

Senators Take Double Bill From Spokane, 2-1 & 8-4

The Salem Senators fashioned their 15th and 16th wins of the season in Western International league competition Wednesday night as 1539 cash customers enjoyed the entertainment. The "su-preme court" of the WIL, better known as the Spokane Indians, were on the receiving end of the 2-1 and 8-4 decisions.

Ray McNulty tossed a three hitter at the Indians in the seven inning curtain raiser while Jimmy Davis came through with an eight hitter in the nightcap. Support of both chuckers was on the top side, with but a single error being credited to the Senators during the entire program. A home run blast by Mel Wasley with the two Petersons aboard in the fifth inning of the second game, featured the Solons' attack.

The Spokes got two of their three hits off McNulty in the second when they tallied their only run. Larry Barton, ex-Portland Beaver and Catcher Bill Rossi hit successive doubles to score Barton. Then McNulty settled down to whiff nine batters during the balance of the game.

Jim Neeley proved no soft touch during five frames but in the sixth singles by Larry Orteig, Mel Wasley and Bill Beard manufactured a run. The game was won in the seventh as Jim Wert singled through the box, went to second on a wild pitch and was safe on a fielder's choice play at third when McNulty laid down a bunt to Neeley. Wayne Peterson was given a political walk only to have Bud Peterson slash a single off Richardson's shins at third to score Wert.

Manager Brillhart sent four chuckers to the mound in an effort to salvage the nightcap to no avail. One of the Indians' seven hits off Foster was a homer in the sixth by Barton.

Thursday night's contest will start at 7:30 to permit the Indians to make plane connections back to Spokane.

Skits and Scratches

BY FRED ZIMMERMAN, Capital Journal Sports Editor

Two From O'Dea

Jim Wert, Salem Senator first sacker and Bob Courage, playing his first year in professional baseball as a receiver for the locals, are products of O'Dea parochial high school of Seattle. Moreover, they are native sons of the community that has sent a number of men to the majors, and both saw approximately two years with the armed forces. Wert joined the Seattle Rainiers during their final month of competition in 1946. He was sold to Portland during the following winter, reported to the Beavers' spring camp and then shipped to Bisbee of the Arizona-Texas league where he hit .313. He joined the Salem Senators last season.

Legion Product

Courage after graduating from O'Dea high (named for Bishop O'Dea) in 1944 went into the service for a two-year hitch. He was behind the plate during his high school days and while playing with an American Legion junior club. Bob weighs 180 pounds and is five feet 11, although he appears to be better than six feet. Father, mother and a younger brother reside in Seattle.

OSC Crew Regatta

The activity doesn't produce much publicity, but nevertheless Oregon States still engages in shell racing under the direction of Coach Ed Stevens. Climax of the season comes Saturday forenoon when the Beavers will engage in competition with the University of Washington's lightweight crew on the Willamette. The two crews met April 23 on the Lake Washington 200 meter course with the Huskies winning by two lengths. No. 1 position on the crew is held by Ralph Fluitt, who gives his home as Salem. The program includes a water parade, presentation of the senior class gift, women's canoe races and the intramural finals.

Game Management

In an effort to eliminate the poor hunter-landowner relations which have become progressively worse in recent years, the state game commission has decided to set up a program of upland farm game management on a trial basis. Through agreement with land owners, the game commission hopes to establish blocks of 2000 acres or more where the landowner agrees to allow the public access to at least two thirds of his land with the understanding that the commission will post and patrol vulnerable portions of the farm, such as pastures, unharvested crops and occupied buildings. The agreement will also allow the game commission to apply such habitat improvement and other game management trials as will not interfere with the farming program.

Seek Cooperation

Sportsmen, who must shoulder the blame for the placing of many of the "No Hunting" signs by property owners, will be asked by the commission to cooperate in the development and protection of the cooperative farm game projects, four of which will be undertaken at this time. Two of them will be established in eastern Oregon and two more west of the Cascades.

Viking Nine Tops Bearkittens, 9-7

Jim Rock went the route on the mound for Salem high's Vikings Wednesday to defeat the Willamette Frosh, 9-7, and hand Mike Glenn, top hurler for the 1948 high school squad a set-back.

The game was played on Bush pasture diamond.

The Viking pitcher gave up nine hits to Glenn's 10. Salem went out in front in the fourth inning when they collected four runs to lead the Kittens, 5-1.

Four more in the fifth, put the high schoolers out in front again at 9-4.

A two-run, seventh inning rally by the Frosh fell short of the mark.

Predict Records To Be Broken in Northern Track

Seattle, May 19 (AP)—One 20-year-old record and another that was set only last year are likely to topple Saturday in the Northern division track meet here.

Dick Doyle of Montana and George Rasmussen of Oregon are the men who should eclipse the old standards, Doyle rubbing out the ancient discus mark and Rasmussen bettering his own high bar record. The Oregonian hung up a new vault ceiling last year at 14 feet 2 1/2 inches and this year has reached 14 feet 6.

There are more than 700 yacht clubs in the country.

Nats Win One Hitter Using Four Moundsmen

How about that many Washington club? Now they come up with a one-hitter shared by four different pitchers.

Not content with upsetting the American league with a streak of nine straight victories in the west, they're back home winning ball games in unorthodox fashion.

Last night's pitching involved Paul Calvert, Dick Weik, Forrest Thompson and Dick Werther. They served up a total of one hit—a single—yet they needed a three-run homer by Eddie Robinson to top Detroit, 6-3.

Of course, there's a gimmick. Nine bases on balls and three errors made it close. It turned out that the hit—Aaron Robinson's single in the fourth—did not figure in the scoring.

Calvert was forced to retire in the seventh because of a blistered finger. Weik walked four in a row and was derailed in the seventh. And Thompson was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the eighth.

Bobby Feller took another beating as the New York Yankees thumped Cleveland's faltering ace, 6-0, behind Vic Raschi's two-hit pitching.

The Yanks, led by Tommy Heinrich's two homers, clubbed Feller for 12 of their 13 hits in the seven innings he worked
