community are invited, and urged to be present.

Junior Garden Club Formed at Dayton

Dayton—The Dayton Garden club met with Mrs. Marlam Kraie with Mrs. Bertha Ewing as co-hostess. Mrs. Ray Sion reported on the Junior Garden club, which was recently organized. There are nine youngsters signed up and a promise of several more by the next meeting. At the first meeting Roberta Stilwell was elected president and Shirley Smith secretary.

The club will go on an iris garden ramble in Salem Monday, May 16, leaving the Dayton appliance store at 10 o'clock, daylight time. Mrs. R. Iph Abdill became a new member.
