Skelton-Harrington Wedding Saturday

Jefferson — Betty Jo Harrington of Salem was married to Jack Skelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Skelton of Jefferson, at the Jefferson Christian church at 8 o'clock Saturday night. The marriage vows were exchanged before an altar beautifully decorated with baskets of spirea and scotch broom, alternated with palms.

Rev. Ralph Overholser, uncle of the bride, read the single ring service in the presence of relatives and friends. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Leonard McCaw sang, accompanied by Mrs. Poling of Albany, who also played the wedding marches. The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Charles Gee, wore a white satin dress with tight bodice, high neckline, full length sleeves, and fingertip veil. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible on which rested a white orchid and white streamers.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Don Keebler, wore a sleeveless yellow satin dress, with full skirt and yellow mitts, and carried pink sweets. The bridesmaids, Miss Betty Baxter and Miss Mary Jane Manning, wore aqua satin dresses, aqua mitts and carried sweet-peas. Don Keebler served as best man. Bob Hill and Dean Abney acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Dick Steel had charge of the gifts, Mrs. Ralph Overholser had the guest book. The bridegroom's aunts, Mrs. Emma Ludwick and Mrs. Melvin Doty, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Bert Scharff and Miss Doris

Campus Clippings

By DONA ADAMS

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

A tall figure in dark glasses, oversized coat and slouch hat linked into Tuesday's chapel shouting for the editor of the new campus humor magazine. A small Mortimer Snerd-like creature admitted he was guilty of the crime. Immediately a ring of blue smoke arose from three shots fired on poor Mort and two stretchers carrying students took him away. The murder was not as brutal as it looked for all was for the sake of advertising the "Puritan" humor magazine which hit the campus newsstand with considerable comment Wednesday morning. The "Puritan" was something new for the Willamette public and was selling rapidly at the 25 cent price. Featured in the lithographed publication were Fitz' cartoons in large quantities, selected jokes and stories, an unusual pictorial review of the campus events of the year and original ads for the local merchants. If the "Puritan" is able to make its place in the campus publications, W.U. will see two or three such repeats next year.

Though winds and rains had destroyed most of the campaign signs of last week, managers were out early Tuesday morning putting up new ones for the run-offs Tuesday and Wednesday. Not one candidate received a majority vote in the first elections so run-offs were necessary for all offices. Chuck Patterson and Russ Tripp were still vying for president. Rog Adams and Bill Olsen for first vice-president, Art Dimond and Burnell Ambrose for second vice-president and Pat Howard and Maxine Muckle for secretary. The three class representatives were also to be elected in the run-offs.

All four classes will become beachcombers this week-end for the annual class beach trips. The seniors will spend three luxurious days at the Taft hotel since Monday is their "skip day." On Sunday the Juniors
