Golden Jubilee of Woodburn Catholic Parish Set May 22

Woodburn—Most Rev. Edward D. Howard, D.D., archbishop of Portland in Oregon, will offer Pontifical High Mass Sunday morning, May 22, at 10:30 o'clock to commemorate the golden jubilee of St. Luke's parish, Woodburn. The Rev. The Archbishop will be assisted at the pontifical ceremonies by the Benedictine Fathers and seminarians from Mt. Angel. The Very Rev. Martin Pollard, O.S.B., prior of the Abbey, and the Very Rev. Justin Hiley, O.S.B., rector of Mt. Angel Seminary, will be assistant lectors. The Rev. Boniface Alther, O.S.B., first young man from Woodburn ordained to the priesthood, and the Rev. Kevin Joyce, O.S.B. will be deacon and subdeacon at the Pontifical Mass. The Rev. Hildebrand Melchior, O.S.B. from St. Mary's parish Mt. Angel, will carry the episcopal cross.

Dennis Marx, O.S.B., dean of music at the monastery, will sing the proper votive Mass of thanksgiving in honor of St. Luke. The seminary choir will also sing the recessional hymn, "Ecce Sacerdos", the offertory motet and the closing hymn of thanksgiving, the traditional Gregorian "Te Deum". The Rev. Frater David, O.S.B., Abbey organist, will be at the organ.

St. Luke's parish was founded in 1899 by Archbishop Christie, with the Rev. L. A. LeMiller appointed first parish priest. The Rev. J. E. Rubis, parish priest for the longest term of office from 1923 to his death on November 18, 1936, built the present church of beautiful Romanesque style which was dedicated in 1933. Rev. V. L. Mofenbeler, appointed parish priest in May of 1940, is the fourteenth pastor to serve in Woodburn. Two other former pastors are still living, the Rev. Matthew Jonas of Stayton and the Rev. G. M. Sniderhon of Beaverton. There have been four regular assistants, the present one Rev. F. J. Hanley.

Parish Growth Noted
From 50 to 70 families attended St. Luke's church when founded in 1899, while the present family units total to 320. The parish school, built in 1903 and known as St. Benedict's School, has been staffed with Benedictine Sisters from Mt. Angel from its foundation. This school opened with an enrollment of 62, with 182 in attendance now.

Prior to 1899, Woodburn was a mission of the Gervais parish when Rev. Alois Sommer was pastor. Later the mission was served by the Rev. Adelhelm Odermatt, O.S.B., founder of the Mt. Angel Benedictine Abbey.

The present parish plant consists of the church building, erected in 1933, the parish house, built in 1902 and completely renovated in 1948, the school building founded in 1903, the Sisters' house obtained in 1941, the parish hall built in 1927 and the parish cemetery on the northern end of Woodburn which was founded in 1904. Present building plans call for a new parish school as soon as possible.
