After losing a very wet ball game Saturday night 6-0 when Bus Sporer proved ineffective, the Solons won the opener of Sunday night's twin bill 6-4 behind Jim Olson's elbowing. Salem lost the get-away contest 15-2 as Johnny Bianco and Gene Peterson were touched for 18 Peterson were touched for 18 solid smacks including Clint Cameron's homer in the late innings. Salem 6-2, Wenatchee 4-15.

Big Jim racked up his fifth successive victory of the season although it was touch and go at times. His mates turned in a half dozen boots while he was holding the Chiefs to eight blows, one less than Bruce and Stevens of the opposition yield-ed. Bruce was largely respon-sible for his own misfortunes, walking seven in the three and two-thirds innings he tolled. Olson struck out three and walked as many.

The Solons struck early in the abbreviated first game when Bud Peterson blasted a double off the right center field boards after one was out. Larry Orteig singled and Mel Wasley walked to load the sacks. Orteig and Wasley scored when Dick Faber mussed up Bob Cherry's effort to left field.

Successive singles by Bud Peterson, Orteig and Wasley errors turned the trick. The sixth tally was annexed in the slot, but their double win over Oakland yesterday rated them sixth when Orteig opened with a triple and scored a moment later on Wasley's single.

Lat week and this did not over Oakland yesterday rated them spot, but their double win over Oakland a triple and scored a moment later on Wasley's single. The nightcap was decided in the opening frame as the Chiefs got to Bianco for six hits and seven runs (all earned) before he gave way to Gene Peterson

Peterson gave up 12 hits and eight runs, also all earned.
Cy Greenlaw, appearing stronger than a year ago, was touched for 10 blows, but he scattered them well, the Salems being able to pick up lone tallies in the fourth and seventh.

Attendance hit the 2074 mark the best since the opening night Even so the club took a finan-cial beating during the week rains having washed out two with Spokane and one with the Chiefs.

The high flying Yakima Bears lost two out of three to Spokane over the week-end. The Indians blanked the Bears, 6-0 Saturday night and then took the Sunday night finale 13-7 after the Bears had won the first one 14-12 in 13 innings. Yakima's Snag Moore hammered out seven hits in eight trips to the plate Sunday.

Bremerton took two over Tacoma, 2-1, and 5-3. Vancouver and Victoria were idle.

The Pacific Coast league standings today looked much the same as they looked a week ago, but the Portland Beavers looked base blow. Four walks and two much better.

Last week and this the Beavers were occupying the bottom land's slugging nine to a total of three runs in yesterday's doubleheader and took both decisions. And they got the pitch-ing from youngster Hal Saltz-man and far-from-youngster Ad Liska.

Northwest Loop Committee Plans Spring Grid Rule

A committee headed by Coach Paul Stagg of Pacific will work out regulations concerning spring football in the Northwest conference, according to a de-cision reached during a conference meeting in Portland Fri-day afternoon. While a number of conference members agreed that spring football was helpful in moulding a team, not all were in a posi-tion to go into an extensive program. For this reason it was
