

Several Salem Women's Clubs Elect New Leaders For Next Year

COSMIS club announces its next dance for Saturday evening, May 28, at the Mayflower hall, dancing to be between 9 and 12 o'clock with Claude Bird's orchestra playing.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Domogalla, chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dumlér, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Monismith and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sant are the committee for the evening.

By Marian Lowry Fischer

HONORING Mrs. David H. Cameron, who is leaving in early June on an interesting trip, Mrs. Grant C. Rogers will entertain next Friday at a salad luncheon and bridge party at her home, guests for five tables being invited.

Bidden to the party are Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. L. M. Doughton, Mrs. Claude H. Murphy, Mrs. Guy N. Hickok, Mrs. Howard R. Pickett, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. Gene Vandeneysde, Mrs. Carl Chambers, Mrs. Karl B. Kugel, Mrs. Estill L. Brunk, Mrs. John C. Strickfaden, daughter of the honoree, and Mrs. Charles A. Cole, all of Salem; Mrs. Carl Greve, Mrs. Myron B. Feig, Mrs. H. Lawrence Lister, all of Portland; Mrs. Donald Nagel of Longview, daughter of Mrs. Cameron; Mrs. Minnie J. Bell of Monmouth, mother of Mrs. Cameron; and Mrs. Richard Kinley of Oregon City.

Mrs. Cameron is leaving June 3 to join a special group going from Seattle to Indianapolis for the convention of the Daughters of the Nile, June 6 to 10. Mrs. Cameron is a member of the chorus for Nydia temple of the Nile, Portland.

Following the convention at Indianapolis Mrs. Cameron will go on to New Orleans and New York City. On her return to the west coast, Mr. Cameron will join her in Los Angeles. They will return to Salem about the first of July.

From Oakland, Calif., comes word of the birth in that city on May 19 of a daughter, Anna Marguerite, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller. Grandparents of the little girl are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boentgen of Eugene.

Salem Beta Theta Pi Mothers' club members has been invited to attend the annual spring luncheon of the Portland Beta mothers next Wednesday, May 25, at the home of Mrs. Howard Stearns in Portland. Local mothers planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. H. V. Compton, 35910.

Arriving tomorrow for a few days' visit in Salem will be Mrs. and Mrs. Paul W. Harvey, Sr., of Tacoma to visit at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Harvey, Jr.

Members of Chapter CB of P.E.O. Sisterhood are meeting next Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Keith Reich in Independence at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. John C. Strickfaden has been visiting in Portland the past week.

NEW REGENT FOR Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, for the new year is Mrs. Ruth Henson who has a busy schedule with a job and also a home to look after. (Jesten-Miller studio photo)

AAUW Program, Social Friday

The annual program and social given to honor senior women of Willamette university will be staged by the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women next Friday evening, May 27, in Baxter hall at 8 o'clock.

Featuring the program will be a panel to be presented by a group of foreign students from the political science department of the University of Oregon, Dr. Charles P. Schleicher of the department faculty in charge.

At the business session of the branch new officers are to be elected. Hostesses for the evening are members of the retiring board of the branch,

Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson, Miss Elise Schroeder, Miss Marjorie Chester, Miss Mildred Christenson, Mrs. Arthur Bone, Mrs. Robert Corey, Mrs. Arthur W. Cole, Mrs. Dena Alm Davis, Mrs. Ralph Dobbs, Miss Mary Ann Foley, Mrs. Bruce Crandall, Mrs. Irvin Potter, Miss Ida Mae Smith, Mrs. Gordon Carl, Miss Constance Weinman, Mrs. Preston Doughton, Mrs. R. C. Miller, Mrs. E. S. Oliver, Mrs. A. P. Sprague.

During the tea hour, Mrs. John Burcham, immediate past president of the state division of the AAUW, will pour. This is the final meeting of the local branch until fall.

Mrs. Robert Needham will entertain for her bridge club, Tuesday, inviting the group for luncheon and cards.

Mrs. Kenneth Wilson will be hostess for her bridge club Wednesday, entertaining the group for luncheon and cards.

Mrs. Thomas B. Kenagy returned today from San Jose where she has been visiting the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie White.

