

A DOING her name to the group of June brides-to-be is Miss June Acton, who has announced her wedding, June 17 as date for her marriage to Don Preis.

The ceremony will be an evening one at 8:30 o'clock in the First Methodist church. The reception following also will be at the church.

The engagement of the couple was announced this past winter. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Acton, Mr. Preis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Preis of Vancouver, Washington.

By Marian Lowry Fischer

OF INTEREST to many friends is announcement by Robert D. Paris of the engagement and approaching marriage of his daughter, Miss Frances M. Paris, now of San Francisco, to Tomie Clarence Brooks, formerly of Rainier, Ore., and now in San Francisco. The wedding is planned for noon, Friday, May 27, in St. Mary's Catholic cathedral, San Francisco. The couple plan a trip to Carmel following the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Paris are going south for the wedding, planning to drive.

Miss Paris served in the WAVES during the war. She attended St. Helen's hall in Portland and later University of Wisconsin. Mr. Brooks formerly was instructor in the Portland high school and now has a position in San Francisco where the couple will make their home.

Visitors here this week have been Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Cross and two sons, Curtis and Stewart, who have been in Miami, Fla., and elsewhere. They have been guests at the home of Mr. Cross, in the Port of Call, and later at the home of Mrs. Frank Cross. They plan to make their home on the west coast and left this morning for Walnut Creek, Calif.

Last evening, the visitors were honored at a dinner given by a group of local friends at the American Legion club.

Tummy Meisel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meisel, observed his third birthday today and in observance of the event was honored at a party for a group of eight of his young friends this afternoon at the Helzoi home.

From San Jose, Calif., comes word of the birth of a daughter Thursday, May 12, to Mr. and Mrs. Allen T. Gilliland and a daughter, Miss Patricia Gilliland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilliland are Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. T. Gilliland of San Jose.

Annual spring breakfast for Delta Gamma sorority at Willamette university will be held at 9 o'clock in the gardens at the sorority.

Among committee members working on the event are: Miss Betty Mace, Miss Gloria Stone, Miss Nancy Vandelay, Miss Patsy Older, Miss Doris McCain, Miss Joan Kinnard, Miss Doris Miller, Miss Lois Len, Miss Pat Holtz, Miss Nancy Whitmore, Miss Patricia Long, Miss Anne Miller, Miss Patricia Long, Miss Anne Swanson, Miss Patsy O'Hanrahan.

Traditionally the event is planned as a special setting for any announcements of engagements or wedding dates by chapter members.

Sigma Kappa alumnae are to meet Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Stuart H. Compton, 414 E. 10th St., Mrs. Leon Keverit assisting. The meeting is at 8 o'clock.

Hosts last evening to their card group were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley. Dinner was enjoyed at the Legion club, cards following at the Cooley home. Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Needham were invited as additional guests.

Club's Dance

A dancing party for next Saturday evening, May 21, will be that of the Town club, the event to be a dinner dance at the Marion hotel at 9 o'clock. This is the final regular dance on the club's schedule, although a dividend party is planned for some time in June.

On the committee of hosts are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Busick, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph, and Mrs. Robert Drage.

The decorating committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Herman Joehusson, Mr. and Mrs. T. Harold Tomlinson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hittler.

Expected home Monday evening from several weeks in the east is Mrs. Cedric T. Reaney. She went to Miami via New Orleans, and then to Hollywood hotel near Miami for the convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. Reaney is retiring president of the Salem Junior Woman's club. Following the convention, Mrs. Reaney went to other places in Florida, a short trip to Havana, then went on to New Jersey and to New York City. She is flying home.

PLANS SUNDAY WEDDING

A wedding for Sunday afternoon, May 32, will be that of Miss Sally Cornelius and Clifton Reop, the ceremony to be solemnized at 3 o'clock in the First Christian church, the Rev. Dudley Strain officiating.

Miss Betty Peilen and Donald Strain are to attend the couple.

