

Miss Morgan To Be Wed In Summer

A college romance of interest to many friends in Salem was revealed recently, when Miss Mary Morgan, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Morgan, Salem, announced her engagement to Donald DeLisle, son of Mr. and Mrs. DeLisle of Ashland, Oregon, at Ann Judson house at the University of Oregon in Eugene.

The traditional fire alarm was given and the news was told at a fireside announcement party. Red and white and carnations, house colors and flower, featured the decorations.

The white cake was decorated with candy red hearts with the names, Mary and Don, inscribed upon them. Heart-shaped booklets, cleverly illustrated, were passed.

Miss Morgan, a graduate of Salem schools, is a sophomore at the University of Oregon. Mr. DeLisle, a graduate of Ashland schools, is a senior at the University of Oregon. He served with the medical corps in the U.S. navy overseas.

The wedding will take place in early autumn.

Eight and Forty Meeting Reported

The Marion County Eight and Forty meeting was held Wednesday in Stayton at the home of Mrs. Harry Humphreys. A no-host dinner was enjoyed followed by the business meeting presided over by Mrs. Earl T. Andresen. The occasion was a school days dress-up party. Mrs. Mem Pearce won a prize for being the best dressed school girl and Mrs. Earl Andresen for the best dressed boy. Under new business it was voted to place a wreath on the War Mothers monument on the Marion county courthouse lawn Memorial day. A donation was made to assist in the departmental project of providing necessities for the children at the Siletz Indian reservation.

On June 15 a formal initiation of new members will be held in the Mayflower hall, convening at 8 o'clock. Also elections of new officers will take place. Mrs. W. O. Green and Mrs. Ben Kuensting will have charge of the refreshment hour following the meeting.

Those attending the May meeting were Mrs. Earl T. Andresen, Mrs. Jennie Bartlett, Mrs. Albert C. Gragg, Mrs. W. O. Green, Mrs. Ben Kuensting, Mrs. Fred Lucht, Mrs. Mem Pearce, Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, Mrs. H. H. Henry, Mrs. Mae Heggie, Mrs. Walter G. Miller, Mrs. Byron Lueallen, Mrs. Beryl Porter, Mrs. Frank Zinn, and the hostess, Mrs. Harry Humphreys.

McKINLEY SCHOOL Mothers' club met this past Tuesday evening. Miss Joyce Joslyn, executive secretary of the Mental Hygiene association, talked to the group. This was the last meeting of the group until fall. The mothers voted to assist with a refreshments booth at the school spring festival, Friday.

MRS. JOHN POWELL was hostess at her home in Turner Thursday at a luncheon and bridge party for a group of Salem friends.

Goldenweds Are Honored by Group

Hopewell — Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Marion Gilchrist, on their 50th wedding anniversary, relatives and friends entertained at the social room of the Hopewell United Brethren church from 8 to 10 o'clock Tuesday evening. They were married in Ainsworth, Neb., May 17, 1899.

More than 60 relatives and friends were present with others calling by telephone or sending cards and letters. The greetings from the farthest point were from their eldest son and his family at Ainsworth, Neb.

Mrs. Gilchrist wore a gown of aqua blue and a corsage of pink rosebuds a gift from her husband. The gold and white color scheme was carried out in the room and refreshments.

Appearing on a short program of readings, vocal and instrumental music were Mrs. Joe Beatty, Mrs. Richard Jones, vocal duet; Miss Marceena Dale Fowler, piano solo; Robert Gilchrist, vocal solo; Mrs. Ross Rogers, reading; Carl Hershel, prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilchrist are members of the Congregational church at Ainsworth, Neb., but both are ardent supporters of the local church and both teach classes in the Sunday school. She is member of the Ladies Aid. He is 74 and she is 68. They came from Ainsworth and settled in the Wheatland district seven years ago and moved to Hopewell last winter.

Mrs. Owne Pearce received the guests. Mrs. Robert Gilchrist had charge of the guest book, Mrs. Joe Beatty had charge of the program, Mrs. John Geisler received the gifts and John Geisler made the presentation.

