LOWEN-LOEWEN WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Betty Loewen, daughter of Mrs. Nettie Loewen, to Marvin J. Lowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lowen, was solemnized the evening of May 17 at a ceremony in the Kingwood Bible church, West Salem.

The rites took place at 8 o'clock, the Rev. A. A. Loewen, brother of the bride, officiating. The dedicatory prayer was given by the Rev. Albert Fadenrecht.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, wore a gown of white slipper satin, designed with yoke of net and a train. The overface veil was fingertip in length. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of carnations and gardenias with a white orchid in the center.

Miss Shirley Loewen was maid of honor for her aunt. She wore a lavender taffeta gown. Miss Violet Veer, in yellow taffeta, was the bridesmaid. Flower girls were nieces of the couple, Karen Lowen and Sharon Boese, both wearing green taffeta. The attendants carried umbrellas covered with snapdragons in pastel colors. Candelighters were Mrs. Menno Penner, Reedley, Calif., sister of Mr. Loewen, and Mrs. Herman Boese, sister of the bride. They wore pale green taffeta frocks.

C. M. Lowen, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Larry Fitzwater served as usher.

John Friesen of Portland was soloist and Mrs. Harlan Ratzlaff was at the organ.

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore navy blue with navy and pink accessories, and pearls, and the bridegroom's mother also wore navy with navy accessories and strand of pearls. Both mothers wore corsages of lavender orchids.

Following the service, a reception was given in the church parlors. Mrs. Pete Loewen, sister of the bride, was hostess. Miss Jacqueline Buntjer was at the punch bowl and Mrs. David Loewen was at the coffee urn. Mrs. Clarence Harder cut the cake. In charge of gifts was Mrs. C. M. Lowen.

Following a trip to Carlsbad caverns, New Mexico, and into Texas and old Mexico, the couple will be at home on Kingwood Heights.