The reception following will be at the Cornelius home.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Cornelius of Salem. Reop is the son of John Reop of Station, Kels. Both young people were graduated from Salem high school.

THE fifth anniversary for Beta Chi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega sorority at Willamette university will be observed Sunday afternoon with a semi-formal banquet at the Senator hotel.

Salem alumnae of the chapter will join with the active chapter for the event, some 100 expected to attend.

Miss Betty Ferguson, chapter president, will preside.

Of interest to friends in the capital is announcement of the engagement of Miss Elea Scott Keeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Edgar Keeney and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie M. Scott, to John Leiter Newell, son of Mrs. Gilbert James Newell and the late Mr. Newell.

The betrothal was announced this week at a fireside in the Alpha Phi sorority at University of Oregon. Both young people are juniors at the university and Mr. Newell is affiliated with Beta Theta Pi fraternity on the campus. No date is announced for the wedding.

Seniors of the active chapter at Willamette university will be guests when the Alpha Chi Omega alumnae meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. John D. Minto. Dessert will be at 7:30 o'clock. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Minto are Mrs. George Seymour, Mrs. George Fell, Mrs. Vernon Gilmore, Mrs. Mary Thomas.

Mrs. Ward Davis is to be hostess to her bridegroom next Thursday, the members meeting for luncheon and cards.

Mrs. Brazier Small and daughter, Miss Suzanne Small, will be hostesses at their home for the meeting of Kappa Kappa Gamma alumnae Monday evening, the group to meet for a no-host supper. Mrs. Robert Drager and Mrs. Roger Schenell are on the committee to make arrangements for the meeting, which is to be the final one of the season for the group.

Mrs. Daniel J. Fry is to talk to the group informally on her recent African trip.

Klotka club is meeting Tuesday for dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. P. E. Graber, 802 North Church, at 1:15 o'clock. Mrs. W. E. Hansen, Mrs. A. A. Estes and Mrs. D. B. Kleiberg are co-hostesses. There will be a program and election of officers.

WEDDING ON MAY 27

A wedding of late May will be that of Miss Barbara Robinson and Stanley Ryals.

The ceremony is to be solemnized the evening of Friday, May 27, in the First Congregational church at 8 o'clock. The reception following is to be at the Chi Omega sorority.

Miss Robinson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Robinson of Gooding, Idaho, is expected to arrive here next Friday. She is a former student at Willamette university and a member of Chi Omega.

Mr. Ryals is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Ryals of Salem and a graduate of Willamette where he is a member of Beta Theta Pi, Blue Key and Alpha Phi Omega. The couple plan to go to New York City in June. Mr. Ryals is attending this investment banking school there.

Sororist club members will gather for a dinner meeting next Wednesday evening at Silver Creek Falls lodge, this being the month's social meeting.

Several members of the Salem General Hospital auxiliary went last week to look over equipment purchased by the group for the benefit of the hospital and to outline plans for the coming year's projects.

In the picture at left above three of the members look at the blood bank refrigerator which the auxiliary purchased for the hospital. This blood bank was secured after the new blood program of the American Red Cross went into effect. Through this program blood is given free to all in need of it. No charge is made to the blood bank, the only charge to the patient being the administrative one at the hospital.

In the picture, left to right, are: Miss Lillian McDonald, superintendent of the hospital, explaining the blood bank refrigerator which the auxiliary purchased for the hospital. This blood bank was secured after the new blood program of the American Red Cross went into effect. Through this program blood is given free to all in need of it. No charge is made to the blood bank, the only charge to the patient being the administrative one at the hospital.

In the picture, left to right, are: Miss Lillian McDonald, superintendent of the hospital, explaining the blood bank refrigerator which the auxiliary purchased for the hospital. This blood bank was secured after the new blood program of the American Red Cross went into effect. Through this program blood is given free to all in need of it. No charge is made to the blood bank, the only charge to the patient being the administrative one at the hospital.

