Salem Couple Wed in South

From California comes word of the marriage of Miss Dolores Jackman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Jackman of this city, to Private Harold Larkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Larkins, also of Salem.

The marriage was solemnized in a candlelight service at the 22nd Infantry chapel at Fort Ord, Calif., May 9, at 7 o'clock in the evening, Chaplain Clarence H. Lund officiating. The double-ring ceremony was used, the service taking place before an altar banded with lavender ribbons, pink roses and white mapdragons.

The bride wore a white taffeta dress with Kelly green accessories and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Sam Saunders of Salem was matron of honor. She wore a dressmaker suit of black with pink accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Sgt. 1c Marvin E. Larkins of Fort Ord was best man for his brother.

The bridegroom's parents, accompanied by Miss Clara Larkins, Mrs. Sam's Saunders and daughter, Judith, all of Salem, went south for the wedding. For the wedding, Mrs. Larkins wore an aqua suit with brown accessories and corsage of orchids.

A small reception followed at the home of Sgt. 1c and Mrs. Marvin E. Larkins, members of the immediate family and a few friends attending.

Both of the bridal couple were graduated from Salem high school with the class of 1948.

Newly Formed Club Reports Meeting

Silverton—The most recently organized Women's club in Marion county, the Abiqua Ladies' Social club, met at the home of Mrs. Elenore Kauf, Tuesday, for a no-host dinner at noon, with fifteen members present.

Mrs. Esther Barnett was admitted as a new member. An informal program of music, vocal and instrumental, and visiting were enjoyed during the afternoon. Mrs. Ben Butler was the entertainment chairman for the day.

During the afternoon the group drove to the historic spot on the Abiqua Cliff where the monument in memorial to the defenders of their homes against the Indians is located. Pictures were taken of the group and officers.

The June 14 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Jacobson for an outdoor picnic in the Jacobson gardens. Planning the entertainment for the day will be Mrs. Margaret Shepherd, Mrs. Helen McKillop and Mrs. William Rue.

Through the efforts of the recently elected president, Mrs. Rue, the club was organized in January of this year.

Campus Clippings UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Oregon's 59th Junior Week-end "1001 Nights" commenced with an unprecedented crowning of two queens at the "Songs of Scherezade," all-campus sing, Friday evening. The two queenly coeds smiled happily as they received their royal crowns from the mayor of Eugene, then they ascended the purple carpeted steps, along with the three Junior Week-end princesses, to their thrones, where they watched Sigma Phi Epsilon and Alpha Phi present winning "Songs of Scherezade." Fran Mahala, Jim Gilbertson, Bob Zeller and Hugh Byrkit are members of the Sig Ep fraternity who received the winning trophy at the song contest, as well as first place in the float parade with an "Arabian Night-mare" float. Contralto Elizabeth Nelson presented several vocal selections during the inter mission of the coronation ceremonies and campus sing. Elizabeth was selected the star performer in the vaudeville show that was presented in McArthur Court last month. At the mothers' meeting on Saturday morning two Salem ladies were elected to executive positions with University of Oregon month's club. Mrs. George H. Swift was elected state president of the group and Mrs. Robert M. Fitzmaurice was selected secretary.

The members of Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary tapped Beta Theta Pi Don Pickett and Pi Kappa Alpha Beldon Owens as new members of their organization at the picnic Saturday noon, and the week-end festivities were brought to a royal close at the Junior Prom on Saturday evening, and the Sunlight Serenade Sunday evening when the winners of the song contest presented their songs and other entertainment was presented for the visiting mothers and members of the court.

Sigma Delta Chi and Theta Sigma Phi, professional journalism fraternities, have sent