For the half-hour program over KOAC for the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs next Friday, Rev. R. D. Bulky, president of the Federated Churches, Corvallis, is to be guest speaker on "Those We Honor."

The Letter Carriers' auxiliary is to meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Brewster, 580 North 21st.

ROOP-CORNELIUS WEDDING

A bride Sunday afternoon will be Miss Sally Cornelius, daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Cornelius, who is to wed Clifton Roop, son of John Roop of Stayton, at a ceremony planned for 3 o'clock in the First Christian church, the Rev. Dudley Strain officiating.

Early summer flowers in pastel colors will decorate the church for the ceremony. Mrs. William Skewis is to be soloist and Miss Rosemary Naff will be at the organ.

Richard C. Churchill is to give his granddaughter in marriage.

The bride will wear a smart white summer suit with all-white accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Miss Betty Feilen is to be maid of honor. She will wear a light gray suit, a white hat with green trim, and corsage of white carnations.

Donald Beltz is to attend Mr. Roop. The reception following will be at the Cornelius home. Assisting with the coffee and serving will be Mrs. O. R. Eckersley, Mrs. T. W. Leasure and Mrs. George Skages. Miss Gladys Goldsmith will serve the cake and Mrs. Thomas Blythe will be at the punch bowl. Miss Carolyn Eckersley is to pass the guest book.

Among out-of-town guests for the wedding will be Mrs. Floyd Brower of Portland, aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Roop, uncle and aunt of Mr. Roop, who will come from Eugene.

Following a trip to the beach, the couple will be at home in Salem.

PRESIDENT OF THE SOJOURNERS club, an organization devoted especially to providing social life for newcomers in the city, is Mrs. Hobart Jackson, shown here with her young son, Stephen. The Jackson family recently moved into a new home on Maine in the Keller district. (Jesten-Miller studio picture).

A WEDDING of interest to many university friends takes place next Friday evening, May 27, when Miss Barbara Robinson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Robinson of Gooding, Idaho, will be married to Stanley Ryals, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Ryals of Salem.

Members of the wedding party are being announced by Miss Robinson, who arrived here Friday.

Mrs. Kenneth Thompson of Twin Falls, Idaho, will attend her sister as matron of honor, Miss Colleen White-man of Hood River, Miss Shirley Ambler of Portland, Mrs. Wesley Woodard of Boise, and Miss Betty Cummings of Palo Alto, all college friends of the bride-elect, will be bridesmaids. Oren Ryals, Jr., is to be best man for his brother, Russell Robinson, brother of the bride-to-be, Jess Jones, Ray Fedje and Stuart Compton are to be the ushers.

The ceremony will be solemnized at 8 o'clock in the First Congregational church, Dr. Daniel Schulze of Willamette faculty officiating. Miss Dorothy Ann Hobson and Lloyd Powell are to be soloists for the wedding.

The reception following will be at the Chi Omega house, sorority of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Vernon Drye, Mrs. John Steelhammer and Miss Patricia Vandeneysde will be hostesses Monday evening to the Spinners club, entertaining the group at the home of Mrs. Drye's mother, Mrs. Charles E. Wagner, 605 North Summer, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. M. E. Knickerbocker was hostess this afternoon at a children's party to honor of her son, Glen, who observed his seventh birthday on Friday. Assisting the hostess was her daughter, Kay. Games were played and the traditional birthday luncheon served.

Guests honoring Glen were Joan Glenn, Jerelyn Hughes, Janet Griffin, Margot and Susan Wing, Jean Williams, Edwina Fitzgerald, Ann Halvorson, Douglas Halvorson, Wesley Stewart, Chester Hodgson, Gerald Beach, Jerry Swearinger, Buzz Williams, Jimmy, Johnny and Janet Davenport, Thirza Goeckner.

Four couples who make up a bridge club are planning to attend the Ice Follies in Portland, May 29, the party concluding the season's card parties. In the group are Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker Lineberry, Mr. and Mrs. David H. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Hutchison.

Mrs. Gerald Fisher and Mrs. Edwin Johnston were hostesses Thursday evening at the home of the former for an informal bridge party. Varied spring flowers were used in decorating.