In the picture, left to right, are: Miss Lillian McDonald, superintendent of the hospital, explaining the blood bank refrigerator which the auxiliary purchased for the hospital. This blood bank was secured after the new blood program of the American Red Cross went into effect. Through this program blood is given free to all in need of it. No charge is made to the blood bank, the only charge to the patient being the administrative one at the hospital.

In the picture, left to right, are: Miss Lillian McDonald, superintendent of the hospital, explaining the blood bank refrigerator which the auxiliary purchased for the hospital. This blood bank was secured after the new blood program of the American Red Cross went into effect. Through this program blood is given free to all in need of it. No charge is made to the blood bank, the only charge to the patient being the administrative one at the hospital.

In the picture, left to right, are: Miss Lillian McDonald, superintendent of the hospital, explaining the blood bank refrigerator which the auxiliary purchased for the hospital. This blood bank was secured after the new blood program of the American Red Cross went into effect. Through this program blood is given free to all in need of it. No charge is made to the blood bank, the only charge to the patient being the administrative one at the hospital.

A DAY at the beach is to be enjoyed by the board of officers for the Women of Rotary. Monday, the group is to go to the beach home of Mrs. Floyd Bressler, Vista Haven, just south of Dorchester House. The group will leave early in the morning and have their lunch at the Bressler home and their meeting, the last of the year for the board.

In the group are Mrs. Abner K. Kline, president of the Women of Rotary; Mrs. Harry B. Johnson, Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, Mrs. Bressler, Mrs. Charles Fowling, Mrs. Lawrence A. Ballmer, Mrs. L. O. Aren, Mrs. J. L. Franzen, Mrs. Clay Cochran.

Will Attend Tea

Several Salem folk will be going to the garden silver tea planned for Wednesday afternoon by the Tigard-Metzger unit of the Republican Women's Federation of Oregon.

Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, is guest of honor for the tea. The affair is being given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Foskett, Bend road, a mile south of Tigard, between 2 and 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Mrs. Robert L. Eldstrom of Salem will be among those pouring at the affair.

A group of friends accompanying Mrs. McKay to the tea will include Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Mrs. Dorahtha Steudloff, Mrs. E. M. Paine, Mrs. Charles McElhinny, Mrs. William S. Cole.

Others expected to attend from here, representing the local unit of the Republican Women's Federation of Oregon, are:

Mrs. R. L. Wright, local president; Mrs. Lloyd DeGroot, Miss Marjorie Harris, Miss Elizabeth Porter, Mrs. M. M. Magee, Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, Mrs. Lewis Judson, Mrs. O. K. Beal, Mrs. Claude Johns.

Several state officials in the federation from Portland and elsewhere also will be at the event.

Miss Margaret Hogg will present Kathryn Smith, nine-year-old pianist, to recital Sunday at 3 o'clock at 158 South Liberty street. Assisting will be Mari-gene Halvorsen, nine-year-old violin student of Victor Palmason, and Mrs. Palmason as accompanist.

Announced recently at the Alpha Chi Omega sorority on Willamette university campus was the date for the marriage of Miss Barbara Nelson of Portland to Richard Hartley of Silverton.

Will Attend Tea

Several Salem folk will be going to the garden silver tea planned for Wednesday afternoon by the Tigard-Metzger unit of the Republican Women's Federation of Oregon.

Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, is guest of honor for the tea. The affair is being given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Foskett, Bend road, a mile south of Tigard, between 2 and 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles A. Sprague and Mrs. Robert L. Eldstrom of Salem will be among those pouring at the affair.

A group of friends accompanying Mrs. McKay to the tea will include Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Mrs. Dorahtha Steudloff, Mrs. E. M. Paine, Mrs. Charles McElhinny, Mrs. William S. Cole.

Others expected to attend from here, representing the local unit of the Republican Women's Federation of Oregon, are:

Mrs. R. L. Wright, local president; Mrs. Lloyd DeGroot, Miss Marjorie Harris, Miss Elizabeth Porter, Mrs. M. M. Magee, Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, Mrs. Lewis Judson, Mrs. O. K. Beal, Mrs. Claude Johns.

