

Wenatchee Chiefs to Open Four Game Series on Friday

The Wenatchee Chiefs, directed by Charles Peterson, one-time manager of the Senators, are slated to open a four game series at Waters park at 8:15 Friday night. Another single game is booked for Saturday evening with a double header Sunday at 7 p.m. The Solons and the Spokane Indians got in exactly one inning Thursday evening before Empire Flammia said "Let's call it for a half hour and see what happens." The rain continued to fall so the program was called off and the 200 fans got rain checks or their money back.

At the time of suspension of operations the Indians held a 1-0 lead and Jack Calvey, shortstop for the Inland Empire club had been chased for protesting too vigorously over being called out while batting, for interference. A batted ball hit in front of the plate, then bounced up and hit Calvey as he was taking off for first.

The Spokes scored after two were out when Paul Zaby hit a line drive in front of Bob Cherry that took a bad bounce and then rolled to the fence. It went for a triple and Zaby scored a moment later on a wild pitch by Bus Sporer.

Singles by Larry Orteig and Mel Wasley put men on third and first in Salem's half of the inning, but the threat was snuffed when Bob Cherry lined out to Parks at third.

The Yakima Bears continued their red hot winning streak with a 11-9 decision over Wenatchee. The Bears score a half dozen tal-

Krug Suspended, Refuses to Ink Salem Contract

Suspended because he declined to take a cut in his pay check, reported to be in the neighborhood of $100, Marty Krug, Portland Beaver first sacker is returning to his home in Glendale, Calif.

Krug, Salem Senator first baseman in 1947, had been asked by Bill Mulligan, business manager for the Beavers, to sign a contract with the Solons. This he declined to do at the salary stipulated. As a consequence he has been suspended which means he cannot play in organized baseball until he has been traded or sold to another outfit.

Krug was replaced at the initial sack on the Portland club by Vince Shupe, recently secured in a deal with the San Diego Padres.

Medford Favored To Take Oregon Prep Track Meet

Corvallis, May 20 (AP)—Preliminary heats in the annual state high school track meet were run off here today, starting at 1:30 p.m. (PST).

More than 400 high school athletes will compete in the two-day event, which Medford is again favored to win. The southern Oregon team won the crown last year.

Preliminaries were to be held in all events except the mile, high jump, pole vault and half-mile.

Promises Banishment for Bean Pitchers, Managers

St. Louis, May 20 (AP)—Life banishment from baseball threatens any National league pitcher found guilty of using a bean ball, League President Ford Frick said today.

Frick said the same fate awaits any manager who orders such a pitch.

He issued the warning after Lou Boudreau, manager of the Cleveland Indians, charged that "rival pitchers are deliberately throwing the dangerous and outlawed bean ball."

Frick said the penalty for players guilty of using the bean ball would range from a season to life banishment from baseball.

"I'd be just as tough on any manager who ordered such a pitch," Frick said. "But in my 15 years as head of the National League, I've never had to make such a decision."

Gymnastics! Brooklyn Dodgers left fielder Marv Rackley is forced out at second base in the eighth inning as he slides under leading Gene Mauch, Chicago Cubs shortstop. Gene fielded Ed Snider's grounder, ran over to tag second base, and tossed ball to first, but too late to double Snider. Dodgers won, 8-5, in 11 innings at Chicago. (AP Wirephoto)

Detroit Squad Listed as American Loop Darkhorse

New York, May 20 (AP)—Whether you call them Red Rolfe's Raiders or Rolfe's Red Raiders, the Detroit Tigers are a hot team to be reckoned with today in the scrambled American league race.

Under their freshman pilot Rolfe, who was one of the most hustling ball players of his time, the Tigers have come up with a well-balanced combination of hitting, pitching and fielding that makes them an excellent darkhorse bet for the pennant.

Yesterday Freddy Hutchinson turned in his second victory of the season, a 10 to 1 seven-hit job against the Senators, to vindicate himself after being knocked out of the box on four previous occasions. The victory increased Detroit's second place lead over the idle Philadelphia A's and kept it just two games back of the pace setting Yankees.

Larry Doby, Cleveland's great young Negro centerfielder, hit one of the longest homers ever seen in Yankee stadium when he smashed a ball into the centerfield bleachers, approximately 450 feet from the plate in a 3 to 2 victory. He drove in all Cleveland runs in the game.

The White Sox scored the winning run in the 10th on first baseman Billy Hatcher's error to defeat the Red Sox, 7 to 6 in Boston.

Rallying valiantly with two out in the ninth, the Braves pushed over the tying and winning runs to defeat the Pirates, 3 to 2, at Pittsburgh on Bill Salkeld's double and pitcher Vern Bickford's single.

The Giants defeated the Reds, 6 to 2 at Cincinnati as Sheldon Jones staggered to his fifth victory, being touched for 13 hits. The Dodgers scored a 2 to 0 victory at St. Louis.

The Phils and Cubs were rained out.

Basketball Coach Lew Andress and boxing Coach Roy Simmons both will celebrate their silver anniversaries at Syracuse university next winter.

