

Dallas Council Bans 'Crackers'

Dallas—Action of the Dallas city council will make most local kids happy, even though it means some curtailment of their Fourth of July celebrations.

Councilmen approved an ordinance that makes fireworks restrictions conform to the new state law on the subject. Essence of the new statute is that the kids will have a longer period in which to celebrate (June 20 to July 6) but the firecrackers cannot be as large as heretofore allowed.

At the time the new ordinance was passed the old ordinance on the subject was repealed. It limited shooting of fireworks to one day only, July 4, and restricted sale of them in the city to one week prior to the Fourth.

Strict control on the sale of fireworks is imposed. No minor will be allowed to operate a fireworks stand. Retailers must buy a city license for each location at which the fireworks are to be sold. None may be sold on premises where gasoline or other explosives are to be sold. Sellers cannot display fireworks until they have been granted a city license.

Since the state law prohibits the size of fireworks to exceed a certain maximum, none will be received in the city that do not conform to the law.

Requests in letters from the Lions club and the Chamber of Commerce that the Dallas school band be made the official city band were presented to councilmen. The contention is that the school band represents the city at functions outside of town and is capable of representing the city well. The official city band is eligible for a small tax levy for its support, and a second band has been organized during the summer months as the city band. Practices have already been started for the summer season.

Should the school band be designated as official, the other band would probably be discontinued.

The matter was referred to the band committee for thorough investigation before action is taken.

Ray Sanders, placed on the Braves inactive list with a broken wrist, hit .329 for Hartford Conn., last season.

Stayton Urged To Make Plans

Stayton—That a city should have a plan prepared, just as one is needed in building a house, was the opinion voiced by Roy Philippi for the Stayton Chamber of Commerce when the need of a long-range planning program was discussed by the men and women attending.

A planning commission was to be proposed to the city council, which would have zoning, sewer development and streets as a part of its work, in an advisory capacity. Possibility of an industrial survey for the town was reported having been investigated by F. M. Forrette.

With socialized medicine as the topic, a debate was held by Gary Ward and Ruth Bischoff of the high school speech class. Their instructor, Mrs. June Miley was also present. Thomas Wayne Tate of Sublimity played a piano solo. L. H. Burns of the was introduced as a new member.

George Tate of Sublimity spoke on the public power issue. He stated that Marion county was the second county in the United States in 1948 in the value of its agricultural production, Orange county, Calif., being first.

Falls City Friends Honor Mrs. Henthorne

Falls City—A birthday surprise party was given Mrs. L. M. Henthorne at her home by some of her neighbors and friends. Refreshments were served to Mrs. L. M. Henthorne, Mrs. Albina Henthorne, her mother from Portland, Mrs. Orlo Frink and daughter and nephew, Chester Jahans; Mrs. Oscar Rich, Mrs. Jessie Moyer, Mrs. Leslie Grippin and Lois Lillian and Mrs. Ernest Ingram. A double birthday dinner was given at the Henthorne home honoring Mrs. L. M. Henthorne and her son, Vernon, from Coquille. The guests, who were home folks, were: Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Henthorne of Coquille,

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henthorne of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Vernor Lovell and family, Mrs. Albina Henthorne, all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Henthorne of Falls City.

Johnny Groth, rookie outfield sensation for the Detroit Tigers, will be 23 on July 23.