Several state officials in the federation from Portland and elsewhere also will be at the event.

Miss Margaret Hogg will present Kathryn Smith, nine-year-old pianist, to recital Sunday at 3 o'clock at 158 South Liberty street. Assisting will be Mari-gene Halvorsen, nine-year-old violin student of Victor Palmason, and Mrs. Palmason as accompanist.

Announced recently at the Alpha Chi Omega sorority on Willamette university campus was the date for the marriage of Miss Barbara Nelson of Portland to Richard Hartley of Silverton.

The wedding is to be solemnized the evening of Friday, May 27, in the First Congregational church at 8 o'clock. The reception following is to be at the Chi Omega sorority.

Miss Robinson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Robinson of Gooding, Idaho, is expected to arrive here next Friday. She is a former student at Willamette university and a member of Chi Omega.

Mu Phi Epsilon Members Will Sponsor Program and Tea on Sunday Afternoon

ON THE BRIDGE at the edge of the beautiful gardens of the Burlingham home are these Mu Phi Epsilon members who are helping with plans for the recital and tea, left to right: Miss Joy Bushnell, Miss Lois Gelwald, Miss Martha Beard, Miss Pauline Bristin, Miss Edith Fairham and Miss Bernice Isaham. Members of the society are soloists for the recital. Proceeds of the tea go to Gade Hill, a school in Chicago assisted by Mu Phi Epsilon nationally. (Jesten-Miller picture)

Golf Event Sunday Afternoon

First two-ball foursome event at the Salem Golf club is planned for tomorrow, play to be at 1 o'clock, the dinner at 6:30 o'clock in the evening—and the group is most hopeful the summer weather continues through the day in order to assure a big turnout for the event.

Among those making reservations, either for golf or the dinner, are:

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wicklund, Dr. and Mrs. John R. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hendrie, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mr. and Mrs. Max Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Marble, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Pekar, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roth, Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaler, Mr. and Mrs. Ted McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Theis, Mr. and Mrs. Al Loucke, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCargar, Mr. and Mrs. William Waterman, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bernard, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Four-

From Sherman Oaks, Calif., comes news of the birth of a son, James Montgomery, to Mr. and Mrs. Virgil L. Harrison. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harrison of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dahlburg of Portland.

The customary women's golf day will be Wednesday at the Salem Golf club, play to be at 9 a.m., luncheon at 1:30 o'clock.

This is the diamond jubilee year for the Women's Christian Temperance Union and Salem Central union is observing the occasion with a silver tea on Tuesday, May 17, at the home of Mrs. Herman Laiky, 610 N. 15th St., between 2 and 3 p.m. Mrs. William B. Schenley from the Children's Farm home is to be guest speaker and Mrs. Carrie Chase will give readings. Interested friends and the public are invited.

The literature and poetry group of the Salem Woman's club has its program arranged for Tuesday afternoon. The group will meet at the club house for coffee at 1:30 o'clock. At 2 o'clock, the program will be given, Miss Mabel P. Robertson to talk on England where she toured last summer.

The afternoon session will take up at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Julius Pincus is to lead devotions. Mrs. A. A. Schramm is chairman for the program on a study of Korea. Mrs. Doris Lee Cookney is to sing.

New officers will be installed, Mrs. E. L. Fulton, Springfield, newly named WSCS conference president, to officiate.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Fleck of Seattle left Friday following two days visit at the home of Mrs. Fleck's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Harvey, Jr.

McKinley School Mothers' club is meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the school building, secretary, Mrs. John Olson; publicity, Mrs. Michael Panek; window display, Mrs. L. A. Lucas; outside concert, Mrs. Frank Marshall; worker's luncheon, Mrs. Edward Stout; radio, Mrs. E. W. Riskey; committee at large Mrs. I. N. Bacon, Mrs. Helen McLeod, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron; Mrs. Don Apperson, Mrs. Clara Poland, and Mrs. Merle Travis.