Bevens to Angle For Beaver Post

Bill Bevens, released early in the week by the Seattle Rainiers, returned home by plane Thursday afternoon and reported he would dicker with Bill Mulligan, Portland Beaver manager for a berth with that club. He indicated he was not averse to joining the Salem Senators and reported his pitching arm never felt better.

Bevens expressed a desire to go to work immediately to prove that he can handle a pitching assignment in a creditable manner. He donned a uniform at Waters park Thursday evening and pitched during a brisk batting practice session.

After taking a shower he reported his arm felt okeh.

Leslie Trackmen Top Parrish Team

Leslie Junior high upset the record books Thursday by defeating a Parrish track and field team by 65 1/2 to 38 1/2 points in a meet held on the Leslie field.

It was the first victory for Leslie over Parrish.

The southern team was led by Larry Paulus who took first in the 50-yard dash, the shot put to establish new records. His total points were 16 1/2.

The meet set the stage for the annual track meet for the junior high schools of the Salem district — Leslie, Parrish and West Salem.

Notre Dame will open its 1949 football schedule with Indiana on Sept. 24, and close with Southern Methodist on Dec. 3.

Big Nine Votes To Stick with Rose Bowl Deal

Chicago, May 20 (AP)—A big nine football team will play in the Rose Bowl game for the next two years, no matter how good any other team may be.

Faculty representatives of the conference last night voted to send big nine teams to the bowl for two more years to meet the Pacific coast conference champions.

The five-year agreement began three years ago. For the first three years big nine teams were obliged to play. In the final two years, the big nine was to be able to select any eastern team it pleased for the Rose Bowl. But the conference fathers have decided to keep the game in the family.

The conference now is on record to send even a possible third place finisher next football season to the Rose Bowl. That would occur if Michigan and Northwestern wound up in the first two places.

Seattle Hockey Team Gets Rink

Seattle, May 20 (AP)—Owner Frank Dotten said last night he has reached an agreement with ice arena lease-holders under which the Seattle club will operate again this fall in the Pacific Coast Hockey League.

Meanwhile, League President Al Leader announced league directors will meet Sunday in Portland to complete the make-up of the circuit. Victoria, B.C., probably will be taken into the northern division.

"Uncle Mike" Steps Down Tonight

New York, May 20 (AP)—Sick, tired and worn, "Uncle Mike" Jacobs steps down tonight after 15 storied years.

When the lights go out in Madison Square Garden and the crowd files in the darkness, it will mark the end of a boxing era.

It will be a tragic moment for the thin little man with the ill-fitting false teeth which click when he talks. Michael Strauss Jacobs, who started life in the New York slums, has made a lot of money promoting fights. But boxing in recent years has become the breath of life to Uncle Mike.

First he accepted the sport as a challenge. And by careful maneuvering and an uncanny feel for what the public would buy, he tied up a young fighter named Joe Louis and brought the mighty Madison Square Garden corporation to its knees.

But a corporation can outlast the frailty of flesh. So tonight "Uncle Mike" goes to his knees.

It took them a long time to get him out, and they needed to help of a near-fatal illness and the young fighter who 12 years ago solidified Mike's position. Whether you liked him or not, and there were many who didn't in that bloody business, he gave them a run for it. Mike was a nonentity until that day in 1935 when he heard of Louis.

The Garden, not a partner but a bitter rival in those days, had contracted Jimmy Braddock to defend his title against Max Schmeling. But Mike broke that document and led his "boy" to the heavyweight championship of the world on a warm summer night at Chicago in 1937.

He was home then. The Garden bowed and made him a partner. And the years rolled swiftly past with nothing but profits and praise as Jacobs became a millionaire. He set them up and Louis knocked them down.

Then, in 1946, came disaster. Mike suffered a light stroke and then a brain hemorrhage which paralyzed his right side. For weeks his life hung in the balance. It was five months before he walked again.

As he fought back up the road of recovery, his "boy," Louis, reached the end of the fistful road. And, his right arm fastened to his side by paralysis, Mike was unable to retain his once sensitive touch on the reins and his empire started to crumble.

Now it is Louis, once the man who made him, who is taking Mike's place. He'll head the International Boxing club which replaced Jacobs' long-famed 20th Century Sporting club.

Stars and Padres Take PCL Wins; Bevos Rained

San Francisco, May 20 (AP)—The Pacific Coast league's number one and two teams—Hollywood and San Diego—picked up all the chips last night as the weatherman cut the league schedule in half.

Rain at Los Angeles and Portland kept half the teams idle, but the Stars and Padres continued their merry winning ways at the expense of the Seattle Rainiers and the San Francisco Seals.

The league-leading Stars blanked the Rainiers 4-0, and the Padres displayed enough power to subdue the Bay City team, 5-3.

Little Art Schalkoff of Hollywood set the Rainiers down with six hits as he won his sixth for the year against a single loss. Lefty Jack McCall, the Rainiers' new hurler, lost his first start by giving up seven hits in six innings, his relief, Les Oppliger pitched three innings of hitless ball in the losing cause.

San Diego got five runs in the first six innings before the Seals were able to score. One of the Padre runs was Luke Easter's 14th home run of the season. The Seals came back with three runs, but were not able to hit Xavier Rescigno hard enough to really get back in the ball game.