Invited for the evening were Mrs. Hal Randall, Mrs. Herman Jochimsen, Mrs. Carl Jordan, Mrs. Norris Clement, Mrs. Ralph Caley, Mrs. Gilbert Wynkoop, Mrs. Carroll Ford.

Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, will observe her usual at home day, Tuesday afternoon. This will be the final one for the summer, the weekly day to be resumed in the fall.

MISS HALVARSON SETS DATE

Among August brides will be Miss Barbara Halvarson, who has announced August 28 as the date for her marriage to Stanley Girod.

The date was revealed at an announcement this week at the Alpha Chi Omega sorority house. The couple previously had announced their engagement.

The wedding is to be in the First Methodist church on the August date.

Miss Halvarson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Halvarson of Salem, Mr. Girod, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Girod, also of Salem. Both young people are sophomores at Willamette university and plan to finish their college education in Portland.

Line officers of the Salem chapter, Order of Eastern Star, entertained recently with a tea at the home of Mrs. Harry M. Lucas, inviting all members of the chapter to call. Hostesses were Mrs. Claude Post, worthy matron, Mrs. Russell Beutler, Mrs. A. L. Wallace and Mrs. Lucas.

A May pole and story book dolls decorated the tea table and dining room. Pouring were Mrs. W. L. Thomas, Mrs. Ida Vaughn, Miss Juana Holmes and Mrs. Mona Yoder.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Tyler, Jr., and son, John Tyler III, left today by car for a five weeks' trip to Michigan. They will visit Mr. Tyler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Tyler, Sr., at Detroit, and Mrs. Tyler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hill at Grand Rapids. At Grand Rapids John Tyler III, four and one-half years old, will be baptised in the family church, Grace Episcopal, a family reunion at the Hill home to follow.

Mrs. Roy Buchanan of Astoria is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Pickett.

Social Planned

Jaycee-Ettes of Salem will be hostesses next Wednesday at a party at the Salem Woman's club building, members of the Jaycee-Ettes from Silverton, Albany and Oregon City to be guests.

The event is planned for 8 o'clock. There will be a program followed by a dessert and bridge party.

Mrs. Homer Stiffler is president of the group and is assisting committee members in arranging the social.

MAY meeting for the Oregon State College Mother's club is to be Monday evening, a no-host dinner being arranged for 6:30 o'clock in the Four Corners Community hall for members and their husbands.

Invited especially to attend the event are parents of prospective students at OSC.

Dr. D. T. Ordeman, new registrar at the college, is to be speaker and Mrs. Ordeman also will be a guest at the event.

Special guests invited include Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Strand of the college and Mr. and Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers.

Mrs. L. O. Arens will preside and new officers are to be installed.

WOMEN of Rotary plan their final meeting of the spring for Monday, a buffet luncheon to be served at 1 p.m. in the Golden Pheasant.

A surprise program is planned, Mrs. Charles Fowler in charge.

Mrs. Floyd Bressler and Mrs. Clay Cochran will be on the reception committee. Mrs. Abner K. Kline, president, will be in charge of the business session.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Bryant and two children of Dighton, Kansas, are visiting here at the home of Mrs. Bryant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hyames.

THE PRESIDENT for the Salem club, Daughters of the Nile, for next year is Mrs. Charles Boyer, pictured here with her children, Jo Ann and Keith. The club carries on an extensive program of philanthropic work during the year to assist the Shrine hospital for crippled children and in the care of crippled children in this area. (Jesten-Miller studio picture)

Evening Musicale

Interesting to a large group for Tuesday evening will be the evening of music sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. James C. Stone.

Josephine Albert Spaulding, mezzo soprano, accompanied by Mrs. A. A. Schramm; and Doris McCann, organist, will be featured in the program arranged for 8 o'clock in the Stone Piano company building, Fairgrounds road.