ON THE BRIDGE at the edge of the beautiful gardens of the Burlingham home are these Mu Phi Epsilon members who are helping with plans for the recital and tea, left to right: Miss Joy Bushnell, Miss Lois Gelwald, Miss Martha Beard, Miss Pauline Bristin, Miss Edith Fairham and Miss Bernice Isaham. Members of the society are soloists for the recital. Proceeds of the tea go to Gade Hill, a school in Chicago assisted by Mu Phi Epsilon nationally. (Jesten-Miller picture)

Recital, Tea Due

An event attracting a large group Sunday afternoon will be the spring recital and silver tea to be given by members of Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honor society.

The recital will be at 3 o'clock in Walker hall, soloists for the event to be Miss Gloria Stone, Miss Edith Fairham, Miss Jean Rickli, Miss Joy Bushnell, all singing. Miss Betty Kuhlman and Bennett Ludden to play a violin and piano number.

The silver tea following will be at the home and beautiful gardens of Mrs. Frank Burlingham, North 14th between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock.

Patronesses assisting with the tea include Mrs. Burlingham, Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, Mrs. Melvin H. Geist, Mrs. C. Herbert Smith, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, Miss Olive M. Dahl, Mrs. Ellwood Ball, Mrs. David Easton, Mrs. Keith Powell, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague.

Pouring will be Mrs. Ralph Dobbs, Mrs. Frank Fisher, Mrs. Melvin H. Geist, Mrs. Ellwood Ball, members of the Willamette active chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon will assist with the serving.

White Shrine of Jerusalem is to hold its regular meeting Monday at the Masonic temple at 8 o'clock. A report will be given on the supreme Shrine.

Alpha Xi Delta alumnae are to be guests of Mrs. William D. Galloway, Jr., 905 Leslie street, for a meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Fleck of Seattle left Friday following two days visit at the home of Mrs. Fleck's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Harvey, Jr.

McKinley School Mothers' club is meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the school building, secretary, Mrs. John Olson; publicity, Mrs. Michael Panek; window display, Mrs. L. A. Lucas; outside concert, Mrs. Frank Marshall; worker's luncheon, Mrs. Edward Stout; radio, Mrs. E. W. Riskey; committee at large Mrs. I. N. Bacon, Mrs. Helen McLeod, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron; Mrs. Don Apperson, Mrs. Clara Poland, and Mrs. Merle Travis.

Meeting Thursday with Mrs. Lewis were the following captains who completed plans for the sale: Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Stuart Johns, Mrs. O. E. Palmater, Mrs. Frank Marshall, Mrs. B. W. Stacey, Mrs. Paul Fieker, Mrs. Michael Panek, Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, Mrs. H. H. Henry, Mrs. Silas Gaiser, and Mrs. Hattie Cook. Mrs. Sam Harrison, poppy chairman for Salem unit 136 met with the group.

Calendared for Monday evening is the eighth annual installation for the Salem Rotana club.

A formal dinner is planned for 7 o'clock in Noblger's restaurant. Mrs. Sylvia W. Riggs of Portland, who has installed local officers each year since the club was formed, has been invited to officiate again. There also will be a musical program.

On the committee for the evening are: Mrs. Lester Thomas, Mrs. Floyd Mathews, Mrs. S. L. Auman, Mrs. Chester Pickens.

The new officers to be installed include: Miss Lorena Jack, president; Mrs. Alfred Lutz, first vice president; Mrs. Enzo Nelson, second vice president; Mrs. Fannie Douglas, secretary; Mrs. S. L. Auman, treasurer; Mrs. Jack Brown, board member.

About 100 attended the mother and daughter banquet of the Englewood church Thursday, in the church recreation rooms. Mrs. Ben Koh was the guest speaker of the evening. She was dressed in a Korean costume and gave a very interesting talk about the women of Korea and some of the marriage customs in that country.

