

Doubleheader Slated for Spokane Opener in Salem

The Spokane Indians and the Salem Senators will get together for a twin bill at Waters park after having the initial test of strength postponed on account of wet grounds. The two clubs will wind up the series Thursday night with a single contest and the Solons will meet the Wenatchee Chiefs Friday evening for a series that will extend through Sunday.

Ray McNulty and Jimmy Foster may be Manager Bill Beard's pitching selections for the twin bill.

Elsewhere in Western International circles, the Spokane Indians, although idle, moved up to the sixth spot in the standings while Wenatchee was being laced by Yakima, 12-1. The Chiefs turned in six errors. Wenatchee first baseman, Hal Rhyne ran his base-hit string to 15 straight games.

The Tacoma Tigers trimmed the Bremerton Bluejackets, 5-2 while Vancouver outscored Victoria 11-8 in a British Columbia feud. Homers by Charlie Mead and Orrin Snyder were the big blasts in the Caplanos' triumph.

The high-scoring triumph lengthened the Cougars' conference lead to a game and a half. The winners pounded four Husky pitchers for 16 hits, including Tom Marier's 400-foot home run with a mate aboard in the second. The two clubs belted 11 extra-base blows. Chorlton, Washington outfielder, also had a round-tripper.

The Cougars have two conference games left to play, both against cellar-dwelling Idaho.

Willamette and Pacific meet on Linfield college's neutral diamond Wednesday afternoon to determine whether the Bearcats or the Badgers will meet College of Idaho in a three game series to determine the Northwest conference title.

Coach Johnny Lewis' 'Cats, trailing 7-6 going into the ninth Tuesday afternoon, came through with a three run rally to nose Linfield college on the Wildcats diamond. That win kept Willamette's hopes alive for a shot at the pennant.

It was Gordy Lenz, Bearcat third sacker who produced the winning runs with his circuit clout after Roy Harrington and Chuck Bowe had been placed in scoring position by being hit by pitched balls.

Willamette trailed until the seventh when two runs put the Bearcats out in front by a single tally. Linfield tied it in the bottom of the seventh and then went ahead 7-6 on Joe Merchant's homer in the eighth.

Linfield produced a threat in the ninth when they got two men on with a single out. At this juncture Howard Olson, who had gone the distance, was replaced by John Slanchik. He got the next batter on a pop up and Catcher Roy Harrington picked a runner off second to end the game. Bowe and Lenz each collected two hits for the winners, with Lenz driving in four runs.

Willamette university captured a dual meet with Oregon College of Education Tuesday afternoon, 87 to 43, but it was Hank Decker of the Wolves who took individual honors with 19 points.

Decker took firsts in the shot put, discus and pole vault and tied for top place in the high jump. Ted Mertz of the Bearcat crew won firsts in the hurdles and a tie in the high jump.

The meet, held on the Bush pasture field, was handicapped by intermittent rain. Willamette swept the mile, the two mile events and the relay.

UCLA lost 12 straight dual meets to big brother California beginning in 1928, before the 1945 track squad eked out a 66-65 win.

Kiner Adds Homer to Dream of New Record

New York, May 18 (AP)—He doesn't talk much about it but the one big thing Ralph Kiner dreams about is breaking Babe Ruth's home run record, and if it ever is to happen this might be the year for it.

The handsome husky slugger of the Pittsburgh Pirates is blasted the ball with almost unbelievable force this year and along with his seven homers that tie him for the National league lead, he also has a .361 batting average, third high in the loop, and his 22 runs batted in are the fifth highest total in the majors.

Last night he got another homer as the Pirates topped the Giants, 3 to 2.

Ralph Branca of the Dodgers became the first big leaguer to win six games, beating the Cubs at Chicago, 8 to 5, when his mates scored six runs in the 12th, two on a homer by Roy Campanella.

At Cincinnati, Ted Kleszewski drove in three runs with a double and single in a 5 to 4 victory which snapped the Braves' five game winning streak.

The Phils pulled one out of the fire in 12 innings at St. Louis, topping the Cardinals 5 to 4 as Robin Roberts pitched three scoreless relief innings.

The Yankees pummeled Gene Bearden for 16 hits but even so got only enough runs for a 4 to 3 victory over the Indians at New York.

Pat Mullin and Johnny Lipon got back into the Detroit lineup and set off late inning rallies that produced a 4 to 2 victory at Washington.

Relief pitcher Alex Kellner won his third game in four days with six scoreless frames in Philadelphia's 9 to 2 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

Vern Stephens' ninth homer—tops for the majors—drove in the tying and winning runs for the Red Sox, who beat the White Sox, 4 to 3 at Boston as Lefty Parnell pitched seven hit ball for his fifth victory.

Corvallis, Ore., May 17 (AP)—Oregon State college's heavyweight varsity crew pulled to a three-length victory over the University of British Columbia oarman on the Willamette river here yesterday. Winning time of 9:2 was considered poor because of a strong wind and rough current.

Portland Should Send Scouts Here

Leavenworth, Kas., May 18 (AP)—The Leavenworth Braves of the class C Western association have finally won a baseball game—their first victory this year.

The Braves knocked off Hutchinson, 3-2, last night after 22 straight losses, believed one of the longest losing streaks with which any team has ever opened a season.

DiMaggio to Test Ailing Heel Next Week for Yankees

New York, May 18 (AP)—Joe DiMaggio will don his familiar "No. 5" New York Yankee uniform next week and try out the ailing heel that has kept him on the sidelines since the season's start.

The test probably will determine the immediate baseball future of the fence-punching outfielder, whose $90,000-a-year salary makes him the most expensive bench-warmer in the business.

In the meantime, the Yankees have no intention of putting him on any sort of formal shelf until there is definite proof he won't be able to produce.

"DiMaggio is going to be on my team until he can't play any more," Manager Casey Stengel said last night shortly before the Yankees nudged the champion Cleveland Indians, 4-3.

Shortly afterwards, Traveling Secretary Arthur (Red) Patterson announced that a new X-ray examination of Joe's heel showed "improvement."

National Batting Is Minus Musial

New York, May 17 (AP)—Stan Musial, usually a familiar figure up at the top of the National league batting race, is conspicuously absent from the top ten hitters, but his place is occupied by another member of the St. Louis Cardinals—second baseman Al (Red) Schoendienst.

The skinny redhead, back in the Card lineup after a siege of injuries, is hammering away at a .382 clip. He has rapped out 28 hits in 73 times at bat through games including those of Sunday, May 15.

Schoendienst replaced teammate Eddie Kazak, who led the pack last week. The rookie Card third baseman dropped 49 points from his .387 figure of a week ago and has dropped down into sixth spot with .338.

Williams-Bolanos Bout Postponed

Los Angeles, May 17 (AP)—Champion Ike Williams' lightweight title bout with Mexico's Enrique Bolanos, scheduled for May 26, has been postponed. But a new date probably will be set today.

Dr. Francisco Bravo, California athletic commission physician, announced after examining Williams yesterday that the champion is suffering from bursitis of the right shoulder joint. The malady is an inflammation of the sac containing fluid which lubricates the joint.

Frank (Blinky) Palermo, Philadelphia, co-manager of Williams, requested a delay of six weeks to two months. Dr. Bravo said the condition warrants such a layoff. Inspector Clayton Frye of the athletic commission said no official action will be taken until he confers with the state board.