Mrs. Ernest Fernaw of Salem cut the four tier decorated wedding cake after the couple cut the first slice. A family dinner for relatives was served at the home.

They are parents of five children, three sons and two daughters. All were present except the eldest son, Frazier Gilchrist and his family. The children present were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gilchrist, Roberta and Morris of Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilchrist of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Cameron, Marcia and Gregg of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fernaw, Marion and Catherine of Salem. Mrs. Jennie Belle Kring of Woodburn, a sister of Mrs. Gilchrist, also attended.

Campus Clippings

By MARILYN HILL

OREGON STATE COLLEGE

High school guests are being welcomed to the campus this week-end for two days packed with activities. On Friday night the Associated Women Students present their annual carnival with all of the women's living organizations holding concessions in the armory. Following the carnival guests will be entertained at the traditional midnight show.

On Saturday, the day when all students move up a class, freshmen women will rid themselves of the green ribbons that they have worn every Wednesday all year. After the burning-of-the-green they will officially be sophomores. A car rally will take the crowd to the scene of the rook-sophomore tug-o-war, which will be held over the mill race this year. From there everyone will meet on lower campus for a program of student talent. Saturday night a big dance will be held for the guests. Sunday will be the time for church, dinners, and swimming—if the weather permits.

Breakfast Due

Graduating senior women will be honored at an annual breakfast given by the Oregon State chapter of the American Association of University Women this Saturday in the tea room of the Memorial Union. This is an annual farewell to the women and is eagerly anticipated by them.

Approximately 1500 persons danced to the music of Eddie Fitzpatrick at the senior ball "Forty-niners' Farewell" last Friday night. The theme of the ball was carried out on murals covering the walls of the Memorial Union ballroom. Murals included life sized, old-time cancan girls, a street scene of an old California mining town, and a band wagon heading into the golden sunset. The little ballroom was transformed into a bar with the traditional "park your guns" signs painted above the bar. Cactus plants and ferns were scattered throughout the ballroom.

"Hamlet," William Shakespeare's immortal tragedy, was presented to the students in the form of the academy-award winning screen production. The 155 minute film was eagerly awaited by the students who went away raving about the presentation.

Initiations Reported

Patrick Bond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Pekar, was recently initiated into National Collegiate Players, a national dramatic honorary, and Mask and Dagger, the college honorary. Mary Elizabeth Reinhart was tapped for the honor society for women in business, Phi Chi Theta. Omicron Nu, home economics honorary, initiated Mary Massee, who was also elected secretary of the group. In the field of education Janet Miller was initiated into Kappa Delta Pi, education honor group.

Golf Event

The Oak Knoll Ladies' Golf club members were hostesses to the Riverwood club near McMinnville at their meeting, Wednesday.

Low net for the Riverwood women went to Mrs. Shirley Welch and Mrs. Mary Workman, runner-up; and to the Oak Knoll ladies, first went to Mrs. Jack Eakin and Mrs. Paul Wishart as runner-up.

About 40 were present for the day. Luncheon was served. The Oak Knoll ladies made plans for a two-ball foursome event, starting at 3 p.m. Sunday next, dinner to follow the play.

MEMBERS of the Ave Maria Study club met at the home of Mrs. Esther Elder, Wednesday evening, and entertained the other ladies of St. Joseph's church who reside in the Salem Heights-Liberty district. Following a no-host dinner the last study hour followed after which the evening was spent in conversation and making acquaintances.

Attending the meeting were Mesdames Rosa Staab, Lillas Friary, Eleanor Beigler, Carrie Fitzpatrick, Regina Rupp, Beth Beigler, Louise Vanek, Ida Rothweiler, Ryllis Lindsay, Irene Cavell, Shirley Balloun, Elizabeth Maxwell, Mary Bina, Sylvia Boaz, Edith Riley, Mary Hrubetz, Barbara Lovcik, Gladys Hannabrink and the hostess Esther Elder.