Mrs. Harold Douvis was the chairman of the program and also the toastmistress. Giving the toast to the mothers was Miss Clara Martin and the toast to the daughters was given by Mrs. Floyd Query. A group of the junior high girls of the church gave a short play and group singing was enjoyed. The color theme of orchid and white was carried out on the tables with flowers, candles and crepe paper. The menu of the church served as the kitchen committee.

The Salem Ministers' Wife's group is to meet Tuesday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Louis Kirby, 800 Jefferson street, for a no-host luncheon. On the program following, Mrs. Lloyd T. Anderson is to lead devotions and Mrs. W. S. Ankeny is to review "The Years of the Locust," by Erdman.

FINAL MEETING of the year for St. Anne's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will be Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the West Leslie street home of Mrs. Charles D. Wood.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mrs. Philip W. Allison, Mrs. William Busick, Mrs. Breyman Baise, Mrs. Carl E. Nelson, Mrs. Donald A. Young.

New officers will be elected at the business session, Mrs. Charles Clarke has served as president this year.

BANQUET, BREAKFAST SET

Highlighting the annual state convention of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, now in session in Salem, will be the banquet this evening honoring Justice Sarah T. Hughes of Dallas, Texas, national first vice president.

Because of accommodations, the dinner is being given in two places, at the Marion hotel and at the American Legion club, at 6:15 o'clock. Mrs. Marion F. Woodson, Mrs. Claude Jorgensen are co-chairmen for the banquet.

A 8 o'clock the two groups will assemble at the armory for the reception and the talk to be given by Justice Hughes, who is the official representative from the national organization at the convention.

Breakfast Tomorrow

Winding up the convention will be the breakfast Sunday morning at 8:45 o'clock in the Marion hotel, honoring past state presidents.

New officers will be installed and various awards will be announced. Miss Minnie Just of the Salem club is chairman for arrangements for the breakfast.

The post-convention board meetings will follow, luncheon to be at noon at Noblger's restaurant with Miss Phoebe Meadams from the local club in charge.

Mrs. Arthur Weidie of Salem is the outgoing president for the state organization, and will officiate at the installation of new officers at the Sunday breakfast. Justice Hughes also will be at the event and to give the charge to the new officers.

Board Meets

Mrs. J. T. Brand was hostess Friday at a luncheon for members of the board of Town and Gown club for next year, the event being at her home. Plans were discussed for the new year's work, meetings to be resumed in October.

The luncheon table was beautifully decorated with roses. Attending the gathering were Mrs. Brand as president; Mrs. Floyd Ulter, vice president; Mrs. Ervin Potter, secretary; Mrs. R. D. Gregg, treasurer; Miss Mabel P. Robertson, program chairman; Mrs. P. H. Brydon, music chairman; Mrs. E. M. Page, social chairman; Mrs. Paul H. Hendricks, membership chairman, and Mrs. Ernest C. Richards, president for the past year.

Meeting next Wednesday will be the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, in the Carnegie room, starting at 10:45 a.m. A salad luncheon will be served at noon with circle No. 4 in charge, Mrs. Virgil Home as chairman.

The afternoon session will take up at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Julius Pincus is to lead devotions. Mrs. A. A. Schramm is chairman for the program on a study of Korea. Mrs. Doris Lee Cookney is to sing.

New officers will be installed, Mrs. E. L. Fulton, Springfield, newly named WSCS conference president, to officiate.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Fleck of Seattle left Friday following two days visit at the home of Mrs. Fleck's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Harvey, Jr.

McKinley School Mothers' club is meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the school building, secretary, Mrs. John Olson; publicity, Mrs. Michael Panek; window display, Mrs. L. A. Lucas; outside concert, Mrs. Frank Marshall; worker's luncheon, Mrs. Edward Stout; radio, Mrs. E. W. Riskey; committee at large Mrs. I. N. Bacon, Mrs. Helen McLeod, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron; Mrs. Don Apperson, Mrs. Clara Poland, and Mrs. Merle Travis.