Program for the evening follows: Choral Prelude—Come Sweet Death . . . Bach Choral Fantasia in A Minor . . . Bach The Bell Symphony . . . Purcell

Doris McCann, organist: Stille Traenen (Silent Tears) . . . Schumann When I Bring to You Colour'd Toys . . . Carpenter

The Sleep That Flits on Baby's Eyes . . . Carpenter Spring Song of the Robin Woman (from the Indian opera Shanewis) . . . C. Madman Josephine Albert Spaulding, mezzo soprano

Lucille Schramm, accompanist: Andante—Grande Piece Symphonique in F Minor . . . Franck Wind in the Pine Trees . . . Clokey Meditation . . . Sturges Clouds . . . Ceiga

Doris McCann: Intreat Me Not to Leave Thee (book of Ruth) . . . Watts Transformation . . . Watts

May-Day Carol . . . Taylor My Parting Gift . . . Warren

Josephine Albert Spaulding: Toccata—Suite Gothique . . . Boellmann Clair de Lune . . . Debussy

Doris McCann: Following the program refreshments will be served. Mrs. David Eason is to preside at the coffee urn and Miss Alice Cray Brown will be at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving will be Mrs. Frank Fisher, Mrs. Stuart Lancefield, Mrs. Wheeler English, Mrs. Kenneth Manning, Mrs. George Scales, Mrs. Glenn Stevens, Mrs. A. C. Gerlinger, Mrs. Harold Busick, Mrs. George Hill.

The program is an invitational one.

Salem Lions auxiliary elected new officers this week as follows: Mrs. Wayne Doughton, president, succeeding Mrs. Jacob Fuhrer; Mrs. John Ramage, vice president; Mrs. R. O. Lewis, secretary; Mrs. Robert Davidson, treasurer.

Installation will be a joint event with the Lions club late in June.

Delegates named from the auxiliary to the state convention to be in Astoria are Mrs. L. J. Stewart, Mrs. Harry W. Scott, Mrs. Merrill D. Ohling, Mrs. Stanley S. Smith, Mrs. Fred G. Starrett, Mrs. R. W. Land, Mrs. Walter Dry and Mrs. Jacob Fuhrer.

On June 9 the auxiliary members will meet for a picnic at the home of Mrs. Ramage on Croisan creek.

Chapter BC of the P.E.O. Sisterhood is to be entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. Clare Lee and Mrs. George H. Swift at the Lee home, 2465 South Commercial at 7:15 o'clock.

SOJOURNERS club is planning a dessert bridge party for next Thursday at 1:15 o'clock in the Salem Woman's club building.

Mrs. A. J. Becker, Mrs. Stuart Thede, Mrs. Howard Post, Mrs. O. A. Olsen, Mrs. Earl Parsons, Mrs. Richard Reynolds are the committee for the meeting.

Chapter AB of PEO Sisterhood is meeting Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Mrs. Clara Trotter and Mrs. Florence Hutchinson to entertain the group at the home of the former.

Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Wiles and daughter, Nancy, leave Wednesday by plane for Detroit, and later will visit at Chicago and go on to New York City. They plan to be gone about three and one-half weeks.

Regular golf day for the Salem Women's Golf association will be Wednesday, play at 9 a.m., luncheon at 1:30 p.m. Play will be held in the third round of the tournament.

Among club hostesses next week will be Mrs. Richard Chambers who is to entertain for her bridge group Wednesday at dessert and cards.

Mrs. Glen L. Weaver and Mrs. H. S. Boomer will be hostesses at the home of the former Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock for the meeting of Chapter BQ of P.E.O. Sisterhood.

BUSY WEEK FOR MCKAYS

Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay are in Medford over Sunday, the governor to give the dedicatory address for the new YMCA building there. Following the dedication there will be an informal reception, the McKays to be in the receiving line. State Representative Frank Van Dyke, speaker of the house, is chairman of the arrangements for the dedication. The McKays will return Monday.

On Tuesday evening, Governor and Mrs. McKay will be in Portland to attend the dinner being given for the Portland consular corps, James McDonald, British consul, being in charge.

To Oakridge on Thursday the McKays go for a luncheon and a tour planned by civic groups there to show the Oakridge industries.

Governor and Mrs. McKay leave next Friday for La Grande. The new Della Mayfield school, named for a teacher on the school staff since 1907, is to be dedicated Saturday afternoon at Elgin, Governor McKay taking part in the program.