Meeting Thursday with Mrs. Lewis were the following captains who completed plans for the sale: Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Stuart Johns, Mrs. O. E. Palmater, Mrs. Frank Marshall, Mrs. B. W. Stacey, Mrs. Paul Fieker, Mrs. Michael Panek, Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, Mrs. H. H. Henry, Mrs. Silas Gaiser, and Mrs. Hattie Cook. Mrs. Sam Harrison, poppy chairman for Salem unit 136 met with the group.

Calendared for Monday evening is the eighth annual installation for the Salem Rotana club.

A formal dinner is planned for 7 o'clock in Noblger's restaurant. Mrs. Sylvia W. Riggs of Portland, who has installed local officers each year since the club was formed, has been invited to officiate again. There also will be a musical program.

On the committee for the evening are: Mrs. Lester Thomas, Mrs. Floyd Mathews, Mrs. S. L. Auman, Mrs. Chester Pickens.

The new officers to be installed include: Miss Lorena Jack, president; Mrs. Alfred Lutz, first vice president; Mrs. Enzo Nelson, second vice president; Mrs. Fannie Douglas, secretary; Mrs. S. L. Auman, treasurer; Mrs. Jack Brown, board member.

About 100 attended the mother and daughter banquet of the Englewood church Thursday, in the church recreation rooms. Mrs. Ben Koh was the guest speaker of the evening. She was dressed in a Korean costume and gave a very interesting talk about the women of Korea and some of the marriage customs in that country.

Mrs. Harold Douvis was the chairman of the program and also the toastmistress. Giving the toast to the mothers was Miss Clara Martin and the toast to the daughters was given by Mrs. Floyd Query. A group of the junior high girls of the church gave a short play and group singing was enjoyed. The color theme of orchid and white was carried out on the tables with flowers, candles and crepe paper. The menu of the church served as the kitchen committee.

The Salem Ministers' Wife's group is to meet Tuesday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Louis Kirby, 800 Jefferson street, for a no-host luncheon. On the program following, Mrs. Lloyd T. Anderson is to lead devotions and Mrs. W. S. Ankeny is to review "The Years of the Locust," by Erdman.

Each floor has a smaller machine filled from this large one. (Jesten-Miller picture.)

A membership campaign, a rummage sale, and a silver tea each fall the auxiliary obtains funds for its program of work for the hospital.

The group often has met to sew for the hospital and has contributed sizeable sums for linens and curtains. Among other things purchased for the hospital in past years have been electric dishwashers, mono-metal sink, service tables, refrigerators, sewing machine, ultra-violet machine, an electric mixer, a water heater and oil burning heating system.

Auxiliary members meet first Tuesday morning of each month during the club year and invitation is extended to all members to attend these meetings.

Members of the group also are taking an active part in assisting with plans for the new hospital facilities, the building program now underway.

GUESTS for the meeting of Capital Unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, Monday evening, will be members of the War Mothers, the Gold Star Mothers and the mothers of auxiliary members. The meeting is to be at 8 o'clock in the Salem Women's club.

Dr. Robert D. Green, dean of the college of liberal arts at Willamette university, is to be guest speaker. He has traveled in Europe extensively as well as in America.

Mrs. Ethel Lewis, poppy chairman, and her committee are in charge, those assisting being Mrs. H. G. Henderson, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. Edward Volgt, Mrs. John Olson, Mrs. E. W. Riskey, Mrs. Don Apperson, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron, Mrs. L. A. Lucas, Mrs. Michael Panek. Hostesses will be Mrs. I. N. Bacon and Mrs. Clara Poland.

Pouring at the social hour will be Mrs. Merle Travis and Mrs. Clyde Kaiser.

Special music for the evening will be provided by the girls' triple trio of Leslie junior high school.

Westminster guild of the First Presbyterian church is sponsoring a no-host supper for members and husbands on Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the church.

Mrs. Francis Colgan is general chairman. The program will feature a duet by Mr. and Mrs. William Bush, a drill to be presented by the Camp Fire group and Girl Scouts, a troop sponsored by the guild, and a film from the Oregon highway department on "The New Oregon Trail." Informal games also are planned.

Mrs. Paul Fugate and Mrs. Frank Veit will be hostesses to the meeting of Chapter G, P.E.O. Sisterhood, Thursday afternoon, the meeting to be at 1:15 o'clock at the Hayden avenue home of Mrs. Fugate.

Mrs. Charles L. Dunlop of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, arrived last evening for a 10-day visit at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Mills, Mrs. Dunlop's mother, Mrs. Charles W. Mills, Sr., of Chillicothe, Ohio, returned to her son's home today following a stay in a hospital here.

In Portland today was Miss Susan Feherty to attend a meeting of the department child welfare committee in the American Legion.

Veterans in the two Oregon hospitals have made more than 400,000 poppies this spring for the war effort. On May 27 and 28. For making these red crepe paper poppies the veterans receive two cents apiece. For many this is the only money they have earned during the year. The remainder of the proceeds of the sale is equally divided for the rehabilitation work and for veteran child welfare work.

Capital Unit No. 9 auxiliary is making plans for the sale of $500 of these poppies. Mrs. Ethel Lewis, chairman, has announced the following committee: vice chairman, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding; secretary, Mrs. John Olson; publicity, Mrs. Michael Panek; window display, Mrs. L. A. Lucas; outside concert, Mrs. Frank Marshall; worker's luncheon, Mrs. Edward Stout; radio, Mrs. E. W. Riskey; committee at large Mrs. I. N. Bacon, Mrs. Helen McLeod, Mrs. Malcolm Cameron; Mrs. Don Apperson, Mrs. Clara Poland, and Mrs. Merle Travis.

Meeting Thursday with Mrs. Lewis were the following captains who completed plans for the sale: Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Stuart Johns, Mrs. O. E. Palmater, Mrs. Frank Marshall, Mrs. B. W. Stacey, Mrs. Paul Fieker, Mrs. Michael Panek, Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, Mrs. H. H. Henry, Mrs. Silas Gaiser, and Mrs. Hattie Cook. Mrs. Sam Harrison, poppy chairman for Salem unit 136 met with the group.

Calendared for Monday evening is the eighth annual installation for the Salem Rotana club.

A formal dinner is planned for 7 o'clock in Noblger's restaurant. Mrs. Sylvia W. Riggs of Portland, who has installed local officers each year since the club was formed, has been invited to officiate again. There also will be a musical program.

On the committee for the evening are: Mrs. Lester Thomas, Mrs. Floyd Mathews, Mrs. S. L. Auman, Mrs. Chester Pickens.

The new officers to be installed include: Miss Lorena Jack, president; Mrs. Alfred Lutz, first vice president; Mrs. Enzo Nelson, second vice president; Mrs. Fannie Douglas, secretary; Mrs. S. L. Auman, treasurer; Mrs. Jack Brown, board member.

About 100 attended the mother and daughter banquet of the Englewood church Thursday, in the church recreation rooms. Mrs. Ben Koh was the guest speaker of the evening. She was dressed in a Korean costume and gave a very interesting talk about the women of Korea and some of the marriage customs in that country.

Mrs. Harold Douvis was the chairman of the program and also the toastmistress. Giving the toast to the mothers was Miss Clara Martin and the toast to the daughters was given by Mrs. Floyd Query. A group of the junior high girls of the church gave a short play and group singing was enjoyed. The color theme of orchid and white was carried out on the tables with flowers, candles and crepe paper. The menu of the church served as the kitchen committee.

The Salem Ministers' Wife's group is to meet Tuesday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Louis Kirby, 800 Jefferson street, for a no-host luncheon. On the program following, Mrs. Lloyd T. Anderson is to lead devotions and Mrs. W. S. Ankeny is to review "The Years of the Locust," by Erdman.

Each floor has a smaller machine filled from this large one. (Jesten-Miller picture.)